Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, May 29. [To the Editor of The Times:] Funny to watch these Senators switching back and forth on prohibition, Jones, an ardent dry, says he will go wet in a minute if enough wets will vote for him to keep him in there. Walsh of Montana says he would rather change his mind than his present address. Sheppard of Texas hedged out the same way. He would be only too pleased to represent Texas even if they wanted slavery and manslaughter, and poor Frelinghuysen is waiting to see if the mosquitoes in New Jersey vote wet or dry before he changes for the twelfth time. Politics is a great character builder. You have to take a referendum to see what your convictions are for that day.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

MEXICANS TO PROTECT AMERICANS

Guard Placed at School as Precaution Against Box Bill Demonstration

MEXICO CITY, May 29. (AP)—At the request of school authorities the police department today assigned two police detectives to guard the American School here.

The authorities feared Mexican students might attempt a demonstration in front of the school in retaliation for the Harris-Box bill, an immigration measure pending in the United States Congress.

The American School was founded in 1922. It has about 800 students, of which 300 are Americans. 400 Mexicans and the others of various nationalities.

About thirty American teachers are employed. S. B. Wright is president of the board of directors. All of his associates are Americans.

Ground Lost by Douglas

Arizonan Submits Brief With Committee Predicated on Original Contracts

Redrawn Agreements on Way East to be Ruled on by Attorney-General

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—Representative Douglas of Arizona, leader of the House opposition to President Hoover's request for a $10,000,000 appropriation to begin work on Boulder Dam, lost ground in his protest case today before the House Committee on Appropriations.

Douglas again appeared before the committee today to submit a brief, written by a Washington law firm and filed in the Congressional Record by Senator Ashurst of Arizona, to the effect that the power contracts between the government and the city of Los Angeles, the Metropolitan Water District and the Southern California Edison Company are not binding.

This brief was predicated on the contracts first signed, and not on the contracts redrawn in conformity with the suggestions of the Appropriations Committee members to offer better protection for government funds advanced on the construction of Boulder Dam.

The Attorney-General will give an opinion on the validity of the new contracts now on their way East by air mail, and if the opinion is favorable, as it is expected to be by those interested, the committee will act favorably on the appropriation.

No action will be taken on this matter before Monday, owing to a three-day governmental holiday.

ARIZONAN TELLS OF BOULDER POWER PACT

PHOENIX, May 29. (AP)—The Arizona Colorado River Commission met here today to hear a report from John M. Ross, secretary of the commission, on his trip to Washington, where he appeared before the House Committee on Appropriations which has been asked for $10,600,000 by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur to begin construction of Boulder Canyon Dam.

"The committee," Ross said, "apparently is interested only in one question and that is whether the conditions of the Boulder Canyon project act has been complied with in making contracts for power and water.

"They do not care whether the States have made a contract, or whose fault it is that a tri-State agreement has not been reached."

Mr. Ross declared the sessions of the House committee were executive in nature and the proceedings were not announced.

ROSS'S STATEMENT

He issued the following statement on the hearing:

"The hearings were in executive session for which reason until the proceedings are made public, I am not permitted to do so. However, I believe I may properly say this much: The Secretary of the Interior announced he has closed contracts with the city of Los Angeles, the Metropolitan Water District and the Southern California Edison Company, which were firm contracts guaranteeing that 100 per cent of the firm power to be generated by the dam would be paid for by the contractees thus assuring the United States that its advances to the project would be repaid with interest within fifty years.

"The Secretary has advised Gov. Phillips to that effect, indicating also that Arizona and Nevada might confidentially expect to receive very substantial revenues from the project. He also had released copies of the contracts which we were able to examine before arriving in Washington.

"It turned out that the alleged

STORMS BUFFET ZEPPELIN

Dirigible May be Forced to Skip Havana Stop and Head Straight for Lakehurst

MIAMI (Fla.) May 29. (AP)—The Graf Zeppelin was over Barbados Pass steering a northwest course for Havana at 2:20 a.m. Greenwich meridian time, (6:10 p.m. Pacific standard time,) according to a radio message received by Pan-American Airways here tonight.

HAVANA, May 29. (AP)—Wireless messages from the Graf Zeppelin tonight indicated that the large airship might cancel her scheduled flight over Cuba and skip the stop at Havana. They said the Zeppelin was encountering heavy storms.

The messages were received by Louis Classing, general manager of the Hamburg-American Line here.

They added that Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the airship, would decide definitely tomorrow whether the Graf should head directly for Lakehurst and New York instead of stopping at Havana. The Cuban visit was referred to as a "detour" on the trip from Pernambuco, Brazil, to Lakehurst.

FUEL SUPPLY TO DETERMINE HER COURSE

ABOARD THE GRAF ZEPPELIN, May 29. (Exclusive)—(10:10 p.m. ship's time)—We reached Barbadoes, the first island sighted in the Lesser Antilles, at 10 p.m. (5 p.m. P.S.T.) We should reach Porto Rico at 8 a.m. Everything is all right.

There was distant lightning at 6 a.m. We passed the steamer Wokingham. Our position at 9 o'clock was longitude 47 west, latitude 6 north. The sky is overcast and we are running without any assisting wind. We are expecting a northeast trade wind, but if it is not very easterly we shall fly directly over the Bahamas to Lakehurst without touching Havana, lest our supply of fuel gas should not hold out. The passengers, however, are hoping that we will follow a course to Havana.

Later—Our total distance for the first twenty-four hours out of Pernambuco is 1420 nautical miles, or an average of about 108 kilometers (sixty-six miles an hour.)

Inasmuch as we took on about 4000 kilograms (about 8820 pounds) less fuel than we needed at Pernambuco because of the heavy rain that was weighing down the ship, and since we have not found the direct east wind for which we hoped the long detour to Havana will probably be impossible. However, the decision on this will not be made until tomorrow at noon, after the exact amount of fuel gas remaining has been ascertained near the Bahamas.

ROYAL AUTO OF BELGIUM INJURES BOY

King Albert Pleads With Doctors to Save Life of Lad Struck by His Car

BRUSSELS (Belgium) May 29. (Exclusive)—With a pale face, King Albert of Belgium sat for a half-hour beside a delirious 9-year-old boy of a humble family today, holding the lad's hand and every few minutes turning to the physicians to implore them to save his life.

The boy was Johnny Van Der Whelan, who was run down by the car in which the King was hurrying to an air meet. The doctors at first feared for the boy's life, but announced late tonight that he probably will recover.

The King, who likes to drive, did not happen to be at the wheel. He never does drive when going to an official ceremony.

The chauffeur is a veteran in royal service, having been in the service of the preceding King, Leopold II, and is known as a careful driver. He taught the two sons of the King to drive and always kept them from speeding.

RADIO KVEP DEPRIVED OF LICENSE

Portland Station Denied Renewal as Result of Broadcast Charges

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—The Federal Radio Commission today refused to renew the license of station KVEP, Portland, Or., on the grounds that it has "indisputable proof that the station had broadcast obscene language."

The license of the station expires tomorrow. The Better Business Bureau of Portland and the Oregon Manufacturers' Association had petitioned the commission to deny the application for renewal of the license. They contended the station in broadcasting what they termed "inflammatory and offensive" speeches by Robert G. Duncan, defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress, had become a menace to the community.

KEARNY SITE GIVEN AID

Evans Clarifies Base Row

Washington Rumor of Air Force Merger of Army and Navy Complicating

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—San Diego's claim for the California dirigible base was strengthened today when Representative Evans of Glendale clarified the stand taken by Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval air service, by a rigorous cross-examination of the air chief before the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

At the same time that Evans was endeavoring to straighten out the Naval Affairs Committee the Military Affairs Committee was apprised that a well-formulated plan is under way for the consolidation of the army and navy air services. This came out in a hearing on the Kahn bill for the purchase of a metal-clad dirigible for the Army. The possibility of combining the two air services and the additional testimony given by Gens. Fechet and Gillmore and Maj. Hickam of the Army Air Corps will, observers believe, have considerable bearing on the naval dirigible-base controversy.

FAVORED KEARNY

In spite of the insinuations and bitter opposition of Chairman of the Naval Committee Britten, Representative Evans forced an admission from Admiral Moffett that until he had discovered Sunnyvale near San Francisco he had been a strong partisan for the Camp Kearny base site.

Although the admiral freely admitted that he is now as strongly partisan for Sunnyvale as he had been for Camp Kearny before his last trip to the Pacific Coast as head of the special base investigating board, he stated that he recommended it solely because he thought the northern base site the best. He added that he did not oppose Camp Kearny as a poor site. "It is an excellent base," he said, "but I believe that Sunnyvale is better."

Evans proceeded to pin Moffett down on statements made before the committee in favor of Sunnyvale by reading from the hearings of the Navy General Board in April of last year.

ADMITS FORMER STAND

Moffett admitted that he favored Camp Kearny at that time. He explained, under Evans's clever questioning, that at that time he had said that the nearer the base was to the fleet the better it would be but felt that an additional 200 miles of travel for the airship from Sunnyvale to the fleet did not outweigh the advantages of the site.

He estimated that the Kearny site is about 100 miles from the fleet base in Los Angeles Harbor, while it is about 300 miles from Sunnyvale to the base.

Britten interrupted Evans on several occasions, almost pugnacious in his demand that the cross-questioning be conducted as he saw fit. As a known Sunnyvale adherent, Britten's tactics were obviously those of a man trying to protect a witness for his side. He also insinuated that Evans had not come by the general board hearings properly and intimated that if anyone should have had them he should have.

Evans promptly denied that hearings had not come to his attention in a proper way and proceeded with his questioning.

THREE RECOMMENDATIONS

He clearly and completely proved that Moffett had favored Camp Kearny enthusiastically until Moffett had been shown Sunnyvale. Evans brought to the committee's attention that Moffett had made strong recommendations for the San Diego base on three separate occasions, twice before the general board and once before that committee.

Moffett agreed that he had done

TARIFF VETO DOUBTED

Watson Predicts Approval

'Imagines' Hoover Will Sign Despite Unsatisfactory Flexible Clause

New Proposed Plan Widens Rate-Regulating Power of President

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—A statement by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, that he "imagines" President Hoover will sign the tariff bill even though preferring a different flexible provision, climaxed a heated debate in the Senate today over an earlier action by the conferees in revising the Presidential rate-fixing clause.

The Indianan's assertion was in response to an inquiry by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic floor leader, and came after Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, had presented a new flexible clause broadening the President's powers and restricting those of the Tariff Commission as provided in the original conference draft.

Declaring the President to be "hungry for more power" Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, attacked the new provision.

DEMOCRATS BLAMED

Replying, Senator Watson said the Democrats were responsible for the new proposal since one of their number had raised a point of order against the original compromise which would have restricted the President's power and which Mr. Hoover was ready to accept.

Asked by Senator Robinson if he thought the President would sign the bill with the new flexible clause, Watson replied he could not say whether the Executive would sign or veto any measure, "but I imagine he will sign this tariff bill."

NEW PROPOSAL

The new proposal would authorize the Tariff Commission to recommend increases or decreases in rates up to 50 per cent and the President could approve or let them lapse by inaction.

The Executive would not be required to disapprove the commission finding, if he saw fit, as was required under the original plan. The sixty-day period given him to act also was stricken out.

The conferees also eliminated that section which would have permitted a commission rate to become effective if the President neither approved nor disapproved it within sixty days.

RESTRICTION ADDED

The flexible plan was returned to conference Tuesday.

The only restriction to be placed on the President which is not in existing law is that he shall not change the commission's findings in proclaiming a rate change.

At present, the President may proclaim a different duty from that recommended by the committee but he must stay within the 50 per cent limitation.

Another section eliminated by the conferees today to avoid another point of order would have required the President to appoint chairmen of the Tariff Commission on a rotation basis with no one man serving as chairman more than once during a term. The present law on this point, permitting the same chairman to be reappointed every year, was substituted.

The difference in cost of production between domestic and foreign articles is retained in the new provision as the basic factor to be equalized by the commission in determining flexible rate changes.

A rate proclaimed by the President would take effect within thirty days of his affirmative action. The original proposal would have made it effective in ten days.

MUSCLE SHOALS BILL SENT TO CONFERENCE

HITTITE TEMPLE FOUND

University of Chicago Expedition Uncovers Ruins in Turkey Left by Ancient Race

GHIAVOURKALE (Turkey) May 29. (AP)—The University of Chicago Anatolian Expedition has brought to light what is believed to have been an ancient temple of the stone-worshiping Hittites, the race which peopled this desolate area 5000 years ago.

The excavation, made at the suggestion of Ghazi Mustapha Kemal, constitutes one of the expedition's most important Hittite discoveries in its six years in Antolia.

WALL AND GATE FOUND

The Ghazi asked the expedition to try Ghiavourkale before beginning its regular work at Aleshar June 1. Hence the Chicagoans came here on the 23rd inst. and drew a test line east and west. By luck they bared a cyclopean wall and gate leading to what probably is a temple, as enormous reliefs of a Hittite king, priest and goddess were engraved on the exterior rock face.

Below the hilltop—the temple sits high, commanding the desolate Anatolian plain—two lines of turret walls have been bared, indicating that at one time the temple also constituted a fortress.

When the Associated Press correspondent reached this rocky waste after bumping over forty-five wild miles from Angora, the leader of the expedition, Dr. Hans Henning Van Der Osten, was unwilling to talk because the discovery had not yet been reported to the University of Chicago. The temple could not help but be seen as there was nothing else to see for forty-five miles.

DREARY SPOT

The leader is a veteran Hittite student, as are Richard Martin of Chicago and the German, Reifen Muller, but three newcomers arrived yesterday in time to share the temple discovery—Carl Haines of Newark, N. J., Owen Albert of Evanston, Ill., and Bruce Neil of Oak Park, Ill. Some members of the five former Anatolian expeditions fell ill, so the three recruits were mustered for this trip.

With fifty Turkish peasants as workmen and one Turkish gendarme as guard, these Americans have pitched tents on this sunbaked site. No trees, no water, no houses exist within miles.

HUNGER TRAILS DIXIE FLOOD

Marooned Louisiana Refugees Send Out Call for Food While Red Cross Rushes to Aid

ALEXANDRIA (La.) May 29. (AP)—Refugees huddled together in makeshift camps sent out calls of distress and hunger today from the flooded sections of Bossier, Red River and Natchitoches parishes in the Red River Valley.

Red Cross workers are struggling to get provisions to the marooned natives crowded together on the small hills above water and had released $12,000 in relief funds.

FAMILIES SUFFERING

Shick Gardner, a farmer of Bossier parish, told the Red Cross that near Plain Dealing at least fifteen families are in dire need of food and will face starvation unless immediate rations are sent.

As the full force of the flood approached the Alexandria zone night guards patrolled the levees.

In Cardo and Bossier parishes the water is receding from its wide inundation, while in Red River and Natchitoches parishes it is cresting, leaving its toll of six dead and wide property damage.

THROW UP LEVEES

Levee and highway workers in this vicinity are quickening their emergency levee building and sandbagging to protect rich farmland against overflow from backwater.

With a stage today of 38.2 feet, 2 feet above flood stage, registered at Alexandria, and a forecast for a stage of 39.1 to 39.7 feet, barring heavy rains, by June 1 to 3 the emergency workers who have been preparing for the flood for the past ten days count on the main levee standing the strain.

Little sickness has been reported from the refugee camps due to the use of typhoid serum by public health authorities, but several cases of malaria were discovered in the marooned village of East Point, Red River parish.

CREST OF FLOOD PASSING SHREVEPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 29. (AP)—The crest of the Red River flood which has caused six deaths and widespread damage, was passing above Shreveport and was stationary in Red River and Natchitoches parish today.

EVANS DELIVERS BLOW FOR BASE

Camp Kearny Site Accorded Greater Strength

Merger of Army and Navy Air Forces Rumored

as. But he fell back on a statement that Sunnyvale is a superior site from the question of defense and meteorological conditions as a reason for changing his decision. He was not able to explain his shift from recommending close proximity to the fleet to that for a base in the north except by a statement that he did not think 200 miles would make a material difference and that he is not sure that the fleet will remain at San Pedro.

CHARGES REFUTED

Charges that the Camp Kearny site lacked water and suffered from dust storms which would cause deterioration to the airship were challenged by Representative Woodruff of Michigan as well as by Mr. Evans. He finally asserted that he did not believe that the dust phase is of any great importance, and indicated that he is not particularly concerned with the present and possible water supply at the field.

He also recommended again that Camp Kearny be used as a naval heavier-than-air base if it is not used as a dirigible base. Off the record he said that the Navy could use all the available landing fields in the vicinity of San Diego, under a new system of air operations.

NEED MORE FIELDS

This was considered of particular interest, as the War Department plans to move its air depot at Rockwell Field on North Island to Alameda, across the bay from San Francisco, leaving North Island solely to the Navy. It has been believed that in this case the Navy would not need additional landing fields, a belief denied by the admiral's statement today.

As Admiral Moffett concluded his testimony the question of whether or not the committee will go to the west coast for personal inspection of the sites was again brought to the forefront. Britten assured newspaper men that the committee will make this junket, though he strenuously objected to that term, after Congress adjourns, if the committee is unable to make up its mind on the site.

However, there is opposition in the House Committee on Appropriations to finance such a trip, and talk among the committee members, according to a recent statement by Britten, is that it would be best to postpone the trip until after March 4, next.

TRIP UP IN AIR

At the present time the question of the committee going west is entirely "sixes and sevens." No move has yet been made to get the permission of the Speaker of the House to make the jaunt, one of the first requisites if the committee is to go.

Meanwhile the House Military Affairs Committee began its hearing on the Kahn bill, introduced by Representative Kahn of San Francisco, for the purchase of a $4,500,000 metal-clad dirigible, slightly larger than the Los Angeles, for the Army.

At the outset of the hearing Acting Committee Chairman Ransley, Republican, of Pennsylvania, stated off the record that there is a well-prepared movement under way to combine the army and navy service into one unit.

PLAN AIR MERGER

"Off the record," Ransley said: "I may say that I have knowledge that the joint board has prepared plans for such an organization."

Representative McSwain, Democrat, of South Carolina, advanced the opinion that such a unified force would be able to operate more advantageously in time of war, and indicated that he would completely back such a move.

The combination of the two air forces would considerably change the lighter-than-air situation, as the joint board, Gen. Fechet, chief of the Army Air Service, testified has left the development of the dirigibles to the Navy. Should the Army get the proposed metal-clad ship before the merger it would have to select a base for it, which might conflict with plans for lighter-than-air operations in a unified force, and already chosen naval sites.

In addition to the problem raised regarding the selection of bases with the possibility of a unified air force taking over those selected by both Army and Navy for totally different strategical reasons, the question of the superiority of metal-clad ships over fabric-covered dirigibles was raised by Mrs. Kahn.

METAL SHIPS FAVORED

Gen. Fechet agreed with the California Representative that "metal-clad dirigibles are pushing out those covered with fabric."

"I do not think," Gen. Fechet said, "that ships of this size are practicable with fabric covering."

Inasmuch as the proposed craft is not as large as the Akron now being built for the Navy, and the Navy can cancel the contract for the sister ship of the Akron if she is not successful, this question appeared to observers to have considerable bearing on the base problem in California. The Navy could house the Akron at Lakehurst and, though the department wishes to operate the dirigible on the Pacific Coast, it would not be absolutely necessary to build a west coast base until the second ship is built. If the superiority of metal-clad dirigibles is proven by the proposed army ship and the second navy ship is not built, the Pacific Coast base might be delayed indefinitely.

Maj. H. M. Hickam, Army Air Corps, repeated much of the testimony he gave before the Naval Affairs Committee on the usefulness of dirigibles from a military standpoint.

Hearings before the Naval Affairs Committee will continue Tuesday when Commander Rosendahl, ranking lighter-than-air expert in this country, will take the stand.

ALEXANDER WOOLLCOTT, famous New York dramatic critic, writing in Collier's Weekly (issue of May 3rd), said:

¶ "I recommend THE LAST MILE. As a warning to the fragile and the squeamish that they might better avoid the theatre (Majestic) where THE LAST MILE is playing. Compared with the stinging reality of THE LAST MILE these forerunners (Dreiser's 'American Tragedy' and Treadwell's 'Machinal') seem in retrospect like charades thought up for the back parlor."

¶ "The Last Mile," staged by Lillian Albertson, will open next Monday evening for the first time outside New York City at Majestic Theatre, Los Angeles.

¶ All seats will be sold at our box office ONLY and 40 neighborhood box offices, at regular box office prices.

¶ No tickets will be sold at hotels, agencies, clubs or scalpers. Why pay high premiums? First Matinee Wednesday, June 4th. 50c to $1.50. Eves., 50c to $2.50.

"It's Grandest On Earth," Says Calif. Woman

"For the past two years I'd had a gall bladder trouble and about a year ago my condition grew serious and my whole system became upset. I couldn't eat the lightest food without suffering with indigestion. A poor-acting liver kept me constipated and bilious, my back ached, and there was almost a constant pain in my right side; my tongue was coated and I had an unpleasant taste in my mouth all the time. I tried nearly every medicine and treatment I heard of, and when I was told I had bad teeth I had them extracted, still I got no better.

"I knew some of the best people in Long Beach who had gotten wonderful results from this new Sargon, so I decided to try it, and the way it has helped me is remarkable! My appetite is good, and there isn't a thing wrong with my digestion. I have worlds of strength and energy.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills that I took right along with the liquid got my liver active again and gave me lasting relief from constipation. I don't have bilious attacks any more, the pains have left my side and back, and the coat on my tongue and unpleasant taste in my mouth are gone.

"Friends on all sides of me seem to have good things to say about this wonderful Sargon treatment —I never heard so much praise for a medicine in all the thirty-four years I've lived in Long Beach, and I think it's just the grandest medicine on earth!"

MRS. ELIZABETH L. GEISLER

The above statement was recently made by Mrs. Elizabeth L. Geisler, well-known resident of 1338 St. Louis Ave., Long Beach. Sargon may be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

FORD BACKS MATURE MIND

Industry Would Go to Pieces if Older Men Were Removed, Says Manufacturer

DETROIT, May 29. (AP)—Henry Ford believes "more than ever" that business and industry must depend upon the leadership of men of mature years. He told the Associated Press today that he had found no occasion to change his previously expresed opinion that if all the men 55 years of age and older were removed from industry "there would not be brains enough left to carry on."

"This is no reflection upon the youth of today," he said. "I think that, while they are different, today's youngsters are a fine lot and they decidedly are not headed for perdition. Moreover, they have greater opportunities today than the youth of forty and fifty years ago."

HAD OLDER FRIENDS

Mr. Ford was asked whether he always had conceded the wisdom of age.

"You didn't think that back in 1894 when you began tinkering with your horseless carriage, did you?"

"I always had older men for friends and I always went to them for advice. I could cite them one after another. Old men understood my idea better than young men did. With mature years I realized more and more the value of that advice. I realized that in my youth I hadn't waked up yet."

Youth and age need each other, Mr. Ford went on. "Youth must look to age for its education," he said, "and age educates youth because youth interests it."

GOOD EXECUTIVES YOUNG

Referring again to the need of mature minds in industry, Mr. Ford said:

"Young men from 30 years of age on are the best executives—I mean they are well fitted to carry out the plans of an organization, but the best plans originate in older heads. The best part of a young executive's experience may be the way he is held back by the wiser plans of older heads. There can be an excess of action and an insufficiency of wisdom. Between them, youth and maturity provide both."

Asked whether 100 per cent education would not result in 100 per cent demand for "white-collar jobs," with none desiring to do the less pleasant tasks, Mr. Ford said:

"It is a fortunate thing, perhaps, that we never can be 100 per cent educated—or anything else. Constantly changing conditions and the striving for better things answers that question.

URGES CROP PLANTING

"After all, quality is the objective in every line of endeavor. Mass production of quality products must be the objective if people are not to stand still. I said previously that when people become contented there's trouble ahead. This is especially true if they become contented with the product of industry and the soil. Things always can be improved upon.

"It is because people never will become 100 per cent satisfied with everything they have that we never will reach the saturation point in anything that we produce.

"Every farmer with an acre and every workman with a lot ought to plant everything they can and as much as they can this year. It is a big step back to employment."

UNITY MOVE VOTED DOWN BY BAPTISTS

Realignment of Chicago University Trustees Wins at Northern Convention

CLEVELAND, May 29. (AP) — The minority report against closer unity with the Disciples of Christ was adopted by the northern Baptist convention here late today by a vote of approximately 4 to 1.

A realignment of the board of trustees of the University of Chicago, incidental to the plan to double the university's $100,000,000 in assets, also was adopted by the Baptists.

In the present alignment the board consists three-fifths of Baptists and the remainder of other denominations. Under the new alignment three-fifths of the board may be members of any Christian denomination, providing one denomination besides the Baptist is not in majority.

The Baptists deferred a vote on the resolution on prohibition until either tomorrow or Saturday.

Five Los Angeles County Boys in Annapolis Class

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) May 29. (Exclusive)—Five Los Angeles county boys are among the 401 to be graduated from the United States Naval Academy next Thursday, it was announced today.

Two of the five Los Angeles county graduates were formerly enlisted men, having been appointed to the academy while in the ranks of the Navy. They are Edward Sylvester Lee Marshall of Owensmouth, William Scheyler Post, Jr., 749 Garland avenue, Los Angeles. The other Los Angeles graduates are Howard Grant Corey of 810 Gaviota avenue, Long Beach; William Ellis Gentner, Jr., 949 Rose avenue, Long Beach, and Wilfred Aves Waller, 2222 Addison Way, Los Angeles.

The annual June week program actually starts tomorrow and is crowded full of social events in honor of the graduating class, which includes a large number of men who enlisted in the Navy and were picked to take the midshipman course at the academy.

Watson Joins Those Favoring Dry Referendum

WASHINGTON, May 29. (Exclusive)—Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, majority leader of the Senate, today joined the ranks of drys who favor an expression of sentiment of their constituents by a referendum.

Senator Watson said that some time ago he told some of the party leaders in Indiana that he believes a prohibition referendum should be arranged. His suggestion, however, was criticised by some of the drys and nothing has thus far come of it.

Senator Oddie, Republican, Nevada, also declared that he will vote to submit an amendment to the Constitution repealing or modifying the Eighteenth Amendment if the voters of his State favor such action.

Ex-Brewer Held in Bottle Raid

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 29. (AP)—Julius M. Stumpf, former Milwaukee brewer, and four others were arrested today by Federal prohibition agents who raided Stumpf's establishment and seized an assortment of bottles, kegs, flavoring extracts, labels, and other paraphernalia.

PROFITEER CURB AIM OF BRITONS

Consumer Would Fix Prices Under Pending Bill

Council of Seven Proposed to Inquire Into Costs

Measure Most Radical of MacDonald Moves

LONDON, May 29. (AP)—The British Labor government is aiming a blow at peacetime profiteers with a bill, now before Parliament for its third and final reading, designed to place the fixing of prices in the hands of the consumer.

It is considered by many political observers to be the most radical, Socialistic piece of legislation yet attempted by the MacDonald government, since the bill, if enacted, will force business concerns, when so requested by a specially created consumers' council, to disclose all information with regard to costs of production, distribution and supply of food, fuel, clothing or any other article in common use.

The consumers' council then would designate a "fair selling price" which, if not adhered to, would make the merchant liable to a fine, imprisonment or both.

The consumers' council will consist of seven members, of whom two at least are to be women, appointed by the Board of Trade, under whose direction the present bill has been drawn up. The board of trade may remove any member that it considers unfit to continue in office.

The council will investigate charges of excessive prices, or excessive rates of brokerage or commission, in respect to any community. The council then will recommend to the Board of Trade what price should be charged, and the Board of Trade may then make an order to that effect.

Each sale in excess of the specified rate will draw a fine of $25 for first offense. Subsequent convictions will entail fines for each sale not exceeding $50, or imprisonment up to three months, or both.

ARIZONAN TELLS OF POWER PACT

contracts were in the nature of options which bound the United States but left the contractees free to perform or back out as they might choose. This was not in accordance with the requirements of the project act which clearly specifies that such contracts shall be with responsible parties, valid and binding in all respects.

"These proposed contracts are an extremely important element in the Boulder Dam program. If they are made binding they would constitute the largest single sale of hydroelectric power in the history of the industry. It therefore was a great surprise that the contracts as drawn seemed fairly complete, except for their failure to firmly bind the contractees.

"It already has been announced that 'some minor changes' are to be made. Just what these are remain to be seen. Certainly it will require more than 'minor changes' to make them firm.

HARD FIGHT AHEAD

"Also the question has been raised as to whether the city of Los Angeles or the Metropolitan Water District have taken such steps as to authorize the execution of the contracts. It is apparent that the contracts were completed and handled with the greatest possible speed in the hope that an appropriation might be obtained from the present session of Congress.

"Our Congressmen will fight the requested appropriations. If it passes the lower house, it will encounter a hard fight in the Senate where Senators Ashurst and Hayden will vigorously oppose its final passage.

"Failing in that, there will be nothing left except to take the matter to the Supreme Court of the United States."

State Senator Favour, a member of the Arizona river body, accompanied Ross to the East and will aid the Arizona delegation in its fight against the bill.

Sears, Roebuck Shortens Week

CHICAGO, May 29. (AP)—The general offices and mail-order houses of Sears, Roebuck & Co. will inaugurate a five-day week July 1 for the months of July and August, company officials announced today.

The Los Angeles and Seattle houses were excluded from the order, and the decision for these will be announced in two or three days.

RAIN HELPS TO KEEP BRUSH FIRE CHECKED

SACRAMENTO, May 29. (Exclusive)—One hundred acres of brush was burned over today in the Arroyo Seco section of Monterey county, according to a report received by State Forester Pratt. For a time the fire menaced a number of buildings, it was brought under control by Herb Phelps, State fire ranger. Rain fell to prevent a spread of the blaze.

SALMON TREATY APPROVED

OTTAWA (Ont.) May 29. (Exclusive)—The Canadian Commons today approved the Canadian-American sockeye salmon treaty under which an international salmon commission is to regulate the seasons and the catches of this valuable fish which it is feared is fast disappearing from Pacific Coast waters.

PATTERSON (N. J.) May 29. (AP)—Fred Thompson, policeman, is pleased over his success with a celebrity. He requested a lift of a motorist and asked the driver if he wern't so and so. The driver merely smiled. The policeman remarked on the nice run the motorist's father-in-law is making. There was no answer. Then there were remarks about the weather.

Col. Lindbergh agreed that it was atrocious.

NEW FIND IN JEWEL ROUND-UP

Chicago Clew Expected to Lead to More Gems; Six Held in New York

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—The stolen jewel round-up which began early this week continued today, with developments popping out on all sides and further sensational angles in the offing.

The status of the case tonight is as follows: Five men and a woman are under arrest here. Police have $1,300,000 worth of recovered jewels here and today obtained permission to open a safe deposit box in Chicago they believe contains $200,000 more. Additional arrests are promised and some of the men to be arrested are said to be prominent jewelers.

Police consider their most important prisoner is Robert Nelson, in whose deposit boxes here $1,000,000 worth of jewels were seized. It is asserted to be a box of his, too, that was located in Chicago. Next in importance are the four men and a woman arrested with $300,000 worth of jewels the day before Nelson was taken. They are Hilda Carter of Rhode Island, William J. O'Connor of Buffalo, George Cole, James Watson of Buffalo, and Jacob Rosen of New York.

Nelson was released in $35,000 bail yesterday and the other five were refused bail pending court hearing.

NAVAL FUND BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Appropriation Measure Provides for $380,000,000; Way Open to Adjourn

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—The Senate today passed the last of the regular appropriations bills—that providing $380,000,000 for the Navy—and cleared the way for adjournment.

The naval measure carried $56,000,000 for carrying on the naval construction program within the terms of the new London naval limitations treaty.

Appropriation of $7,400,000 for modernization of the battleships Pennsylvania and Arizona is provided. Another fund of $38,800,000 is for construction of new ships and $10,600,000 is allowed for armor, armaments and ammunitions of new warships.

President Hoover today signed the War Department appropriation bill for 1931, calling for $339,108,454 for military activities and $117,437,692 for nonmilitary activities.

Pershing to Be Run For Senate Despite Protest

LINCOLN (Neb.) May 29. (AP)—Former service men of Nebraska are finding it easy to say "no" to their former commanding general, John J. Pershing, and they are doing just that without fear of the guard house to the latter's refusal to enter the Senatorial race as an opponent of George W. Norris.

"The general's name will be entered for the Republican primaries and if he is determined to ignore our wishes, he will have until July 3 to withdraw his name," said A. A. Misegadis, a leader in the "draft" movement, replying to dispatches from Paris, where Pershing reiterated his determination to stay out of Nebraska politics.

Petitions are in circulation, Misegadis related, and a "Pershing-for-Senator" headquarters has been established.

Prints Identify Amnesia Victim

SACRAMENTO, May 29. (AP)—An amnesia victim held by Red Bluff authorities was identified today by the State Bureau of Criminal Identification as William H. Douglas, who was arrested January 7, 1929, in Santa Clara county, where he posed as an army officer and passed worthless checks on clothing stores.

Douglas, who gave his name in Red Bluff as Harry Robb, was identified from his picture and fingerprints sent to the bureau by Sheriff Hull of Tehama county.

MORROW LAUDS HOOVER ACTION

President's Policy in Stock Crash Praised

Candidate Says Conditions Call for Courage

Entire Address Devoted to Business Review

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) May 29. (Exclusive)—Dwight W. Morrow, candidate for the Senatorial nomination in New Jersey, making the second official speech of his campaign here this noon, praised President Hoover and, referring to business conditions, said:

"Just as last year was a period for caution, this year is a period for courage."

Mr. Morrow did not refer to the World Court, to the pending tariff bill, to the London disarmament conference or to prohibition. His entire address was given over to a review of trade conditions.

"While we cannot predict with accuracy when changes in business conditions may come," he said, "we can have faith that a great people, with a great industrial plant, and with ample credit resources, will go on with their work, raising still higher their power of consuming goods for the durable satisfaction of life, furnishing more employment to each other by a further multiplication of the interchange of goods and services."

RUMORS OF 1932

The references to Mr. Hoover were of particular interest because of the many rumors that have been printed about Mr. Morrow becoming a Presidential candidate in 1932.

"President Hoover deserves and will receive the gratitude of this country for his constructive action in a time of serious emergency," Mr. Morrow said, referring to last fall's stock market crash. "He has given an impulse to the investigation by economists and industrial leaders of the insufficiently understood causes of business cycles and their disastrous influence upon steady employment. As a result of his leadership, thousands of men have been working the past six months who otherwise might have remained idle.

"But after all is said and done, the most effective cure for bad times rests with business men themselves."

LINDBERGH HIS PILOT

Morrow today announced he is going to take advantage of the fact he has a flyer for a son-in-law.

The Senatorial candidate has an engagement tomorrow morning to dedicate a monument at Camp Merritt, near Tenafly.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will pick up Mr. Morrow here tomorrow on his way back home from Washington and land him at Newark in time to get to Camp Merritt and make the dedication speech.

RUMANIANS ANGLING FOR ALIEN KING

(Copyright, 1930, by Chicago Tribune.)

BRUSSELS, May 29. (Exclusive) Although Balkan crowns topple off easily, Prince Charles of Belgium, the second son of King Albert, will be offered one if reports from Bucharest reaching Brussels are correct. Vintila Bratiano, former dictator of Rumania and chief of the powerful Liberal opposition party, wants a foreign king to replace the boy ruler Michael, and will sponsor Charles of Belgium for the Rumanian throne is the story revealed by the Brussels conservative daily La Libre Belgique, this morning. Bratiano hopes that way will exclude Prince Carol from Rumania forever.

"The boy king Michael is too small to inspire anyone to confidence," is the contention of numerous members of the Rumanian Liberal party, says the Belgian daily. "If Rumania wants to get loans abroad, which she so bitterly needs, she will have to pick a virile, energetic sovereign." According to a large number of the Liberals, Prince Charles is the right man.

If the Liberal party succeeds in ousting the weakening Julius Maniu government, Prince Charles has a 99 per cent chance to rule over Rumania, instead of the triumvirate regency. Prime Minister Maniu's popularity is on the wane and the failure to get further needed loans abroad will probably be a serious blow to the Cabinet.

First Chinese Air Fight Lost by Rebel Plane

SHANGHAI, May 29. (AP)—The first aerial battle in Chinese warfare occurred today west of Kweiteh in Honan Province, said a dispatch from Nationalist military headquarters in Nanking. Two Nationalist airplanes equipped with machine guns engaged a northern rebel airplane similarly equipped. The rebel flyer was pursued and shot down near the Yellow River.

Developments of the struggle of the opposing forces of the Nationalists and northerners in Northern Honan are obscured by lack of details and by contradictory claims of the combatants.

PENSION-VETO VOTE DATE SET

Senate Will Reconsider Bill Monday

House Action Delayed to Await Result

Redraft of Measure to Suit Hoover Started

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—An agreement was reached in the Senate to vote Monday on the first proposal made in that body to pass a bill over President Hoover's veto.

The vote will be on a motion by Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas, to override the Chief Executive's disapproval of the bill to liberalize the pensions for Spanish War veterans.

President Hoover vetoed the measure yesterday and Connally, himself a Spanish War veteran, immediately presented his motion. He demanded action on it today, but agreed to postponement upon a request by Senator McNary of Oregon, the assistant Republican leader.

Connally said he thinks his motion, which requires a two-thirds vote of both houses, will pass.

NEW BILL PROPOSED

Meanwhile, a movement was started to recast the measure to meet the objections of the President. Representative Knutson, Republican, Minnesota, chairman of the House Pensions Committee, planned to present a new bill in the House Monday after the Memorial Day recess.

Chairman Robinson of the Senate Pensions Committee, conferred with his committee today but no agreement was reached. He said the group will wait for the Senate action Monday before deciding what procedure to follow.

SECOND VETO

Before agreeing to postponement today Consally said in the Senate that "certain influences are interested in delaying action to the last possible moment for the purpose of killing the bill."

McNary asked for delay on the ground that a number of Senators were absent and it would be unfair to vote without giving them notice. He added he did not believe a single vote would be changed as the result of the delay.

This is the second bill vetoed by President Hoover. The first was a measure to authorize issuance of Gadsen Purchase memorial coins. An unsuccessful attempt was made in the House to override the veto but no action was taken by the Senate.

WINDY CITY POLITICIANS IN TAX NET

Public Officials Also Among Ten or More Who May be Indicted

CHICAGO, May 29. (Exclusive)—Ten or more leading Chicago politicians and public officials will be indicted for income-tax frauds if they do not settle claims of the government within a few days, according to reports at the Federal Building. The amounts involved are said to range from $100,000 to more than $1,200,000.

Some of the politicians involved have made a number of trips to Washington and have brought to bear all pressure possible to stop prosecution. This pressure is credited with having delayed grand jury action for some weeks, but indictments may be expected soon, according to reports from Washington today.

Among the men whose financial dealings are under investigation are Timothy J. Crowe, former president of the Sanitary District, and Christ Paschen, city building commissioner. Crowe, according to reports, has been asked to account for $1,200,000 and Paschen for $500,000.

Others being investigated include officials of taxing bodies, their cases being closely akin to that of Gene Oliver, tax assessor, who is charged by the government with having a $200,000 a year income which he failed to report for three years. Oliver, indicted some time ago, goes to trial June 18 as first of the cases being pressed against politicians.

Gov. Green Will Not Contest for Couzen's Toga

DETROIT, May 29. (AP)—One possible source of opposition to Senator Cousens, Republican, senior United States Senator from Michigan, in the September primaries was removed today with announcement by Gov. Green at Lansing that he will not be a candidate for Senator and thta he does not expect to take part in the campaign.

The announcement was regarded in political circles as especially significant because Senator Cousens's political foes have looked upon Gov. Green as a prospective candidate, who probably would show the greatest strength in a race against Cousens. The Governor also announced that he will not seek re-election to the office he has held for two two-year terms.

Senator Couzens is the only avowed candidate so far in either party.

Fund for Byrd Medals Asked

KIDNAPING INSURANCE AVAILABLE

Kansas City Men Seeking Protection as Result of Recent Crime Wave

KANSAS CITY, May 29. (AP)—Recent kidnapings and extortions here have resulted in the sale of insurance policies to a number of Kansas City men protecting them against victimization.

The insurance against kidnaping is believed the first sold in the United States. It is offered by a London company through Cliff Jones, a Kansas City agent. A premium of 1 per cent is charged for a maximum policy of $50,000.

Mr. Jones said he has obtained the insurance at considerable cost to satisfy an expressed demand. The names of purchasers of the insurance were not announced. A clause of the policy requires the insured person to maintain complete secrecy of his ownership. Each purchaser also must sign a statement saying he has no reason to believe he will be kidnaped.

In the best known of recent Kansas City kidnapings, Michael Katz, millionaire druggist, paid $100,000 ransom to a band of extortionists who held him captive for more than twenty-four hours. Two arrests were made in the case, but the prisoners were released later without prosecution.

French Leader Says Mussolini Full of Bluster

TOULON (France) May 29. (AP)—Questioned by partisans at a political meeting last night concerning recent speeches of Premier Mussolini of Italy, Pierre Renaudel, one of the Socialist leaders of the Chamber, answered that: "Echoes of these bellicose addresses have troubled our people."

"Appenhensions should be appeased," he said. "French public opinion should not be alarmed. There is a good deal of bluster in Signor Mussolini's words. One has only to see how the world press has received his boastings to understand that the Italian dictator does not dare to push things further because of the complete isolation in which he would find himself."

Thomas Boyd, Lucich's attorney, indicated he would not object to a continuance should Mrs. Arnold Berri, wounded when Sturtevant was killed, not be far enough recovered to permit her removal from a San Francisco hospital to testify at the hearing.

WAYWARD SON FOUND GUILTY

Angeleno's Ward Convicted of Mail Fraud

Ernest L. Tufts Faces Ten Years' Sentence

Foster-Father Denies Any Responsibility

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—Ernest L. Tufts, 26-year-old adopted son of Gorman Tufts, Jr., Los Angeles resident, was found guilty of mail fraud today by a jury in Federal court.

The jury stayed out only ten minutes to find Tufts guilty on two counts in connection with $40,000 sales of stock in the Atlantic Utilities Corporation. Sentence will be pronounced Monday. The maximum is five years on each count.

Tufts was indicted with Don Huston, who was too ill to be placed on trial with him. Huston is asserted to have posed as "A. M. Marshall" in calling on prospective investors and offering high prices for Atlantic Utilities stock. Tufts, it was charged, then called on the same people selling the stock.

On the witness stand Tufts charged his foster-father with responsibility for his acts, but the elder Tufts denied responsibility. He said also that Mimi Jiminez, his son's motion-picture actress wife, has disavowed statements attributed to her by the younger Tufts in his defense.

The prisoner admitted having served eight years in the Massachusetts reformatory, a year in California for fraud, and a year in an Illinois prison for participation in the hold-up of Charles Fuller, former president of the Chicago Stock Exchange.

Tufts lived recently in Washington, D. C., and Stamford, Ct.

NEW YORK CITY PACE RETARDED

Smallest Gain in Many Decades Reported

Population Total Estimated to be 6,150,000

Queen's Borough Leads in Growth Percentage

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) The 1930 population of New York City is approximately 6,150,000, according to the official census returns from thirty Assembly districts, approximations of expected returns from fourteen Assembly districts and estimates for the other eighteen.

The figure indicates a growth of about 530,000, or 9.5 per cent since 1920, when the city's population was 5,620,048.

The increase is the smallest in percentage recorded by the city in any decade since the first United States census in 1790, and the smallest numerically of any decade since 1870-1880, when an increase of 333,-506 was made.

COMPARATIVE FIGURES

The indicated populations of the five boroughs, with census figures of 1920 and the change during the decade follow:

Borough—	1930	1920	Per cent Change
Manhattan	1,600,000	2,284,103	— 30.1
Bronx	1,000,000	732,016	+ 36.7
Brooklyn	2,587,000	2,018,356	+ 28.2
Queens	1,250,000	469,042	+ 166.5
Richmond	154,785	116,531	+ 32.9
Total	6,145,785	5,620,048	+ 9.5

The figures show that the decade in addition to producing the smallest increase for the city as a whole brought a slowing down in the growth of all boroughs except Queens. While Manhattan decreased at a pace even faster than that of the decade starting in 1910—when the island population reached the 2,340,534 peak and started downward, Brooklyn, the Bronx and Staten Island have established new records for slowness in growth.

Queens stands alone with a favorable record, its indicated increase of more than 530,000 being the greatest record both numerically and in percentage in any of the fifteen censuses of that borough, and one of the greatest in percentage ever made by any borough in the city.

The Manhattan loss of approximately 625,000 exceeded that of the 1910-20 period by more than 575,-000. The percentage loss in Manhattan was only .02 per cent in 1910-1920, compared with 27.37 per cent during the last decade. From 1900 to 1910 Manhattan increased 481,-449, or 26 per cent.

BROOKLYN SLOWS UP

Brooklyn's increase of 267,000, or 12.3 per cent, is the smallest in percentage in the history of the borough and the smallest numerically since the decade of 1880-1890, when 231,082 were added to its population. The increases in Brooklyn for the next three decades in order were 328,035, 467,769 and 384,005.

The 365,000 increase in the Bronx, 36.7 per cent, is the smallest recorded in percentage since that borough was a village of 3023 persons exactly a century ago. In the decade preceding 1830 the Bronx increased by only 641, or 23 per cent. Since then each decade brought a percentage growth in excess of the 26.7 mark.

The situation in Staten Island is similar. Not since the decade of 1870-1880, when there were 33,029 persons in Richmond, has the borough had a growth so slow as that of the last ten years, 38,254, or 32.9 per cent.

NEWHALL AND SAUGUS POPULATIONS ANNOUNCED

Soledad township, in which are Newhall and Saugus, has a 1930 census population of 3028, an increase of 837, or 38.2 per cent, over its 1920 census of 2191, United States Census Supervisor Chenoweth of Glendale announced yesterday. Newhall's population was given as 1104, Saugus, 151. No 1920 comparable figures are available, he said. The township has no incorporated towns.

Supervisor Munson said last evening that it now appears virtually certain that the Los Angeles city population will not be compiled before June 10, next.

Evidence Heard in Jewels Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (AP)—Further testimony bearing upon the asserted handling of Mrs. Lloyd Dinkelspiel's $20,000 jewels was introduced today in the trial here of four Bakersfield men, Wylie C. Dorris, L. L. Bateman, Raymond Bateman, his son, and James Arp, on charges of receiving stolen property.

Mrs. J. B. Caldwell, former employee of the younger Bateman, testified that Ray Bateman told her he had gone into a "big deal in San Francisco" which had left him short of cash so that he had had to mortgage his home. She said he told her later that he had used the money to purchase stolen jewelry and showed her bracelets and a ring set with twenty-six diamonds.

ADVENTISTS ANNOUNCE HEAVY GAIN

Reports of Membership Strides Mark Conclave at San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (AP)—Seventh Day Adventists of the World, in San Francisco for their quadrennial general conference, settled down today to an orderly stride of business and devotions as the first full day of the conference was passed. About 2000 delegates are registered.

An increase of 48,567 in the church's membership during the last four years was reported by Rev. C. K. Meyers of Washington, conference secretary, bringing the total to 299,555, more than double that of 1913. Rev. J. L. Shaw, general conference treasurer, reported an increase of $9,446,668 in tithe and mission offerings during the four years for a total of $48,421,221. The combined conference and institutional income of the movement, he said, amounted to $164,818,271, an increase of $46,180,831.

Rev. N. Z. Town, secretary of the publishing department, reported $19,102,761 worth of biblical literature has been placed in homes throughout the world in four years.

The proposed thirteen months "reform" calendar was attacked by Prof. C. S. Longacre and by Prof. W. W. Prescott, both of Washington, at a session of the religious liberty department. The shifting of the Adventists' Sabbath Day under the proposed calendar "would mean we would give up our very reasons for being Seventh Day Adventists," Prof. Longacre said.

Glendale Widow Weds New York Negro Gardener

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) Mrs. Emily Scherzel, white, an artist of Glendale, Cal., and John T. Veasy, a Negro, gardener of this city, were married this afternoon in the chapel of the Brooklyn municipal building.

Mrs. Scherzel, a widow, gave her age as 44 years, and said she was born at Mexico, Mo., the daughter of Benjamin and Martha Webster. Veasy gave his age as 42 years.

Inquiry tonight failed to reveal any additional information about Mrs. Scherzel or Veasy. She is not listed in any of the art directories and at Veasy's home address a reporter was refused admittance. The house is in the center of the city's Negro section.

Battle Opens for Rich Estate

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (AP) Legal warfare for possession of a $1,500,000 estate, involving claims of two self-styled widows, a son, and daughter, loomed today with filing of a petition for letters of administration in the estate of Juan O. Simmons.

Mrs. Amy Oppenheimer of San Francisco and Mrs. Catalina De Witt Simmons of Morelia, Tex., both claim the estate of the Mexican government millionaire concession operator who, although he died July 18, 1926, under the name of Simmons, was known during the early days of his life as Oppenheimer, the petition stated.

Garbutt Gets Prison Term

OAKLAND, May 29. (AP)—John C. Garbutt, former patent-paving promoter, convicted several days ago with former City Commissioner Parker on a count charging conspiracy to bribe contained in a grand-jury indictment, was sentenced today to one to fourteen years in San Quentin prison. Probation was denied. Parker already is serving a similar sentence.

The two were asserted to have conspired to bribe city officials so that a particular type of paving would be laid.

Nine Coast Guardsmen fired a dozen shots at the rum runner as she cut lose from the pier, some of which were believed to have taken effect.

KERR WILL HEAD PRESBYTERIANS

Pittsburgh Man Wins Seat as Moderator

Defeats Philadelphian by Vote of 2 to 1

Fundamentalist Candidate Drops from Race

CINCINNATI, May 29. (AP)—Rev. Hugh Thompson Kerr of Pittsburgh, an eminent sponsor of mission work in the Presbyterian Church, today defeated Dr. Henry B. Master of Philadelphia, author of that denomination's minister pension plan, for the right to lead the general assembly as moderator of the Presbyterian church in the U.S.A. during the coming year.

Marked by a preconvention campaign, which at the last minute witnessed the withdrawal of the only fundamentalist candidate, the balloting of the voting commissioners at the first business session of the 142nd assembly gave Dr. Kerr a 2-to-1 majority over his only rival. The vote was: Dr. Kerr, 605; Dr. Master, 303.

The fundamentalist candidate was Dr. Samuel G. Craig of Princeton, N. J. During the day the field had been narrowed down to these three men, and when nominating speeches were called for late in the afternoon, Dr. Craig's sponsors did not respond.

KERR TAKES SEAT

It was the first time in nearly a decade that the fundamentalists, as distinguished from the modernist and liberal groups of the northern assembly, were not represented by an avowed candidate in the balloting.

Dr. Kerr immediately was inducted into office to succeed Rev. Cleland B. McAfee of Chicago, the retiring moderator. He was given a rousing ovation as he stepped to the stage of Taft Auditorium.

Dr. Kerr will preside over the remaining sessions of the assembly which will extend through June 5.

The new moderator was born in Elora, Ont., in 1872. He received his education in Canadian universities and has held pastorates in Hutchinson, Kan., Chicago and Pittsburgh. He has been pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh since 1913 and has gained considerable fame as a radio lecturer and author of books.

The moderator-elect told the commissioner he believes this will be a pentecostal assembly in which "we may renew in ourselves power of the early church."

DRY QUESTION

Evangelism, he said, represents a crying need of the church which should be met during the coming year. Before he had finished his inaugural address he touched upon the prohibition question.

The report of the special commission on marriage, divorce and remarriage looms as one of the most discussed documents ever prepared for the general assembly.

This report, drawn by a committee of which Rev. Ralph Marshall Davis of Erie, Pa., is chairman, already has drawn a protest from the Philadelphia Presbytery because of the freedom with which it has discussed modern matrimonial problems and attendant sex questions.

Aside from one proposal suggesting the elimination of one sentence from the constitution of the Presbyterian Church which denounces marriage with infidels and idolators and persons "such as are notoriously wicked in their life," the commission's report makes few recommendations.

That one proposal, however, drew the fire of the Philadelphia Presbytery. But the chief opposition to the report, Dr. James Clement Reid, clerk of the California synod, said, is the "frank and familiar" phrasing that appears in it.

The document will come before the assembly at Monday morning's session.

S.P.C.A. PICKA PICADOR FIGHT

French Corrida Ends Up in Pitched Battlador

Seventeen Women Arrested; Bull Breaks Horn

Part of Stadium Burned and Gendarmes Bruised

[Copyright, 1930, by Chicago Tribune]

PARIS, May 29. (Exclusive)—Under the puzzled eyes of a half-dozen playful but misunderstood bulls some 2000 French aficionados engaged in a pitched battle this afternoon with 600 militant members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, who had made the thirty-mile trek to Melun to see that the beasts did not have their feelings hurt during the much-advertised corrida, which had been organized for the benefit of the Melun schools.

While the matadors, picadors and banderilleros retreated rapidly in all directions from the bulls, who were merely trying to be friendly, the fanatical S.P.C.A. cohorts set fire to the stands and dropped smoke bombs in the arena. The net result of the day's action is seventeen ladies of the S.P.C.A. reposing in jail, a dozen or so gendarmes nursing sore shins and scratched faces, part of the stadium burned down and one of the bulls has a broken horn which he suffered when he missed a toreador who was trying to leap the fence.

Bullfighting is strictly forbidden in France, and the Parisian press has been raising a howl for weeks about the bloody corrida. The S.P.C.A. swore solemnly to stop the fight at all costs, and declared that it would even bomb the arena from airplanes if that would be necessary.

RIOT ENSUES

The first fight broke out just before the bull entered the ring, when a crowd of men and women broke through the fence of the arena, gesticulating and blowing whistles. The bullfight fans replied, hurling missiles and descending to the arena, and a general riot ensued. A squadron of mounted Republican Guards charged the mob to reduce this disorder to quiet and peace.

When order had been restored a timid-looking bull with padded horns was ushered into the arena. He first disregarded the picadors who poked him in the ribs with blunt spears, but he finally lost patience and started charging the horses. At this point a smoke bomb was exploded at the edge of the arena, and the bull retired to a neutral corner, while a new free-for-all broke out in the stands.

Once again the police calmed the mob, and a new bull, this time with bared horns, entered the ring. He seemed more pugnacious, and keenly resented the efforts of the banderilleros to paste dummy paper darts on his back. When he was sufficiently irritated the matador entered the arena armed with wooden canes with iron tips. Before the fatal thrust could be delivered the fence about the ring was set on fire and wild confusion broke out. The local firemen were summoned and with the aid of buckets they finally put out the blaze.

THROWN FOR LOSS

Then Emilio Saler Caralo, the high-powered Spanish matador, got down to business and prepared to jab the bull for the finish. This was difficult, because he seemed unwilling to be approached nearer than ten feet by the irritated animal. He finally tried a timid poke and missed, being thrown for a loss of several yards. He got up uninjured and desperately thwacked the bill's flanks with the edge of his sword, and the official corrida came to an end.

The real fun came when spectators were allowed to descend to the arena to attack the bull with canes and umbrellas, waving their top coats and capes. Several had narrow escapes.

The sensation of the day was furnished by a dusky toreador from Senegal, fighting under the name of Sambo Pasquale, who tiptoed around the arena with a worried expression when he stalked the bulls. In response to checrs and cat calls he made one pass at a beast and then broke into a run. That ended the fight.

163 Pianos Loaned FREE

One hundred and sixty-three pianos (Grands, Players and Uprights, both new and used upright) will be placed in homes of Los Angeles and vicinity and they may be used until we need them—which will be an indefinite time. We are vacating the major portion of our storage warehouses, and the excess stock will crowd our store beyond its capacity. We must dispose of this excess. Our entire stock has been priced at greatly reduced figures and anyone contemplating the purchase of a piano in the next few months cannot afford to miss the opportunity. All pianos not sold outright will be placed in the homes of families who are interested in owning a piano in the immediate future, and for the valuable advertising we will receive by having good families use them. We reserve the right to select the homes in which these pianos are to be placed.

POSITIVELY NO CHARGE FOR ANYTHING

NAVY'S TREATY FOES PRAISED

Senator Johnson Rallies to Defense of Admirals

Censure for Their "Daring to Tell Truth" Scored

Japanese Cabinet Center of Storm Over Pact

WASHINGTON, May 29. (AP)—The navy admiralty which testified against provisions of the London naval treaty before Senate committees was defended from asserted attacks in the press today by Senator Johnson, Republican, California.

In a prepared statement Senator Johnson took the responsibility for calling the navy leaders and asserted "they have been true to the highest traditions of the American Navy and deserve from all Americans only commendation and praise." He said they "dared to tell the truth about a political treaty behind which is such tremendous political power."

Senator Johnson's declaration came after the conclusion of the committee hearings. With the pact laid over for a special session, leaders indicated no effort will be made to get it before the Senate for a week or ten days.

Rear-Admiral S. S. Robison, superintendent of the Annapolis Academy, was the last witness before the naval committee today with a reiteration of the assault on the treaty he made yesterday before the Foreign Relations Committee in its closing hearing.

ODDIE ANNOUNCEMENT

Senator Oddie, Republican, Nevada, one of the naval committee, announced at the conclusion he was ready to propose some reservations to the pact but he did not disclose their nature.

Senator Johnson said:

"Some newspapers have brutally assaulted officers of the United States Navy because their testimony before the Foreign Relations Committee has militated against the London treaty. These assaults are unjustified and outrageous. The Foreign Relations Committee itself called the General Board of the Navy before it and asked for the views of these officers. The others who have testified came because I summoned them and all have testified just as witnesses testify in court, not as volunteers, but as witnesses duly called. The responsibility for calling most of those who have appeared rests entirely with me and the witnesses thus called had no option in the matter.

STAND APPLAUDED

"The Secretary of State, in his testimony before the Foreign Relations Committee, said he took off his hat to the Japanese for their attitude. I take off my hat to the admirals and other officers of the United States Navy who have dared to tell the truth about a political treaty behind which is such tremendous political power when the possible consequences of telling the truth can be readily understood.

"The sum of their offending is stating, as required by Senators interrogating them, the essentials of our national defense and the needs of our Navy. If they had stated the facts otherwise than as they and nearly all others familiar with the subject believe, they would have had the commendation and enthusiastic applause of the very people and press who now abuse them. They have been true to the highest traditions of the American Navy and deserve from all Americans only commendation and praise."

QUESTION OF PRECEDENT STIRS TOKIO OFFICIALDOM

TOKIO, May 29. (AP)—The bitter opposition of Japan's naval chiefs to the London naval treaty has developed the question of the right of the Cabinet to make decisions such as its acceptance despite the Navy General Staff's disapproval. General opinion is that the controversy concerns solely the constitutional issue of whether a precedent shall be set curtailing the powers of the army and navy general staffs.

At a prolonged meeting today of naval members of the Supreme War Council, several of them supported the contention of Admiral Kanji Kato, chief of the Navy General Staff, that the government has erred seriously in accepting the London compromise agreement on naval tonnage despite the objection of the Navy General Staff. Those attending the meeting were Admiral Prince Fushimi and Admirals Kato, Okada and Togo. The last named, Japan's hero of heroes, was especially emphatic in his support of Admiral Kato's position.

Such criticisms by the naval chiefs of a decade ago would have overthrown a government, but it is believed that the Cabinet headed by Premier Hamaguchi and Foreign Minister Shidehara will survive the storm of naval disapproval.

Acceptance of the naval treaty is believed to be only a minor point in the attitude of the naval chiefs. They are believed to be opposed to the establishment of a precedent which would curtail their former right of direct access and appeal to the throne, a position which frequently places them above the ministry.

COUNCILMAN IN MILITANT MOOD

Irregularities Charged in City Water Department

Redlands Board Member Points to Illegalities

Declares Opposition to Old Advisory Committee

REDLANDS, May 29.—Charging irregularities and illegal proceedings in the water department of the city, Theodore Krumm, militant City Councilman, served notice at the Council meeting today that he intends to have an accounting of everything. He also declared his opposition to the reappointment of the old advisory committee, I. Ford, George Humphrey and J. J. Prendergast.

"I am opposed to the appointment of this commission. The city has lost money on a number of water deals approved by the commission and I propose to show this. If we appoint a commission I want men who are not tied up in ownership with this water company and that one, men who will protect the interests of the city and not that of some water company," he asserted.

Councilman W. L. Fowler, water commissioner, took up the argument at once and said: "I do not know of three men better qualified to advise us regarding water affairs. But there is no use in our going all over this with Krumm again. We have been over and over it. These three men are qualified to act. I do not believe the citizens of Redlands have a question as to their purposes. But I do not care who is appointed; I do feel it would be wise to have an advisory commission, and do not see how you could have one worth anything unless men who know water conditions are on it."

CONVINCED OF ILLEGALITY

Krumm continued: "I am sorry City Engineer Hinckley is going away just now, for I want some information on our water deals. I have been looking into them and am convinced the city has acted illegally and that we have lost the people's money on several of these deals. And I want the figures from Hinckley."

He then read of purchases of rights in the East Lugonia Water Company and of stock also over a period of years, and said: "The city, by law, cannot buy stock. It has been paying assessments and this is in direct violation of the law."

City Attorney Hartzell replied: "That is right. The law is plain. The Trustees knew it at the time, but if Krumm cares to know I will say that every municipality in the State, almost, has been doing the same thing, and even the State of California. The State owns stock in the North Fork Water Company to supply the hospital at Patton. It is all in violation of the law and yet it isn't, in a way. These assessments made by the water companies are not strictly assessments, they are purchases of water available, gained through owning the water right."

KRUMM "CAN'T SEE WHY"

Krumm insisted, however, that he is convinced that there have been irregularities in the conduct of the affairs of the water department, and said: "I think the taxpayers have been badly treated. They are paying a high rate for water so that the city can furnish it to irrigators at a low rate. Hinckley knows he cannot produce water for irrigation at 20 cents an inch." Hinckley said that it could be done and profit made, provided it included production only and not a distributing system.

"I can't see why the little man should not get the benefit," continued Krumm. "I am going to suggest that we reduce the water rate to $1.50 per month and give for that 1500 inches, instead of making the people pay $1.80 for 2000 inches. Also I want to see the irrigation rate boosted to 50 cents an inch."

Hinckley said such a move would result in a loss of $12,000 a month revenue, which would have to be met in some way. I want a complete set-up of our water department. I want to know what we own and what we paid for it. I think we have more than $70,000 invested in the Lugonia Mutual, and I think we paid too much."

R.O.T.C. AT VAN NUYS STAGE SHAM BATTLE

VAN NUYS, May 29.—The Van Nuys R.O.T.C. today held its annual Field Day on the Van Nuys High School campus, with Col. T. C. Clarke head of the R.O.T.C. for the Los Angeles school system, as inspecting officer. A fancy drill was one of the features of the exhibition, under the direction of Student Captain George Provencher. This was followed by a sham battle in which the several units of the school corps took part. The local corps is under the direction and training of Sergt. William A. Smith, U.S.A., who has been stationed at Van Nuys High School for the last six years.

ISLANDERS PLAN GATHERING

Filipino Federation of America to Hold Intenational Convention at Santa Maria in July

SANTA MARIA, May 29.—Several thousand members of the Filipino Federation of America are expected to gather here for the annual international convention to be held here July 3 to 9. The local organizations, assisted by the State section, will spend some $10,000 in developing and carrying out the week's program, according to Leon G. Vaquios, president of the local branch.

Vaquois recently returned from Hawaii where he addressed a number of public gatherings and extended invitations to his fellow-men to attend the convention. Several large delegations from Hawaii and at least one party of delegates from the Philippine Islands, are expected for the meetings.

Dr. M. C. Moncado, national president, will direct the six-day session, presiding over all of the important conferences and assemblages. In addition to the business and discussion sessions, there will be sports events, parades, banquets and all kinds of special entertainment.

In a statement issued with the announcement of the convention, Vaquios said the meetings would be to discuss with delegates the problems of labor and ways and means of maintaining peace and order. "We are working on principles laid down in the Constitution of the United States, and rather than foment trouble, we are exceedingly anxious to maintain friendly relations between Americans and Filipinos," he declared. "We realize that if we are going to get our independence, it will be through co-operation and education, and not by revolution and rioting."

BRIDEGROOM GONE, CASH GOES TOO

Story of Lost Love and Finances Told to San Diego Police

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—Disappearance in Los Angeles of the man to whom she was to have been married was reported to police today by Miss Lillian Sorum, 1280 Twelfth street.

According to her story to police, the woman, in company with Harry Rosenthal, the prospective bridegroom, was in Los Angeles Monday and en route to the marriage license bureau, she stopped in a beauty shop for a time, she said, leaving Rosenthal in a waiting room. When she came out, the man had disappeared and search was of no avail, she stated.

Miss Sorum also told police that the man had checked out of his room in a hotel and that $1000 which she had intrusted to him also had vanished. Police here are looking for Rosenthal.

Woman Tries to End Life; Jumps Off of Wharf

SANTA BARBARA, May 29.—Discouraged with life and continual struggle against illness, Mrs. E. Whitney, 55 years of age, a gray-haired woman who has been here for a few months recuperating from a nervous breakdown, attempted suicide today by jumping off Stearn's Wharf.

She took a taxi to the wharf. Apparently she had the plan firmly in mind as she walked about 100 feet from where she left the taxi and leaped into the Pacific Ocean without hesitation.

The taxi driver was unloading her suit cases and grips when she jumped. He thought she had come to the wharf to take a steamer which was docked here at the time.

Hearing a shout that someone was overboard, Charles Olsen, wharfinger, leaped into the water after her. He held her above water until a shore boat came to his assistance.

Police found that she had been in the St. Francis Hospital for several weeks recuperating from a nervous breakdown. Previous to that she had lived in Egderly Court here.

San Fernando Council Ends Civic Shake-up

SAN FERNANDO, May 29.—The resignation of E. B. Curry, who has been city engineer here for the last five years, was accepted today by the new City Council, and Harry E. Waite, who recently was appointed city water superintendent, was ordered to take over the office in connection with other duties.

Curry was asked to resign when the new City Council took hold about a month ago. F. A. Pomeroy and Homer L. Killen, members of the old Council, and now in the minority, voted for Curry to keep his job.

Charles Maclay, F. R. Roberts and F. E. Strader are the three majority members who since taking their seats "have fired everybody in sight," on the plea they were elected on an economic program, "and are doing their best to make good." They have made an exception in the case of F. N. Hubbard, street superintendent, who will be retained at a salary of $175 a month.

PILOT FALLS IN PLANE BUT NOT INJURED

Student Flyer Hits Air Pocket and Drops 500 Feet Near Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA, May 29. (Exclusive)—After falling 500 feet in an airplane today, M. Dulamy, 22 years of age, a student pilot is alive, unhurt, while the plane was smashed to debris. He is a student of the Hancock Foundation Aeronautical College at Santa Maria, and this afternoon he flew one of the school's biplanes to Santa Barbara, and then started back.

While flying in a heavy wind at 500 feet altitude, the plane struck an air pocket, sideslipped and plunged to earth on the Hickey Brothers' ranch in the Hope district east of this city. The biplane struck on one wing, throwing Dulamy clear of the wreck and landing him without a scratch. The plane was completely wrecked. Undersheriff Ross drove out and brought in the pilot, who was found to be uninjured, although unable to explain his accident or escape.

Hearing Set for Suitor Accused of Gun Play

COVINA, May 29.—Preliminary hearing of John Barkley, 50-year-old rejected suitor of Mrs. Leona Yost, both of this city, who was arrested Tuesday night on charges of assault and battery and possession of a deadly weapon, has been set for next Monday before Judge Thomas B. Reed, in local Justice Court.

Chief of Police J. J. Saunders, with Officers J. M. Pearson and M. E. Mathews, was called to the Yost home by Harry Henley of 531 Howard street, who was a visitor at the Yost home, 332 Front street, Tuesday evening, when Barkley "came a-wooing" with his revolver. Henley played the part of the hero in the escapade.

Barkley made his entrance to the home brandishing a revolver, which frightened Mrs. Yost to the extent that she called upon Henley for assistance in quieting her former sweetheart, according to the reports of police. After getting Barkley under control, Henley called police to the scene to settle the matter and they immediately arrested Barkley and escorted him to the County Jail to await his preliminary hearing next Monday. Bail was set at $1000. Barkley has a son and lives at the Covina Hotel.

SHOW MAY BE LAST IN ANAHEIM

Next Valencia Exhibit to be Held in Los Angeles, if Offer Accepted

ANAHEIM, May 29.—When the curtain falls upon the tenth annual California Valencia Orange Show here next Sunday night, Anaheim will have held its last carnival of the Valencia, if plans now before the show's board of directors materialize.

A group of Los Angeles business men, whose names were not revealed today, have made an offer to move the attraction to their metropolis and members of the show's board of directors today admitted that the offer may be accepted.

This situation has resulted from consideration of a group of factors influencing the present show, Manager George W. Reid, said. Chief of these is the fact that more than 90 per cent of the attendance this year comes from Los Angeles county, show officials said.

"The show has outgrown its community, and certain factors might make it advisable to move the show to a location where it can have a better chance," Dr. H. A. Johnston, chairman of the finance committee, said.

Reid pointed out that more than $300,000 is invested in the exhibit now open to the public in what he believes is the best orange show ever presented here. He believes further that the show this year is more artistic and alluring than any of the group he has planned and yet he admits that the attendance has not come up to expectations.

In Los Angeles, show officials pointed out, the event would be at the center of a large population and in addition would be convenient to the eastern tourists who visit Southern California each spring.

The annual championship orange packing contest closed tonight and the champion is to be announced Friday evening.

Tomorrow will be observed at the show as Memorial and American Legion Day. The Anaheim post of the Legion has arranged a short program to be given morning and evening from the show platform.

Ontario Plans Tree Planting

ONTARIO, May 29.—Engineers in the city service departments, together with members of the city planning commission are completing plans for launching in the near future a three-year tree-planting program.

Cost of this program is estimated at $30,000, and calls for the planting of several thousand trees in all sections of the city.

The tree-planting survey is now under way, and upon its completion, report will be made to the City Planning Commission and City Council. The final report to be made to City Council will show the location of every plot of ground included in the program and the assessment against it. A public hearing is proposed for those who wish to protest the program.

San Diego Plans Move to Defend Local Merchant

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—Local merchants lose the sale of merchandise running into thousands of dollars weekly through peddlers of Los Angeles-made goods, the City Council was told today during discussion of a new license ordinance. Steps to put a stop to this class of competition were taken when the Council adopted a license fee of $10 per day for deliveries of all outside food products and $50 per day for the sale of all outside merchandise, not enumerated as food, by means of peddling or vending. In addition to paying $10 per day, drivers or deliverymen of Los Angeles food wagons will be required to take out a food-handling permit, and the additional fee for this will be so high that none would want to ply that trade here, Councilmen said.

It was stated that no less than $40,000 worth of cakes and pies alone, made in Los Angeles, are sold every week in this city. Councilman Dowell said if this trade was confined to San Diego-made cakes and pies, employment would be available to a great many more men and women. License Inspector E. F. Forbes told the Council that drivers of Los Angeles cake and pie wagons have been arrested here by the police, but always were able to secure an acquittal in court when their cases were called.

FERULLO TO AGAIN LEAD BEACH BAND

SANTA MONICA, May 28.—Francesco Ferullo has been appointed director of the Santa Monica Municipal Band by the City Commissioners, replacing Harold William Roberts, at a saving of $150 a month in salary. Ferullo is to receive $350 a month, and the commissioners also voted to employ twenty-two musicians at a salary of $145 a month each, together with an assistant director and librarian, who will receive 25 per cent more.

Ferullo, who lives at 2656 Fourth street, Ocean Park, was band director prior to the city's action in replacing him with Roberts a year ago. Of the three commissioners, only Mayor Michel voted in favor of retaining Roberts. Twelve applications from band directors were before the commissioners when the action was taken.

DESILTING DAM BIDS MADE

Tricounty Water Association Takes Five Lowest Under Consideration Until Meeting in June

RIVERSIDE, May 29.—Following the opening of bids for the construction of a huge desilting dam across the mouth of the Santa Ana Canyon, the Tricounty Water Conservation Association today postponed definite action until June 11, according to Francis Cuttle, chairman.

Consideration of the officials is to be limited to the five lowest bids. Fourteen contractors submitted estimates for the job which, in addition to the long dam, will include a diversion conduit to an extensive percolating bed. The estimates ranged from a low of $59,679 submitted by John Strona of Chino to a high of $89,656 asked by Charles H. Johnston of Los Angeles.

The five lowest bids on which the officials of the association will concentrate were these submitted by Stroma, $59,679; H. O. Nelson of Pasadena, $66,861; Bent Brothers of Los Angeles, $65,724; Carpenter Brothers of Beverly Hills, $66,450, and R. H. Travers of Los Angeles, $67,760.

The association is composed of Riverside, San Bernardino and Orange counties and the costs are to be divided between the three Orange Belt counties.

The dam will span the Santa Ana River for approximately 500 feet and is designed to check the storm waters as they flow from the higher elevations, providing facilities for settling of silt. The conduit pipeline will convey the water to the spreading grounds. It is to be capable of carrying 50,000 inches of flood water which, seeping through the gravel beds, will be stored in underground reservoirs for use when needed by the populous communities in the valley.

Rouse, postmaster at Thermal, first vice - president, Wallace Smith, a Mecca rancher, second vice-president, of the Coachella Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce at the annual meeting and banquet of the organization last night at the newly completed home of the Coachella Valley Woman's Club.

A feature of the musical program which followed the dinner was the signing by Mrs. Chester A. Sparry of two songs recently composed and published by President Rosenberger, accompanied by the Desert Trio, a local musical organization, which also played several instrumental numbers. Mrs. W. K. Hubbart, a local musical celebrity, also sang.

The principal speaker of the evening was A. E. Isham, secretary of the Redlands Chamber of Commerce, who talked on "Community Spirit as Opposed to Old-Time Local Jealousies."

Seventy members and their friends were served by members of the Woman's Club.

Lecturer Will Tell Discoveries in Gypsum Cave

PASADENA, May 29.—Additional revelations concerning recent discoveries at Gypsum Cave, located near Las Vegas, Nev., that indicate human beings have inhabited North America 20,000 years longer than previously supposed, will be presented tomorrow night when Prof. Chester Stock, nationally known paleontologist, will deliver the weekly public science lecture at the California Institute of Technology.

The lecture will be given from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Norman Bridge Laboratory of Physics and is open to the public without charge.

Prof. Stock recently visited Gypsum Cave, accompanied by Dr. James A. B. Scherer, director of the Southwest Museum, Los Angeles, which owns the rights to the cave.

Through a co-operative arrangement, the California Institute is co-operating with the Southwest Museum making excavations in the cave which already appear to have pushed back the history of man on this continent thousands of years.

PASADENA, May 29. — Fatally injured last night when he slipped and fell while repairing the roof of his garage, Leon S. Bleeding from a laceration of his head, Smith was rushed to the Altadena Hospital in the city ambulance. His skull was fractured and he is reported to have died without regaining consciousness.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Alice G. Smith, the victim leaves a son, Eugene Smith; his father, Eugene F. Smith, and a cousin, Rev. Roger Sherman, all of whom reside here. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced by the Reynolds & Eberle mortuary.

A small tax levy is assessed against Burbank residents yearly for the upkeep of the library.

NEW RADIO BEACON TO BE BUILT

Site Sought For Safety Factor at Lindbergh Field Near San Diego

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—A powerful radio beacon of the latest type will be constructed by the United States Department of Commerce at Lindbergh Field, it was learned today, when Port Director Joe Brennan announced receipt of applications for the lease of suitable space at the City Airport.

The beacon plant, to be erected at a cost of approximately $20,000, will consist mainly of four fifty-foot radio towers, set to form a 250-foot square. From this center radio beam signals will be radiated in twelve directions, with sufficient intensity to direct a plane 150 miles distant.

Airway engineers of the Department of Commerce have been in the city for some days, but their final selection of location was only made yesterday.

The Harbor Department is at work on plans for the location of the plant, a problem somewhat complicated by the fact that the towers must not be too near existing power lines, nor must they interfere with flying at the field.

It is expected that a suitable location will be arranged, a lease covering the property executed soon, and actual construction begun without delay.

Chamber Seeks To Rid Road of Narrow Portion

FULLERTON, May 29.—Seeking signatures of property owners on North Spadra Road on a petition to be presented to the City Council for the purpose of widening the "bottle neck" on the State highway running through the city, between Chapman avenue and the overhead crossing of the Pacific Electric, the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce was at work today following action of directors of the chamber at their regular weekly meeting.

Plans for the widening call for a fifty-six-foot pavement, as in the business district, and would remove the traffic menace now existing where the roadway narrows to thirty-six feet for a distance of approximately five blocks.

Under the plan as presented the county would pay one-fourth of the cost from the gas tax funds, an assessment district of the northern part of the city would pay half and the property owners the remaining quarter.

Property owners would be required to give three and one-half feet on each side and walks and curbs would be set back proportionately. The plans also call for the setting back of ornamental palms to preserve the present attractive appearance of the street.

Alondra Tract in Three Moves

HAWTHORNE, May 29.—A petition asking a permit to circulate annexation petitions in the Alondra Park district has been filed with City Clerk Fraser. The petition will take precedence, it is understood, over a similar petition filed forty-eight hours later with the city clerk of Redondo Beach as a part of proceedings to annex to that municipality.

Both papers are ineffective till an election set for June 3, in which a proposition to annex the McDonald tract, which is part of the Alondra Park district, to the city of Torrance, is held.

Proponents of the plan to incorporate the district, thereby forming a separate municipality, are prepared to oppose all of the annexation measures. A plan to improve the 320-acre park in the district as an industrial center is made a part of the incorporation platform.

Pleasure Boat Suffers Damage

VENTURA, May 29.—Striking in the engine room of the pleasure boat Ida, fifty-six-foot pleasure craft owned by Guy Davies and Sons, which takes charter parties to the Channel Islands, did damage of $300 to the craft at 12:30 this morning.

The blast started a fire, which "Blackie" Thompson, engineer, put out with the motor of the boat after it had worked loose from its moorings and drifted to the dock of the Ventura Oil and Warehouse Company.

According to Davies, if the boat had been further from the dock when the explosion occurred, it probably would have been destroyed. The boat was installed in the engine room, and the boat probably would be entirely consumed by the fire, he said, if the fire had reached the gasoline tanks in the engine room.

The Ida is the only boat of its kind on the Pacific coast which has received the United States Government regulations. The boat is more than a hundred feet in length and has a crew of nine.

CIVILIZATION GIVEN RAP

Krishnamurti in Ojai Camp Address Declares Helping Man; Individualism Stunts

OJAI, May 29.—"Civilization is not helping man," is the statement of J. Krishnamurti, speaking to an audience from all parts of the world for the Ojai Star Institute Camp on the western slopes of the Ojai Valley. "His efforts are crushed out—made mechanical," he explained. "Civilization is not giving him the right environment in which to grow—to be his own self.

"After all, civilization, like a tree, is not what others say it is. The tree grows through centuries and then withers. But while the old trees are decaying, withering, dying, there must be a few who plant new seeds. And the planting of new seeds depends upon the individual, not on institutions, societies, systems. It is a matter of stern reality, to break away from the rigidity of civilizations and to plant a new seed, to create a new world.

That is why I lay such emphasis on the individual, on the importance of his having the courage to break loose from the cage of civilization and bring forth a new joy, a new feeling, a new orientation of thought. Therefore, what you as an individual are, is what matters,

WOMAN PROVES FORGIVING

Mrs. Katherine Wilson Jailed on Contempt Charge for Refusing to Prosecute Spouse; He Pays Fine

PASADENA, May 29.—Because Mrs. Katherine Wilson forgave her husband and refused to prosecute him on her charge that he had threatened to kill her, she was lodged in the City Jail for contempt of court, it was learned today.

Last week, Mrs. Wilson brought a disturbing-the-peace charge against Grant Sherman Wilson, asserting that he had threatened to kill her and used abusive language. Yesterday in local police court, she announced she had changed her mind and asked dismissal of the charge.

Judge Leo Riccardi dismissed the charge against the husband, but sentenced the wife to pay a $20 fine for contempt of court or spend two days in the City Jail. Feeling that forgiveness was no sin, Mrs. Wilson chose the jail sentence.

Last night, the husband decided that forgiveness may be a virtue in a man as well as a woman and paid Mrs. Wilson's fine. Their differences patched up for the present, husband and wife left the jail arm in arm for their home at 2720 East Colorado street.

STATE GIVES TIT FOR TAT

Engineer Informs San Diego That Commission Will Not Accept Highway Through City

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—The State no longer will consider control of a State highway through this city by reason of recent litigation over Torrey Pines, it was indicated today when the City Council received a communication from C. H. Purcell, engineer for the State Highway Commission, in which he says it was decided to decline the city's invitation to take over the Rose Canyon highway as a part of the State system.

"This shows what one citizen taxpayer can do to give the city a setback," was the comment of Councilman L. C. Maire upon learning of the State Highway Commission's action. He said he referred to the litigation which prevented building the Torrey Pines highway, which the State had promised to finance.

Engineer Purcell's communication was in reply to a resolution of the Council asking that Rose Canyon Road and Torrey Pines be made a part of the State highway system.

It says in part: "Inasmuch as none of these roads are on the State highway system and are entirely within the city limits, the State Highway Commission does not care to enter this controversy and feels that the city of San Diego should settle the problem of location of this improvement. The commission cannot comply with the resolution asking the State to take over roads within the city and enter this controversy."

Pleasure Boat Suffers Damage

VENTURA, May 29.—Fire starting in the engine room of the Freda, fifty-six-foot pleasure launch owned by Guy Davies and Benny Mello, which takes charter parties to the Channel Islands, did considerable damage of $3000 to the craft at 12:30 this morning.

According to Davies, if it had not been for the metal lining [illegible] installed in the engine room of the boat probably would have been entirely consumed by the flames, as it was, the fire confined itself to the engine room.

INDIAN RIOTING FLARES ANEW

Fire Opened on Mob of 4000 Railroad Workers

Police Chief of Dacca Hurt During Disturbance

Fifty Thousand Join March in Bombay Procession

BOMBAY, May 29. (AP)—Communal rioting broke out again this morning at Dacca, 150 miles from Calcutta, and a large number of Hindus were arrested. The city superintendent of police, commanding Gurkha troops, was injured.

The situation in the city itself, violently torn for several days by conflicts between Moslems and Hindus, was reported improved today, but there is indication that trouble has spread to neighboring villages.

Today's rioting occurred in the Rair Bazaar, western suburb of the city. Full details are lacking.

At Lilooah, also in the Calcuta area, police opened fire on a mob of 4000 rioters, mostly railway workers of the East Indian workshops. Four were wounded.

The disturbance originated in the introduction of a new wage schedule for the East Indian Company's employees. Before the police arrived the company office was besieged by the mob, and several European officers were injured slightly.

Bombay saw one of the most remarkable of the many processions in support of the civil disobedience campaign that have passed through its streets during some weeks. About 50,000 persons, including 2000 women, took part in it.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYHOUSE OUT IN ROW

Chicago Theater Head Refuses to Sacrifice Art to Box Office Profits

CHICAGO, May 29. (AP)—Thomas Wood Stevens has resigned as director of the Goodman Memorial Theater, a position he has held since it was founded five years ago. "Hopeless disagreement" with the theater committee over the question of "art or profit" was given as the reason.

Twenty members of the Goodman company, including the two directors, Whitford Kane and D. Iden Payne, signed a statement indorsing Stevens's stand.

Stevens said the Goodman Theater should stand as a true art theater, devoting itself to important plays that otherwise would not be seen in Chicago. Members of the theater committee with whom Stevens disagreed were understood to favor production of plays with wide appeal and with increased box-office possibilities.

The theater, which was built by William O. Goodman in memory of his son, fronts on Lake Michigan and is allied with the art institute.

McNamara found words inadequate to describe the turns and twists of Boston's tortuous streets, so he set one of the bags down and was plying his index finger when one of the men picked up the bag and disappeared.

TARZAN AND THE JEWELS OF OPAR

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Seeing that the sentries stood without advancing, and realizing that, handicapped as he was by the weight of the "she," he could put up but a poor battle, Taglat elected to risk a sudden break for liberty. Lowering his head, the ape charged straight for the two blacks who blocked the doorway. The impact of his mighty shoulders bowled them over upon their backs, and before they could scramble to their feet, the ape was gone, darting through the shadows toward the palisade.

The speed and strength of her rescuer filled Jane Clayton with wonder. Could it be that Tarzan had survived the bullet of the Arab? Who else in all the jungle could bear the weight of a grown woman as lightly as he who held her? She spoke his name; but there was no response. Still she did not give up hope. At the palisade the beast did not even hesitate. A single mighty leap carried it to the top, where it poised an instant before dropping to the ground upon the opposite side.

Now the girl was almost positive she was safe in the arms of her husband, and when the ape took to the trees and bore her swiftly into the jungle, as Tarzan had done at other times in the past, belief became conviction. In a little moonlit glade, a mile or so from the camp of the raiders, her rescuer halted and dropped her to the ground. His roughness surprised her, but still she had no doubts. Again she called him by name —and received the greatest shock of her life.

At the instant she spoke, the ape, fretting under the restraint of the unaccustomed garments of the Tarmangani, tore the burnoose from him, revealing to the eyes of the horror-struck woman the hideous face and hairy form of a giant anthropoid. With a piteous wail of terror, Jane Clayton swooned, while, from the concealment of a near-by bush, Numa the lion eyed the pair hungrily and licked his chops. Slowly the king of beasts wormed his way closer to its intended prey.

Overcome by Sentiment

By Bill Conselman and Charlie

Really we have to give Ella credit for doing much work at little pay and taking care of a little baby for a friend. Especially when police are searching for the baby because of the big reward offered.
SHAME ON YOU, GIGGLES! SOMETIMES YOU EXASPERATE ME SO MUCH I'M TEMPTED TO SPANK YOU! YOU'RE A BAD, NAUGHTY LITTLE GIRL!
STOP THAT! DO YOU HEAR! YOU MAKE ME SIMPLY MISERABLE WHEN YOU DON'T BEHAVE! THE MISCHIEF YOU GET INTO IS MAKING A NERVOUS WRECK OF ME!
GO TO BED THIS MINUTE! IF YOU MUST BREAK THINGS, DO IT IN YOUR DREAMS AND THERE WON'T BE SO MUCH DAMAGE! YOU'VE ACTED LIKE A LITTLE RASCAL ALL DAY!
YOU'RE JUST A PRECIOUS ANGEL! I COULD KEEP YOU FOREVER! I UNDERSTAND THAT WALKING TO PUT UP WITH ALL TROUBLES AND WORRIES — THIS IS A CHILD! WHEN I LOOK TO YOUR FACE, I'M GLAD YOU'RE IN MY HOME!

tion Honors Memory Today of Heroes Who Made Supreme Sacrifice

In Flanders fields the poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved,
and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

SOUTHLAND PROSPECTS ANALYZED

Waterworks Program Seen as Stimulant of Business Here

Stimulation of industry and business in Southern California with an added turnover of from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000 in the next few years as a result of the city of Los Angeles waterworks program to be undertaken with the proceeds of the $38,800,000 bond issue just approved by the voters, is emphasized in a current market letter of Reed, Adler & Co. as an important factor in enhancing the attractiveness of securities of Southern California industries and corporations which are economically sound and progressively managed.

Of the upward of $12,500,000 which will be used to purchase landholdings from residents of the Owens, Long and tributary valleys, the bulk of this money will return to Los Angeles and its environs as a survey reveals about 80 per cent of the recipients of this money will make their permanent residence in this territory.

"Add to this distribution of funds the money to be derived by cement companies, steel companies and the producers of other necessary commodities, together with the large labor payments to be made and then follow this money through its cycle of passing from one hand to the other and it is easy to realize that probably this $40,000,000 will, during the life of the construction of the project and reasonably soon thereafter, be turned over on an average of between five and ten times, bringing, therefore, added business of from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000 to this territory during the next few years," the letter by the investment house states.

With the added possibility of Boulder Dam being started in a reasonable period of time and the favorable outlook for the oil, motion-picture and agricultural industries, Southern California is headed for a definite trend upward in the comparatively near future irrespective of the possibility of a delayed recovery in the eastern and middle western sections of the country, the letter concludes.

NEW BULL GROUP ARISING

Investors Told That Waiting Attitude May Prove Costly; Believe Rise Has Started

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Within the last few days a school of opinion has arisen in the stock market prophesying better times shortly for the security purchaser. This group tells its audience that investors waiting for the expected fall rise are making a mistake; that the rise has already started.

How much of this advice is inspired by people with stocks to liquidate and how much is honest reasoning is debatable. The public has not yet forgotten the January-April advance and collapse, engineered by professionals with stocks to sell. Stocks were run up on the strength of reports of business improvement that later proved to have been misleading.

ACCUMULATION SEEN

This charge is not denied in professional quarters, but the reply is made by many qualified observers that smart investors of large means are accumulating stocks now regardless of the status of business.

Under this influence, prices of seasoned stocks are slowly rising and will continue to rise, it is contended. When the rank and file of investors and speculators are informed that the nation's business is actually in the recovery zone, they will find stocks selling $10 to $20 a share higher, according to this reasoning.

Partial confirmation of current accumulation is given by the technical state of the market. It is much more difficult to buy stocks at these low levels than it is to sell. The liquidating tendency seems to have run its course, and only occasional weak spots are uncovered by selling for the bear account.

EARLY TURN AWAITED

For the benefit of the speculators, the opinion is volunteered by several commission houses that the market's tone should improve as soon as the reparations financing and the tariff bill are out of the way. It is possible that professional groups may attempt to capitalize on these developments and stir stocks up a bit, as is suggested, but at the best the sale of the reparations bonds and the end of the tariff unsettlement would be classified as stale news. And there is also considerable doubt of the constructive import of this news so far as American business is concerned.

On the other hand, the failure of Congress to enact a tariff law at this session would undoubtedly be construed as bearish news, particularly since the stock market is in an unsettled frame of mind.

Anything of genuine significance may, however, arouse the market from its present state of inertia into a brief period of enthusiasm. An announcement from Washington respecting rail consolidations, the news of a large industrial merger, or the approval of the Standard of New York-Vacuum Oil combination, might fill the bill as bullish news.

Little Change Noted in Trade Survey of Week

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—Dun's Review this week will say:

With the added restraints of holiday interruption and of unseasonable weather over a considerable area, repression of business activities has continued the rule.

Another month is ending much as it had begun, with few changes of special significance, and more than the usual repetition is necessary in reviewing the general situation. The state of inertia and of indecision, although less pronounced in some instances, extends to many branches of enterprise, while financial movements reflect similar characteristics, the securities markets are favored by conspicuous monetary ease, but are more sensitive now to trade trends, there being an increasing disposition to take cognizance of actual existing conditions.

Appraisals made on the basis of future prospects bear a confident tone and the latent economic reserve power is considered reassuring, but the absence of a broad and decisive revival is the controlling factor at present. Cautious policies are being closely adhered to in most quarters, with a strong disinclination to operate beyond immediate or early needs, and the lack of vigorous demands serves to accentuate the recession in commodity prices.

Weekly bank clearings, $7,599,961,000, a decrease of 22.5 per cent from a year ago.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Floyd L. Carlisle, 49 years of age, Cornell University graduate, chairman of the board of the Hudson, Niagara Power Corporation, is rapidly becoming one of the most powerful figures in the public utility field.

His selection yesterday to the board of the New York Edison Company and his probable election today as a member of the board of the Consolidated Gas Company show this clearly.

The process of linking the up-New York State utility group, which Mr. Carlisle has been largely instrumental in welding together, with the New York Edison and the Consolidated Gas, is believed to be progressing.

There are some who think that Mr. Carlisle's active interest in these large New York companies will mean the creation of a new company which will hold a substantial interest in both the Niagara Hudson Power Corporation and the Consolidated Gas Company of New York.

In this connection it is well to remember that the United Corporation—the Morgan-Bonbright Utility holding company—already holds 202,000 shares of Consolidated Gas common. There is a general belief that not only is the Niagara-Hudson Corporation buying Consolidated Gas stock, but other companies in which Mr. Carlisle has a dominating interest are also buying this stock. Among these companies is the St. Regis Paper Company, the largest stockholder in the Niagara Hudson Power Corporation.

A merger of the Niagara Hudson Power Corporation and the Consolidated Gas would unite what are now the two largest power producers in the entire United States, which serve the richest and most thickly settled population in the country. A $2,000,000,000 superpower combine has become a possibility.

When George L. Ohrstrom & Co. and J. G. White & Co. decided this week to join hands in a new corporation for the purpose of buying and developing large banking and utility properties in South America it brought into the news again the name of one of the most successful of the younger Wall street leaders.

George L. Ohrstrom, 35 years of age, Michigan-born, went through high school at Tacoma, Wash. After graduating from the University of Michigan he began work with P. W. Chapman & Co. in New York. Seven years later, in 1926, he organized his own company and began to specialize in the field of natural gas and water works. He is a director of the Oklahoma Natural Gas Corporation, the American Natural Gas Corporation, the People's Light and Power Corporation and the Federal Water Service Corporation, which serves a large portion of the metropolitan district of New York City.

The combination of the White and Ohrstrom companies for the purpose of exploiting South American enterprises is not unlike the tie-up of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company with the American and Foreign Power Company in foreign nations.

South American opportunities have made many North American firms wealthy in the past, but the surface so far has only been scratched.

MELLON OIL CONCERN IN HUGE DEAL

Combination of Paragon Refining With Gulf Held Under Negotiation

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive) The Mellon interests of Pittsburgh are reported to have acquired assets of the Paragon Refining Company operating 100 filling stations in Michigan and Ohio in a $10,000,000 merger of that company with the Gulf Oil Company, which the Mellons control.

Announcement of the transaction came through the statement of E. W. Edwards, president of the Paragon company, that stockholders would be asked to approve the sale of the Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, which is said to be buying for the Gulf company. Directors have recommended the approval of the sale, to be considered at a special meeting of stockholders called for June 24.

Stock of the Valvoline company, recently acquired by Paragon, will not be involved in the deal, it was said. Cash and accounts receivable are to be held by Paragon. The shipping and distributing facilities which the Mellon interests will get through the purchase are considered to be of much value to them. They will obtain Paragon's principal plant in Toledo, covering twenty-eight acres, along with the other considerations included in the transaction.

Edwards stated that all stockholders will receive cash for their holdings and preferred shares may bring $50 each, while approximately $16 a share will be available for Class B stock, which has been quoted on the Cincinnati exchange at around $14.50 a share.

Paragon capitalization includes 1,000,000 shares of no par B common stock, of which there are 626,086 shares outstanding and 48,759 shares of Class A preferred stock, with 40,636 shares outstanding.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—The spotty and creeping bull market in curb stocks went forward without notable interruption in today's preholiday session. Trading slackened somewhat, with total sales of 756,100 shares, compared to nearly 1,000,000 yesterday. Utilities and industrial specialties dominated the day's activity, joined by a few of the oils.

In the industrial and specialty group, Dresser, B. Carnation Company, Cuneo Press, Ulen & Co., and United States Foil B rose 1¼ to 3 points to high levels for 1930. Deere, under heavy pressure early in the week, rallied more than 2 points. Some of the aviation issues were firm, including Aviation Corporation of the Americas and Fokker. Detroit Aircraft, recently stimulated by merger rumors, rose a fraction to a new high, but closed unchanged. Technicolor slipped back a point, and Dow Chemical, Driver Harris and Pepperell 2 to 3.

Electric Bond and Share was again an active feature, moving up about a point to a high for the movement. Electric Power and Light warrants, Consolidated Gas of Baltimore, American Light, and Traction, American and Foreign Power warrants, and Cleveland Electric rose a point or two. Associated Gas and the European Electric each lost more than a point, the latter reaching a new low at 17¾.

Vacuum was a feature of the oils, rising about 5 points. Cities Service sold up 2 fractions in heavy trading. Gulf sold off, although acquisition of Paragon Refining by Mellow interests is expected to provide a new limit for Gulf.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, May 29. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Steel demand continues to lag despite lower prices and low stocks in consumers' hands. Buyers are filling only their immediate requirements. Competition is extremely keen for that business which is coming out. Iron and steel jobbers have reduced prices on cold rolled material effective June 2. Some sheet steel consumers are taking a fair tonnage, but generally the market is quiet.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—Quietness continued to rule the bond market today. Inquiry was dull and few important changes appeared. There was a slight appreciation in the demand for industrials, but the high-grade rails and utilities stagnated.

There were a few exceptions to the slowness of the rails. Chicago Great Western 4s advanced 1¼ in a substantial turnover and the 5s, Paid adjustment income 5s, which were in low ground earlier in the week, extended their more recent improvement by about half a point.

American and Foreign Power 5s, traded on the New York Stock Exchange for the first time, ranged between 89 and 89½. The American Telephone series was firm, but elsewhere there was little activity in the utilities. New York Traction Bonds advanced on fair volume.

Convertibles shared in the dullness. Both the telephone issues in this description moved up a point. Central Theaters 6s, 1944 maturity, advanced 1½, while Loew's 6s were firm and Warner Brothers Pictures eased.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the closing bid and asked prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the sales unitted when the same as the bid, and both low and close when same as high.

PILGRIMS TO FRANCE RETURNING

First Gold Star Group Comprising 126 Mothers Departs for Home

PARIS, May 29. (AP)—The first contingent of the American Gold Star Mothers and widows to visit France is homeward bound tonight, tired but content at having paid a pious visit to the last resting place of soldier sons and husbands.

One hundred twenty-seven were in the group which sailed. Four were left behind, one because of illness. The other three will tour Europe. The second group, meanwhile, is still in France and will conduct special Memorial Day services over soldier graves, while the third contingent today left Belgium for military cemeteries in France.

The mothers who sailed left Cherbourg on the President Harding tonight. Their departure was attended by no ceremony except their own touching tribute to the soil which holds their dead.

NEGRO WAR MOTHERS RESENT SEGREGATION

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People today announced that fifty-five Negro Gold Star Mothers have declined to make the pilgrimage to the graves of their sons under rules they said the War Department has laid down providing for segregation by color.

The mothers have appealed to President Hoover to abolish the ruling, the announcement said. Their petition terms the War Department's attitude "gratuitous insult."

That figure represented an increase of 1,092,213 vehicles over the previous record production total of 5,203,139 vehicles produced in 1928.

Factories in the United States and Canada were responsible for a total production of 5,621,709 vehicles in 1929 or more than 89 per cent of the world's total, as compared with 4,601,141 units, or approximately 88 per cent of the total in 1928.

Radio today is joining in the commemoration of Memorial Day. It will blanket the nation with music, song and speakers' tributes to those who gave their lives that this nation might live.

Radio is doing more than any other instrument to inculcate into the hearts and minds of the younger generation a love of country and of the nation's heroes of the past. Today in hundreds of thousands of homes throughout the nation President Hoover will be heard paying his respects to the memory of those who perished in the service of our country. This memorial service is to be conducted at Gettysburg, the scene of the Union's greatest victory during the Civil War. Following the President's speech there will be a short benediction and the program wil be fittingly closed with the "Star Spangled Banner." Tune in on KHJ or KFI at 10:45 a.m. and join the nation's leader in this tribute.

In addition to the nation-wide offering, almost every local radio station is dedicating one or more programs of excellent composition to this day.

MAIL WOOER JAILED AS SWINDLER

Man Accused in Postal Frauds at Boston Said to Have Operated Here

BOSTON, May 29. (AP)—[illegible] H. Wheeler, 45 years of age, alias E. Randolph Atkinson, matrimonial swindler of women on stock speculations, was arrested here today by postoffice inspectors as a fugitive from justice. An indictment charging use of the mails to defraud was returned against him in Boston recently.

Wheeler was arraigned before United States Commissioner Gurney and was held in $10,000 bail for a hearing June 10, next. He pleaded not guilty.

The inspectors said several of Wheeler's victims are Miss Mabel Brickell of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Hatti Thompson of Baltimore. It is asserted to have fraudulently induced Miss Brickell to give him $400,000 for investment in a gold mine stock listed on the San Francisco exchange. The amount involved in Mrs. Thompson's case was $14,600.

Wheeler's operations spanned the San Francisco and Hollywood, Cal., inspectors said. According to them his method was to advertise in a Chicago matrimonial magazine for a wife whose tastes were similar to his. He represented himself, they said, as a millionaire lover of music. It was after he had gained the confidence of the women through his love overtures that Wheeler preyed on their finances, the postal authorities said.

Pair from Here Testify in Fight Over Booth Will

NEW YORK, May 29. (Exclusive)—In the effort to invalidate the will of Anna Christine Norman Booth, former stage beauty who died March 8 when she plunged from the window of her twenty-floor apartment at Hotel Warwick, Edmund L. Rooney, counsel for Enos S. Booth, her estranged husband, and Mrs. Minnie Jamison, her semi-invalid mother, produced two Californians as witnesses at the resumption of the trial before Surrogate O'Brien.

They are Mrs. Virginia Cooper Davis of Van Nuys avenue, Los Angeles, a school companion and lifelong friend of the actress, and Dr. Alfred A. Watson, neurologist, formerly Hills, whose advice Mrs. Booth had sought while visiting in Los Angeles last January.

Mrs. Booth ignored the contestants in her will and left most of her $300,000 estate to friends.

COUNTY ADOPTS SALARY BUDGET

Total Placed at $18,240,000 for Coming Year

Twelve Thousand Workers Provided For

Pay Rises Represented in Increased Amount

A salary budget totaling approximately $18,240,000 from which some 12,000 county employees will receive their wages during the fiscal year beginning July 1, next, was adopted yesterday by the Board of Supervisors. Complete totals on the new budget could not be obtained, owing to the large amount of clerical work yet to be done. It is said these final statistics will not be available before Monday.

The new budget marks an increase of approximately $500,000 over the $17,747,207 budget of last year, but in adopting the budget the supervisors let it be known that the increase is due almost entirely to the addition of employees who, during the current year, have been taken from the unbudgeted reserve fund. These additions, according to Supervisor Warren Draves, chairman of the board, were made necessary because of the greater amount of work reflected in county departments as a natural consequence of the growth of the county.

FEW INCREASES

The new salary budget provides practically no increases in salary for county employees under civil service, Draves said. It makes allowances for increases in the salaries of the Sheriff, Assessor and justices of the peace.

Some raises, granted some time ago by the board, do not become effective until the expiration of the terms of office of those now holding the various positions. Their present terms expire November 30, but beginning December 1, the Sheriff and Assessor will be paid at the rate of $12,000 a year each, an increase of $2000 over the present salaries of these posts.

The board adopted the salary budget yesterday after poring for several nights over the final estimates submitted by the bureau of efficiency. From these estimates the board pruned a total of approximately $937,000 before approving the budget draft.

HELD DOWN TAX RATE

Most of this saving was effected by the board's disallowing requests for new employees made by various county departments.

The total increase requested by all county departments was $1,376,479, but this was cut to $491,656, according to Draves. Analysis of the budget shows that salary items responsible for most of the increase occur chiefly on the county charities department, which includes the County Hospital, County Farm, Olive Sanatorium, county welfare department and the county health department.

"Every departmental request," said Draves, "has undergone the closest scrutiny and has been pared to the lowest possible without impairing efficiency. Our one purpose has been to hold the tax rate to the lowest possible figure."

The salary budget was prepared under the supervision of Supervisor Draves, chairman of the board's budget committee. The board is now at work preparing the preliminary estimates on the general budget for the next fiscal year. It is planned to have preliminary estimates on this budget available by January 1, on which date Supervisor Draves leaves on a vocation trip to Europe.

Holiday Crowds Promised Clear Weather Today

Holiday crowds, expected today at beaches and mountain resorts, will have the advantage of fair weather at least this afternoon—it was predicted last night by the United States Weather Bureau.

Clouds or fog may keep the skies overcast this morning but the sun will come out by lunch time, the forecaster said.

Enough rain to register a trace in the rain gauge fell yesterday morning. The clouds that brought the drizzle, however, cleared two hours later.

The Los Angeles season rain total is 13.59 inches, as compared with 13.74 inches on the same date last year and the normal of 15.15 inches.

"BABY" GRADUATE ON TROJAN LIST

YOUNG CO-ED IN LINE-UP FOR DEGREE

Rose Terlitzky Finishes University Course at 19 as "Infant" of Class

Being the youngest of more than 1000 members of a graduating class doesn't seem to impress Miss Rose Charlotte Terlitzky. She is the baby member of the class of 1930 at the University of Southern California.

Just 19 years of age, she has completed her college course in three and one-half years and at the semi-centennial graduation exercises on June 7, next, she will receive the degree of bachelor of science in business administration, and also teaching credentials.

Miss Terlitzky, who is the daughter of Mrs. S. Terlitzky of 432 South New Hampshire street, is a native of Texas. She started high school at 11 and entered college when she was about 16. She kept books for her father when 13, and at one time was assistant buyer for a local clothing concern. She expects to enter the banking and finance field after graduation. She is a member of Gamma Alpha Chi, national honorary advertising fraternity.

PLUMMER SEEKS JOB OF SHERIFF

District Attorney's Dry Squad Chief Resigns to Become Candidate

Capt. Clyde I. Plummer, chief of the District Attorney's prohibition-enforcement detail since February 1, 1929, yesterday announced that he has resigned his position, effective June 1, to become a candidate for Sheriff of Los Angeles county. The candidate stated that he would file his nominative petition Monday or Tuesday, next.

Plummer is the third candidate to announce definitely that he will run for the office of Sheriff. William I. Traeger, incumbent, months ago announced that he will be a candidate to succeed himself. A month ago John Burwald, District Attorney's investigator, resigned, stating that he would run for the office.

For twenty years Capt. Plummer served in the Los Angeles Police Department. He retired as a deputy chief February 1, 1929, to accept the position he now holds in the District Attorney's office. He draws a pension under that rating from the city of Los Angeles.

IMMORTAL LIFE HOPES AROUSED

Millikan Experiments Lead to Optimistic Theory

Cosmic Rays Origin Found in Hydrogen Process

Material Change Believed to be Endless

By "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, May 29.—Cosmic rays have their origin in the energy released when clusters of hydrogen atoms fall together in interstellar space and create the common elements out of which the universe is made, according to the results of recent cosmic ray experiments reported by Dr. Robert A. Millikan in a paper soon to appear in a scientific publication.

This new research, performed by the California Institute of Technology physicist and others, indicates that cosmic rays result from the creative instead of from the degenerative process of nature, and definitely locates them in Dr. Millikan's theory of a cycle of creation which was characterized as "an epoch-making generalization of all time" at a recent meeting of the American Institute in New York City.

NEW THEORY

In his "cycle in cosmos," the California Institute head advances a theory which sets aside the age-old scientific belief that through gradual loss of energy the universe eventually will again become a void without form. Instead of this gloomy forecast, the cycle theory holds out hope that electrons annihilated in the stars do not die, but have a rebirth in radiant energy which ultimately becomes the stuff of which new stars and worlds are made. Thus, this process of degeneration and regeneration provides a never-ending circle of creation which has aroused high hopes that the material, at least, of which the universe is made, has immortal life.

This cosmic cycle theory supposes that the annihilation of positive and negative electrons in the stars gives rise to radiant energy which produces hydrogen. A "falling together of hydrogen atoms" then occurs as the next step in the recreative process.

THIRD STEP

When these hydrogen clusters combine under the influence of low conditions of temperature and density existing in interstellar space, the third progressive step in the cycle has been completed. The speculation supposes further that these heavier elements, including helium, oxygen and nitrogen, become parts of nebulae, and that the fifth stage in the endless creative and annihilative chain occurs when these elements, condensed from nebulae, form the stars, wherein the atoms are again broken down, unleashing energy again. From energy to stars, or from stars to energy, no beginning and no ending, is the picture presented by the new theory of material change.

As the result of the recent research which will be reported in a paper prepared by Dr. Millikan and Prof. I. S. Bowen, also of the California Institute, it appears to be proved that cosmic rays are born at the point on the creative chain where the heavier elements are formed by hydrogen and that they obtain their energy from this formative process.

Native Daughter of '49 Dies at Her Home Here

A native daughter of '49, Mrs. Augusta Cameron Bainbridge died yesterday at her home, 5129½ Alnaden Drive. She was born in Sonoma City August 17, 1849. Her father, Dr. John Horn of Boston, sailed around the Horn and was one of the raisers of the Bear Flag of California independence.

Mrs. Bainbridge graduated from California State Normal School in 1865 and taught for many decades. At the time of the San Francisco fire she was active in the relief work there of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She continued to be an active worker in that organization after moving to Los Angeles several years ago.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Laura B. Moore of Los Angeles and Mrs. Charlotte La Page of San Francisco. Funeral services will be conducted at Pierce Brothers mortuary at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

BROADWAY STAR HERE FOR TALKIE

BETTY COMPTON

Betty Compton, who scored a hit in the Broadway stage production, "Fifty Million Frenchmen," arrived in Hollywood last night to appear in talking pictures.

Miss Compton, a petite brunette, left the Chief at Pasadena and motored to Hollywood with her mother, Mrs. Florence Compton, who accompanied the stage star on her trip westward.

She was assigned under a long-term contract by J. L. Warner, vice-president of Warner Brothers, during the executive's trip to Atlantic City. She is to star in Vitaphone productions.

Last season Miss Compton was the hit of the stage musical comedy, "Hold Everything," and this season won new fame in "Fifty Million Frenchmen."

According to Warner, Betty Compton will make her first Vitaphone production at First National studios in Burbank.

BOARD GETS DEMAND IN FETE DEATH

School Officials Receive Call for $50,000 from Parents of Burned Child

A formal demand for the payment of $50,000 was made by N. M. Barbarus and Iva Barbarus on the Board of Education as a body and its individual members at the meeting yesterday afternoon. The demand is for compensation for the death of Clara Barbarus, who died as the result of burns received at Lincoln High School last January.

The statement presented was prepared by Anderson & Anderson & Shehan, attorneys, and asserts that the claim is for the "carelessness and negligence of you and each of you" in supplying certain fireworks known as "sparklers" and used on the stage of Lincoln High School auditorium, January 21, 1930.

The parents of the girl also assert the loss of service and deprivation to them of the comfort, society and protection of their daughter.

Plant Addition Authorized for Local Factory

Directors of the National Standard Company of Niles, Mich., manufacturers of wire braid, and other automobile accessories, yesterday authorized the construction of an addition to their plant here, according to a dispatch, W. F. Harrah, president of the company, said that the new addition will add about 10,000 square feet to productive facilities. Construction, he added, is to begin in the near future.

"This addition," continued Mr. Harrah, "has been made necessary by our constantly expanding business in the Los Angeles territory, where it is believed the volume this year will run twice as great as in 1929."

Mr. Harrah said the April earnings of the company were the largest of any month in the fiscal year, which began October 1, 1929.

Display of Ship Models Moved to Chamber Hall

As result of urgent requests from steamship men in Los Angeles the display of ship models exhibited at the Biltmore during the recent National Foreign Trade Convention has been moved to the main exhibit hall of the Chamber of Commerce, where they may be viewed by the general public.

The models on exhibit include the Amerika of the East Asiatic Company, the Cunarder Aquitania, Panama-Pacific liner California, the Ecuador of the Panama Mail Line, the Lewis Luckenbach, the Kerr liner Silvergate and the Statendam of the Holland-American Line. The models are a part of a $500,000 display that was a feature of the foreign trade conclave.

Freak Succulents Attract Interest

Bobby Fern Among Weird Cactesus

Several varieties of crested desert plants as seen in a corner of one display at Ambassador show which closes Sunday night.

RAREST CACTUSES SHOWN

Fantastic Desert Vegetation in Exhibition Here Range from Minute Size to Six Tons

The Cactus and Succulent Show at the Ambassador, which opened yesterday and will remain open until Sunday night, is presenting for exhibition thousands of plants entered by 250 exhibitors. Specimens run from the giant cactus weighing six tons, brought in from Palm Springs, to others about the size of a coat button. Displays range from simple bench arrangements, through elaborate re-creations of the desert with sand and bleached bones to miniature gardens in fancy containers.

The forms many of these specimens take suggest that the plant world has gone modernistic. They are full of angles and bizarre effects. Catching this as a keynote, some of the exhibitors have arranged their entries in pots, jars, bowls and general settings which accentuate this. Even with those who have chosen a background and containers which carry the motif of Indian decoration, so typical of the the great Southwest, where many of these specimens came from, the plants often suggest the craft of the futuristic artist.

PRIZES AWARDED

Sweepstakes for the show went to R. E. Willis of Los Angeles, who has been president of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America, sponsoring the show, for the past year. The organization is but two years old and was formed in Los Angeles for the purpose of carrying on scientific study concerning these plants and with the idea of disseminating this knowledge. It has membership in many foreign countries, and every State in the Union with the exception of Nevada is represented on its roster.

G. A. Frick, Los Angeles, carried off first honors for the largest collection of cactuses and first for the largest collection of euphorbias. Mrs. Frick won first for the best rarest succulent shown with a fine Kalanchoe. A blue ribbon went to E. M. Baxter of Montebello for the rarest cactus in the show, an insignificant looking plant to the layman, which clearly illustrated the fact that size and beauty do not establish the value of one of these plants.

Highest honors for the best collection of sedums went to J. A. Ekdom, Pasadena, manager of the show. The best-staged display was that of the Overbrook Nurseries with Carl Hergenberger, Sawtelle, second, and Clark Gardens, Pasadena, third. First award for the best exhibit of specimens in fancy containers went to John S. Vosburg, Pasadena, who was one of the entrants to choose modernistic effects in his setting. Dr. A. D. Houghton, San Fernando, honorary president of the society, won a first for his display of crested cacti and first for display of grafted plants.

One of the most picturesque displays in the entire show was a combination of rock and desert garden created by the Wilshire Rockcraft and Cactus Gardens, the plant specimens having been grown in a section of the display for months in preparation for this event. A first award was given this entry.

To A. R. Davis of Marathon, Tex., went the award for the exhibit from the greatest distance.

FIVE-FINGER PROJECT TO GO THROUGH

Last Barrier to Gigantic Hollywood Street Plan Removed by Court

The last legal bar to the consummation of the $5,000,000 "Hollywood Five-finger Plan," a project for widening and opening streets centering about Hollywood Boulevard and Cahuenga Boulevard, was removed yesterday when the State Supreme Court upheld the Superior Court in refusing to enjoin the collection of assessments.

The paving of the widened streets is now going forward. Deputy City Attorney Kitzmiller explained that the bondholders, so sure were they that the project would not be upset, agreed to go ahead with the improvement.

The Supreme Court held that the whole proceeding is free from objectionable criticism, being a part of a comprehensive traffic scheme, and indorsed by the city government and city and county planners.

The action upon which the Supreme Court ruled yesterday was an attack on the assessments.

FITTS REPLIES TO YOUNG AIDE

Lewis Campaign Fund Tale of Berman Discussed

Courts Must Rule on Proof, Says District Attorney

Stimson Accused of Making Political Publicity

Demands by Attorney Marshall Stimson, Southern California chairman of the Young-for-Governor campaign, that Dist.-Atty. Fitts submit proof of charges that large contributions were made to the Young campaign in 1926 by S. C. Lewis of the Julian Petroleum Corporation, yesterday drew a sharp response from Fitts in which the Young managers were accused of attempting to make political capital out of a matter which the courts alone may settle.

Characterizing a letter sent to him by Stimson as "campaign publicity," and reciting the history of the campaign contribution charge since it first became a matter of public knowledge through publication of testimony by Jacob Berman before the Los Angeles grand jury, Fitts said that the evidence demanded by Young's campaign chairman will be presented to the courts as the various cases connected with the Julian crash are disposed of.

The District Attorney denied that Berman had charged Gov. Young with accepting or having knowledge of contributions from Lewis, and reiterated a part of a public address by Fitts several weeks ago in which the District Attorney explained his own disbelief that the Governor was personally involved in the affair.

TEXT OF LETTER

The letter from Fitts follows:

May 29, 1930

Mr. Marshall Stimson,
Southern California Chairman,
C. C. Young-for-Governor Campaign,
Parlor A, Alexandria Hotel,
Los Angeles, California.

My dear Mr. Stimson:

I have your letter dated May 28, 1930, a paragraph from which I quote as follows:

"A Los Angeles morning paper, under date of May 21, published an account of a speech made by you at Santa Ana in connection with your campaign for Governor in which you are reported to have threatened to prove at the proper time by photographs of checks and the evidence itself just where the money in the Julian case went, and at the same time intimating that Gov. Young's campaign of 1926 received money from Julian sources."

COURTS MUST RULE

"In replying to your communication, I would like to say first that in your capacity as a political campaign director you are addressing me in my capacity as a District Attorney and asking me as District Attorney to involve the office in a political issue. I have frequently said and here repeat to you the fact that I cannot and will not mix my duties and responsibilities as District Attorney of Los Angeles county with my campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor of California, nor will I permit you or any other person engaged in political controversy to accomplish this result. The facts pertaining to the Julian Petroleum Corporation crash are being presented in due course to the only body competent to consider and pass upon them—the courts of this county. In the courts the various cases connected with the Julian matter will be fully presented and the evidence will determine the outcome.

"With reference to your quotation of 'proper time' to produce the evidence, let me say that that time will develop as the various cases are heard and not before.

"Since the appearance of Jacob Berman before the Los Angeles county grand jury, in which he stated that sums totaling from $150,000 to $200,000 were delivered by him to S. C. Lewis for the purpose, according to a statement by Lewis to Berman, of transmission to the managers of the Young-for-Governor campaign of 1926, there has been great hue and cry throughout this State and seemingly a well-organized campaign of misrepresentation concerning the relationship of myself and the District Attorney's office, to Berman's testimony.

"May I point out to you that Berman did not say that he delivered the money to the Young campaign; that he did not say he knew that

by Harry Carr

IT'S a cinch that the bandit who held up the Santa Fe train Wednesday night knew who were to be passengers.

It has every sign of an inside job. It was some one who knew that Marion Nixon—well ballasted with jewels—was going as far as Pasadena; and that Mrs. Al Jolson with her cargo of jewels would also be on the train.

LEY DE FUGA

There is in Los Angeles a young Mexican general who solved the bandit question for Mexico City. While Roberto Cruz was Chief of Police down there every bad man was arrested; the police assumed that he was trying to escape and shot him. It assumed the proportions of a young massacre, but it eliminated a band of gunmen and crooks.

A GREAT ARMY PASSES

This summer's G.A.R. encampment will be the last. The veterans are too few and too feeble to risk another.

It is the passing of the greatest army the world has ever known. This is not flag waving but cold military fact.

Capt. H. Liddell-Hart, editor of the Encyclopedia Britannica, and the foremost military critic now living, says as much in his recently published biography of Gen. Sherman. He expresses the opinion that the expedition that marched from Atlanta to the sea was the greatest army ever to take the field . . . in any country or at any period of history.

A MAGIC NAME

When it becomes necessary for the United States Department of Commerce to protect the name "California" from fakers who want to trade on the magic of the name, we can assume that it must be pretty good.

THE NEW YORK IDEA

The next era of California will show an intellectual high tide.

The talkies and other influences have brought the writing brains of the world out here. The musicians are hot on their trail.

For a while it looked as though we would have to ask for a government fraud order to keep all these tin-pan alley people from polluting California with the "New York idea." But the public has saved us the trouble.

The real significance of the failure of revues, the lapse of the murder-mystery stories, the yawns that drove out "back-stage" dramas, and the triumphant return of westerns to the screen is plain.

Broadway is interesting only to its own ego. When writers come out here from New York they will—chastened by sad experience—kiss Broadway good-by forever.

BARGAIN DAY

If the city sells the corner of First and Hill streets, the site of the old City Hall and two other lots on Broadway for $1,040,000, somebody will get the world's champion bargain. This is the greatest Friday remnant sale on record.

I don't know where the new police station will be, but it would be impossible to find a location worse than the present one for a police station.

HELP NEEDED

Our police reporters are indignant because the Police Commission proposes to give newspaper badges to radio announcers. But in the interest of humanity something should be done to protect them from an infuriated public which has listened to their merry jests.

CITY HONORS DEAD TODAY

Series of Elaborate Memorial Services Planned; Parade to Precede Exposition Park Rites

Honoring the memory of men and women who made the supreme sacrifice in America's wars, citizens of Los Angeles will observe Memorial Day today with elaborate programs at many parks and cemeteries.

In point of attendance, the greatest service will be at Exposition Park at 1:45 p.m., when soldiers of many wars and various military organizations will gather to participate in a program of exceptional interest. Preceded by a parade of five divisions, with Brig.-Gen. Story as grand marshal, the program is to include solos by Mme. Schumann-Heink, invocation by Maj. Stevens, the reading of Gen. Logan's Memorial Day order by Col. C. H. Haskins and an address by Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California.

An outstanding service of the day will be that conducted by the members of the Hollywood American Legion, Post No. 43, at the Legion clubhouse following the parade which is to start at 9 a.m. from El Centro avenue. The R.O.T.C. of Hollywood and Fairfax high schools will participate in the procession and program and Gov. Young will be the principal speaker. Following the program, members of the post are to go to Hollywood Cemetery to decorate the graves of former comrades.

Fifty patriotic and civic organizations will participate in the procession at 9 a.m. and the program at the National Military Home at Sawtelle. John R. Quinn is to be the speaker.

A group of 100 school children will gather at the east entrance to the National Home, joining the members of the G.A.R. Forming a parade the participants will proceed to the cemetery, where at 9:45 a.m. the services will be opened by prayer, led by Chaplain S. A. Drummond.

Following this, the group of school children will place the national col-

SEVERAL STORIES MAKE MYSTERY OF ROMANCE

Chester H. Moorehead, former husband of Constance Bennett, the actress, and Jessica Littleton Spurlock put all their friends to guessing yesterday when it was learned at the marriage license bureau they had failed to call for their license to wed. The notice of intention was filed April 25, last, and the application has been canceled, it was announced at the bureau yesterday.

Although Mrs. Spurlock was reported out of the city yesterday, Moorehead, son of F. B. Moorehead of Chicago, declared, when reached at his home, they had not been married elsewhere.

"We did not call for the license for reasons best known to ourselves and in which the public is not at all interested," Moorehead stated.

"Do you plan on being married later?" he was asked.

"As far as I am concerned we do," he answered.

Moorehead insisted their nuptial plans had not been called off.

At the home of Mrs. Spurlock a woman who described herself as a friend, but declined to disclose her identity, stated "the whole thing was a hoax." She said Mrs. Spurlock is out of the city on a motor trip.

After they filed their intention notice both Moorehead and Mrs. Spurlock said they were not going to be married, and still later they said they had changed their minds and would go through with it. Moorehead declared at the time he had waited two years until Mrs. Spurlock could obtain her final decree of divorce.

LEWIS WILL GO ON STAND

State Closes in Jury-Bribery Trial and Defendant Plans to be Own Chief Witness

S. C. Lewis, former president of the Julian Petroleum Corporation but now acting as his own attorney in Superior Judge McLucas's court, where he is being tried on a jury-bribery charge, will begin calling defense witnesses Monday morning.

In all the former oil man, now an inmate of Federal prison at McNeil Island, where he is serving a seven-year sentence for mail fraud and here only for the purpose of the present trial, will call more than a score of witnesses, he announced last night.

Lewis will be his own principal witness, he declared yesterday, and will take the stand last. He will deny in detail the story told by the prosecution witnesses and set forth a political plot as the real reason for his prosecution, he said.

The prosecution closed late yesterday afternoon when Dep. Dist.-Attys. Costello and Jones, in charge of the case, placed Blaney Mathews, chief of the investigation department of the District Attorney's office, on the witness stand to testify regarding the manner in which various statements had been taken during the early part of the investigation which resulted in the Lewis indictment.

In all Costello and Jones placed eight witnesses on the stand. Direct evidence against Lewis, however, was given only by the chief prosecution witnesses, Mrs. Caroline B. Love, the juror who Lewis is accused of having attempted to bribe; W. B. Love, her husband, and J. H. Weaver, the confessed go-between. The other witnesses testified as to minor matters.

Mrs. Love, in her account of the affair, declared that Weaver came to her husband and through him told her that "there was money to be had out of the Julian case," if she as a juror would vote him not guilty. It was after several conferences between Weaver and Love, and through Love to Mrs. Love, that

Officer Found Guilty on Auto Crash Charges

His Retirement Eligibility Only Nine Months Away

With but nine months to serve to complete the twenty years making him eligible to retirement, Captain of Detectives James P. Bean, dean of the homicide investigators of the police department, was ordered discharged by Chief of Police Steckel yesterday following an investigation in which a board of inquiry made up of three police captains found that he had been guilty of driving in a "careless and reckless manner" when his police car collided with a citizen's machine on April 26, last.

An appendage to the official wording of the removal papers stated "And, according to witnesses, it was evident that you had been drinking intoxicating liquor."

BEAN PLANS APPEAL

Capt. Bean immediately after he was notified of his dismissal, declared that he will appeal to the Police Commission for an open hearing. He denies that he had been drinking on the night of the accident, and asserts that half a dozen witnesses, including the police surgeon who examined him, already have made statements to the effect that he was not under the influence of liquor.

Officer D. A. McCool, who was called to the scene of the accident and made a preliminary investigation, was restored to duty but disciplinary action is to be taken against him.

Chief Steckel picked three veteran captains of police to form a board of inquiry. The board scrutinized all of the reports and made their findings verbally to the Chief.

Once again there were conferences between the Chief and Mayor Porter. Announcement of the final action by the Chief was made yesterday.

Chief Steckel stated that the members of the board of inquiry reported to him that they were convinced that Capt. Bean had been guilty of reckless driving, and that, as a consequence, it was his duty to order the removal.

The removal order reads: "You are found guilty of conduct unbecoming an officer in that on April 26, 1930, you did drive and operate a police automobile in a careless and reckless manner, so as to endanger the lives and property of motorists and pedestrians, and that while driving in such a manner, ran into and damaged a car driven by Jack R. Gould of 868 West Twenty-third street. This occurred in the vicinity of Thirty-eighth street and Mesa Drive. And that, according to witnesses, it was evident that you had been drinking intoxicating liquor."

COUNCIL DECLINES TO ACT ON PARKING PLEA

Because the Police Commission now has the power to permit angle parking against curbs by merely painting lines in the street, the City Council yesterday declined to take action on the request of the Venice branch of the Chamber of Commerce to permit angle parking in the streets of the canal-filled area in the beach city.

TWO DEAD FOLLOWING ACCIDENTS

Woman Struck by Auto and Another Injured in Collision Succumb

Two deaths resulting from traffic accidents were reported yesterday, together with serious accidents, including two crashes involving motorcycles. Police reported the overturning of an automobile from which they dragged the driver and booked him on a drunk-driving charge.

Mrs. Katherine O'Reilly, 42 years of age, 116 South Wilton Place, died yesterday in St. Vincent's Hospital. She was struck Wednesday at Figueroa and Fifteenth streets by a motorcycle operated by Claude W. Blevins, address not given, police reported.

In a collision between a policeman's motorcycle and an automobile yesterday, Motorcycle Officer Victor Neggen received serious head injuries, concussion of the brain and possible fracture of the left shoulder. He reported colliding at Sunset Boulevard and Beaudry street, with a car driven by Catherine Coran, 818 North Hayworth street.

Seriously injured in a collision between an automobile and a street car at Catalina and Twenty-fourth streets yesterday, Dan Murphy, 61, a broker, 2076 West Adams street, was given emergency treatment at the receiving hospital and sent to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Injuries received in a traffic accident caused the death yesterday of Mrs. Mattie Mason, 66, of 1231 North Detroit avenue, who died in General Hospital. While riding Sunday, last, in a car driven by her son, J. G. Dever, the machine was in collision with another automobile driven by A. T. Barton, 843 North Vendome street, police report, at St. George and Griffith Park boulevards.

Chief Deputy Coroner Macdonald yesterday ordered an inquest into the death of Earl Gill, 19, killed in a traffic accident Wednesday night, for tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the Baldwin Park Funeral Home.

After his car overturned at Hill and Twenty-first streets yesterday, Carl Christ, 22, 3919 South Olive street, was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Injured in an automobile collision last night, J. N. Gonzales, 45, 1242 North Westmoreland Place, was reported in a dying condition at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. A car driven by Gonzales collided at Hooper and Fifty-fifth street with another driven by A. N. Chapman, 1210 Tenth street, Glendale, police reported.

Knocked down by an automobile last night, Mrs. Margaret Dickenson, 73, 1725 Ivar avenue, received a skull fracture and possible internal injuries which, doctors said, probably will prove fatal. Mrs. Dickenson was crossing Hollywood Boulevard at Stanley street when she walked against one side of a touring car driven by Bill Amendt, 17, 2187 Stanley Hills Drive, police report. She was taken to the Dickey & Cass Emergency Hospital.

HEARINGS CONTINUED

TIMING ADVISED ON WATER PLAN

Chamber Research Group Holds Conference

Avoiding Economic Upset Strongly Urged

Irrigation Program Costs and Benefits Debated

Timing of the proposed general State water conservation program to California's economic needs in such manner that important economic disturbances may be avoided was strongly urged yesterday at a semiannual conference of the California Economic Research Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce, at the Alexandria.

Frank Adams, chairman of the Irrigation Economics Committee, who is professor of irrigation investigations and practice at the college of agriculture, University of California, made the point in a discussion of a recently completed outline of factors governing the economic feasibility of the proposed program.

BENEFITS MUST TOP COSTS

"No new development projects should be started unless they are first subjected to a searching challenge as to their economic feasibility," said Prof. Adams. "There must be a showing that the benefits will exceed the costs and that those who would be benefited will be able to absorb and pay for these benefits."

The inquiry was undertaken with eight interests or industries regarded as possible receivers of benefits. These are agriculture, power, navigation, mining, commercial and industrial interests, municipalities, flood control in so far as separable from benefits to irrigation and navigation, and the public. They were considered under two general heads: First, the nature and extent of benefits, and, second, the rate at which the benefits could be absorbed.

Taking up agriculture to illustrate the procedure followed by the committee in its study, Prof. Adams pointed out the advisability of ascertaining the value of the irrigation water that will be made available in the terms of the ability of the benefited land to pay for it and also in terms of the value of the increased production that will be made possible.

OTHER FACTORS CONSIDERED

Other factors that must be taken into account, he continued, include the effect on the total supply of the increased production that will be made possible, trends in demand and the long-time outlook for different groups of agricultural commodities, trends in agricultural prices, general and local population forecasts, changes in tariff schedules, trends in exports and imports of agricultural commodities and numerous others.

At the conclusion of Prof. Adams's talk, Chairman J. R. Douglas commented that the question is not simply a question of providing water supplies but of answering, "What is going to happen when you supply the water?"

Oliver P. Wheeler, assistant Federal Reserve Agent, of the Federal Reserve Bank, San Francisco, spoke on basic economic conditions and Dean W. E. Hotchkiss of the graduate school of business, of Stanford University, spoke on "Application of Research to Current Business Problems."

Prof. Adams was elected chairman of the council. Other officers chosen were:

Vice-chairman, W. G. Vincent, of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, of San Francisco; secretary, Herbert F. Ormsby, of the State Chamber of Commerce, San Francisco; chairman of the natural resources committee, Cary L. Hill of Berkeley; chairman, agricultural economics committee, Ralph H. Taylor of Sacramento; chairman, irrigation economics committee, W. W. McLaughlin, Berkeley; chairman, industrial economics committee, Wesley O. Ash, of San Francisco; chairman, busines research committee, N. J. Silberling, Berkeley, and directors, George J. Eberle, Los Angeles; H. E. Erdman, Berkeley; J. R. Douglas, Los Angeles; C. C. Bowen, Sacramento; W. E. Hotchkiss, Palo Alto; Oliver P. Wheeler, San Francisco, and C. B. Hutchison.

DRIVE OUTLINED AGAINST FRUIT FLY

Continued precautionary measures against the Mediterranean fruit fly were favored yesterday at a meeting of the State-wide Mediterranean Fruit Fly Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce at the Alexandria, with about twenty-five men, representing railroads, banks and agricultural groups, in attendance.

J. N. Nagle, manager of the California Fruit Exchange, of Sacramento, presided. G. H. Hecke, State Director of the Department of Agriculture, was the principal speaker. He reviewed the steps taken to guard against the entrance of the fly into California and assured his listeners that the pest had not entered the State.

RESOLUTIONS

The committee adopted five resolutions in advocating a constant vigil against the insect. These favored:

First, continued and unabating observance of adequate quarantine precautions through inspection and observance in the field on the part of the western States;

Second, an intensive survey in the southern States in 1930 during the ripening period of hosts of the fly by the Federal Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the Southern States and a request to California members of Congress to have funds applied for this purpose;

Third, continued maintenance of quarantine stations at the northerly boundary of California for the inspection of vehicular traffic to the same extent as is required at other border points;

HAZARD EMPHASIZED

Fourth, petitioning of the State governments of the Southern States to co-operate fully with the United States Department of Agriculture in inaugurating an intensive survey during the 1930 crop season to assure the knowledge that the pest is nonexistent within their boundaries, both for the assurance of their own agricultural industries and of those of their neighboring States, and,

Fifth, presentation of a request to California to continue its train inspection service until such time as an adequate survey has been made by the Federal government to determine what the true status of the fruit fly infestation is and such determination indicates that it is absolutely safe to discontinue this phase of quarantine inspection on trains.

It was pointed out that lack of funds to continue the fly eradication and inspection in Florida has left California without knowledge of the infestation conditions during a period of the year when the Mediterranean fruit fly becomes most active.

Unobserved infestations in the Southern States, it was further declared, would greatly multiply the hazard of spread and lessen the possibility of eradication.

TIME LIMIT ORDERED

Hawthorne avenue between McCadden Place and Highland avenue was placed in the one-hour parking zone yesterday by the City Council.

CLASSMATES TO BE BRIDESMAIDS

Girls Will Sail for Ceremony Sunday

As a motive for a reunion ten Girls' Collegiate graduates of Los Angeles will start by boat Sunday morning to be bridesmaids for a college chum, Miss Sarah Land of Oroville, who will be married to Paul Holland of West Virginia at the Oroville Congregational Church Wednesday night.

Miss Land was popular in social circles of Los Angeles while at Girls' Collegiate. She was president of the postgraduate class. She was an active worker for the Castelar Creche, which will give its third annual benefit June 14 in the gardens of W. A. Clark. This was founded by the late Mrs. Michael J. Connell for the care of babies until the age of 1 year.

The bridesmaids will return to Los Angeles next Saturday in order to start work for the coming benefit party for the Castelar Creche. Miss Helen Sutphen designed and executed the frocks for the bridesmaids and the wedding dress of the bride.

Lewis had delivered the money, and may I say further that this office had nothing whatsoever in any manner or respect to do with the publication of Berman's testimony, which is a matter of public record in the grand jury transcript. Berman's testimony on the subject comprises not more than eight or nine pages in a document of more than 300 pages. This record was furnished to the attorneys for the various defendants in the Julian cases, as required by law, soon after the hearing in the month of March, and up such delivery became a matter of news.

Soon after the grand jury made public Berman's testimony and the newspapers emphasized this particular phase of it, I was immediately subjected to criticism and attack by newspapers and politicians working for the re-election of Gov. Young. You appear not to be informed of the fact that in a speech which I made in the Alexandria Hotel I explained the facts in this matter. At that time I said, "From the transcript covering some 400 pages before the grand jury the press elicited and emphasized that portion dealing with campaign contributions.

"There was no inference in Berman's testimony that any opponent received any part of the asserted contribution personally. Those who know the one involved and his reputation would not credit him personally for an instant with any improper connection with such a matter, and so far as I am concerned, I want to say that no such suspicion was entertained in any degree." I said also "One of the oldest gestures in politics is the effort to stir up sympathy for some political candidate by seeking to make it appear that he is the victim of unjust attack, or has been unfairly criticized.

"In this instance my opponent has not been attacked. My candidacy against him is based on other considerations than the character of his political associates or the nature of their individual or collective campaign activities. The Governorship of this State should be determined upon basic principles and not upon cunning politics."

It has seemed to me that the supporters of Gov. Young have not only been unjust, but unwise, in insisting that specific charges have been made against the Governor in this matter. I know of none and have made none, and despite the political advantages which some of the Governor's supporters have sought to gain at my expense, I have carefully refrained from retaliating.

While your letter to me is wholly political and in the nature of politics, I am replying in this manner, furnishing you with the facts in the hope that I may, so far as possible, keep political meddling out of functions and activities of the District Attorney's office. Inasmuch as you state in your letter to me that you are giving your campaign publicity to the press, I am sending copies of this letter to the newspapers for their information.

Very truly yours,

BURON R. FITTS.

Medical Fraud Trial Delayed

Trial of "Prince" Charles Stuart, self-asserted member of the Bavarian royal family, and Rudy Morris, 1222 North Ogden Drive, on charges of practicing medicine without a license was delayed at the request of the defense until July 14, next, by Municipal Judge Curtis yesterday on the ground that they will be busy in other courts.

Stuart was arrested after he had given an astrological reading to Policewoman Mary Ross and Mrs. Jesse Davis, an inspector for the State Pharmacy Board, and had called in Morris, who prescribed for them, according to Deputy City Prosecutor Hall.

JURIES TO BEGIN FAKE LEVY QUIZ

County and Federal Bodies to Take Action

Many Lot Owners Believed Victims of Scheme

Plot Suspects Identified by Girl Employees

Federal and county grand jury investigations of an asserted assessment swindle perpetrated against some 50,000 lot owners in subdivisions throughout California will be launched next week, according to plans of investigators of the Realty Board.

The inquiry by the two bodies will be augmented by other investigations that are to be conducted in other counties throughout the State in which it is believed the operators of the assessment scheme have mailed notices of payments due for contemplated improvements.

A great mass of information that has been obtained during the past week on the methods used in collecting $5, $10 and $15 payments through use of the mails in sending out the asserted fake notices is being prepared for submission to U. S. Atty. McNabb and Dist.-Atty. Fitts here, and to the Federal attorney in San Francisco, as well as District Attorneys in other counties where the swindle has been uncovered.

IDENTIFICATION MADE

Identification of the parties believed responsible for the State-wide assessment plot was made positive yesterday, according to investigators, through revelations made by girls employed in the offices.

The girls, according to the investigators, were employed in mailing out the assessment notices to thousands of lot holders, whose names had been taken from tax lists. Shown photographs of two of the men under suspicion, out of five believed to be members of the "assessment" organization, the stenographers and clerks quickly identified their employers. At the same time they revealed information that hundreds of the "improvement call notices" were prepared here and taken to San Francisco by boat for mailing.

LETTERS POUR IN

A third office of the organization, which is self-styled "a subdivision improvement association," in addition to the one here and in San Francisco, is believed to have been located by the investigators in San Bernardino.

Hundreds of letters are pouring into the offices of subdivision operators asking for an explanation of the "assessment call" from incensed lot owners, who have been circularized and who have no information as to the announced improvements.

It was also revealed that hundreds of other lot owners are sending in their remittances in response to the asserted fake assessment, and postal inspectors are scanning the methods used in the belief that the mails have been used to defraud.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO BUILD SWIMMING POO

After seventeen years of planning and saving Los Angeles High School is to have its own swimming pool and fireproof bleachers for its athletic field, and the work is to be paid for out of student body funds which have been drawing interest while they have been added to year by year. The construction of the pool and bleachers was approved by the Board of Education yesterday afternoon.

"This has been a great lesson in thrift for the students," Ernest W. Oliver, principal of Los Angeles High School, said last night when discussing the accumulation of the fund. "This money has come from entertainment features such as lectures and other events and from gate receipts at our games. STATE CLOSES IN LEWIS CASE

Lewis was first approached by Weaver and, according to the testimony, gave him $10,000 to pay to Mrs. Love.

From the accounts of both of the Loves and Weaver the money was never paid because Mrs. Love in the end refused to go through with the plot. Most of the money Weaver testified was returned by him through his attorney to Lewis.

LEWIS AND FITTS MIX

Yesterday's morning session was featured by a fierce exchange of words between Lewis and Dist.-Atty. Fitts, who was called by Costello to testify that Mrs. Love had never been under arrest. The quarrel, which was settled by Judge McLucas, by having all of the remarks stricken from the record, came while Fitts was being cross-examined.

"You have been indicted in two or three other cases, I believe," this remark came from Fitts in response to a question by Lewis.

"Yes, you got your witnesses from the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, bought and paid for, more or less and in addition to that fact you said if I admit I gave a contribution to the Young campaign fund you would dismiss this case," was Lewis's reply.

"You know there is not a word of truth in what you say. I will explain the conversation with you if you want it," replied the District Attorney.

RESUMES MONDAY

It was then that Judge McLucas, who had been attempting to make himself heard above the shouting of the two men, ordered all of Lewis's statement stricken from the record and a moment later also instructed the reporter to strike Fitts's remarks.

Later Lewis asked that Fitts's statements be assigned as misconduct and moved the court for a mistrial. The motion was denied.

Sixteen motions to strike various portions of the prosecution testimony went into the record from Lewis just before court adjourned late yesterday afternoon and all of them were denied by the court. A motion to dismiss will be made, according to Lewis, before he calls his first defense witness Monday morning.

No court session will be held today and none Saturday morning and five children.

Judge McLucas announced at the adjournment last night that he will set 9 o'clock Monday morning as the next session.

until health suddenly failed. 6 out of 10 are affected, many without knowledge, for there are no warning signals.

6 out of 10 men and women are afflicted with kidney breakdown, many without knowledge for there are no warning symptoms. Yet if not checked, kidney ailment may develop into serious ills.

Extensive research by medical authority has brought to light this fact: that kidneys excrete 75% of waste matter from the system, much in too concentrated form. Excessive strain is thus placed on delicate kidney cells, and eventually they break down. Poisons which should be eliminated, are harbored and turned back into the system. It is here that more serious diseases originate.

In Puritas drinking water, doctors find the most effective combatant to this increasingly prevalent ailment. Puritas acts to dilute concentrated poisons, absorb and carry them off. Minerals found in ordinary water, which add further to congestion, are eliminated in Puritas. Thus worn kidneys have a chance to repair. Normal kidneys are constantly protected.

So, on eminent medical advice, thousands are drinking 6 glasses of Puritas daily. Through scientific distillation, all minerals and impurities are removed. Thus Puritas is the purest drink for young or old.

With your first drink of Puritas you will note its different taste, and each drink becomes more enjoyable. Thus Puritas gives you both health and taste, a happy combination you'll agree.

PLAYGROUNDS FACING CRISIS

Taxes Soon to Be Used For Maintenance

Revenue Needed For New Projects

Drilling for Oil on Venice Tract Considered

With prospects that within the next year all taxes set aside for Los Angeles playgrounds will be utilized for operation and maintenance, leaving nothing for capital improvements, the Playground and Recreation Commission has sent a communication to Mayor Porter urging that the Bureau of Budget and Efficiency make a survey and recommend to the City Council some plan for additional funds.

The new budget provides $49,396 for capital improvements, compared with $237,000 last year, and the commission already has received demands and petitions from various districts urging playground improvements totaling $650,000 as an immediate necessity.

MORE DEMANDS AHEAD

While there were thirty-seven playgrounds in operation a year ago there are now forty-one and the budget provides five more this year. Failure in the budget for the coming fiscal year provide $5200 for the improvement of the Oakwood Playground at Venice, $5900 for Barnsdall Playground, $5400 for the Lemon playground, $5150 for Silverlake, $600 for Reseda, $2750 for the [illegible] and a dressing room at Cabrillo Beach.

NO FUNDS CONSIDERED

Among the demands on the department for which no funds are available are four new community buildings, twenty-seven tennis courts, four new swimming pools and a $60,000 bathhouse at Cabrillo Beach.

Under the charter the department may levy 4 cents on every $100 of assessed valuation. This, the department points out, is the minimum allowed by the charter, with the provision that additional funds may be appropriated. The commission points out that more than 4 cents will have to be provided. The question of raising funds by drilling for oil on the playground department's property at the Venice beach is being considered.

ULLMAN DEFENDS ACTIONS AS VALENTINO EXECUTOR

Formal denial of mismanaging the estate of the late Rudolph Valentino, motion-picture actor, was made by S. George Ullman in an answer to a petition for his removal as executor, filed by Alberto Guglielmo and Marie G. Strada, brother and sister of the decedent.

In the answer Ullman asserts that Valentino was more than $300,000 in debt when he died, August 23, 1926, and that by exploiting two Valentino pictures he had accumulated $500,000 to be divided among the heirs.

Ullman said he arranged for a settlement with Natcha Rambova, the actor's wife, when she divorced him in Paris, and sold at auction Valentino's effects for $97,000, by skillful publicity, although they were worth only about $16,000.

Judge Stephens fixed the hearing on the petition for June 20.

SUIT FILED IN VALLEY LAND DEALS

Charges of Excessive Prices for Property Mark Taxpayer Action

Asserting that officials of the Water Board have agreed to pay too much for property in the towns of Independence, Bishop, Lone pine and Big Pine in furtherance of the water-expansion program recently indorsed at the polls by Los Angeles voters, Edwin F. Wehrle, an attorney, yesterday filed suit as a taxpayer to enjoin the board and city officials from purchasing 3100 parcels of land in the four Owens Valley cities.

Wehrle declares in his petition that the board had a special appraisal made in the valley, which valued property in the four towns at $4,521,736.58. Then, it is asserted, representatives of the bureau added 40 per cent to the value of the appraisals in Bishop, 30 per cent of the value in Big Pine, and 25 per cent in Independence. An increase in Big Pine was not noted. These combined increases added $1,174,597.42, making the total that it was agreed to pay $5,696,334.

These increases, Wehrle states, will augment his tax payments, although water officials have stated that the entire cost of the bond issue will be paid for out of water rates.

The petition further contends that neither the subject of water rights nor the availability of property was considered as an element fixing the valuation, but that the figures were arrived at "arbitrarily."

The petition was filed by the law firm of Anderson & Anderson. It will be presented as soon as possible to Superior Judge Doran, who will assign it for hearing in the injunction court presided over by Superior Judge Hanby.

Cole, pastor of the Central Christian Church of Glendale, will be features.

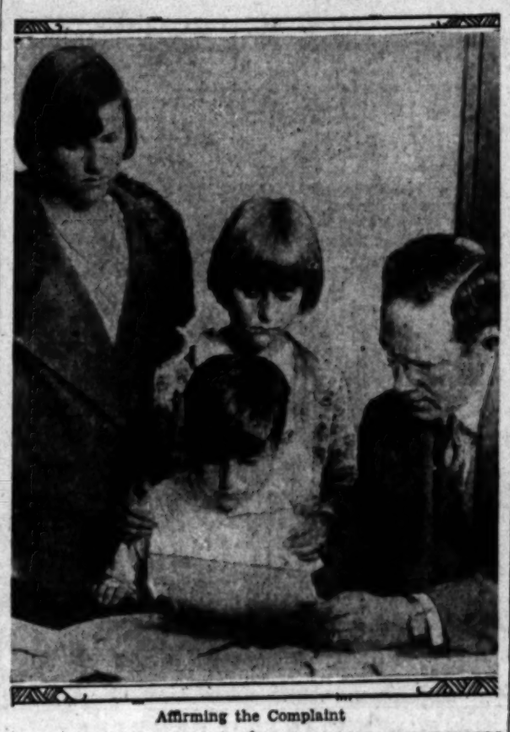
CRUELTY TO PET RELATED

Children Witnesses in Dog Poisoning



Affirming the Complaint

CHESTER JOHNSON of 412 North Orlando street lured dogs into his garage and poured ammonia down their throats to get rid of them, three children told City Prosecutor Nix yesterday. One dog, owned by Stanley Wilson of 754 North Alfred street, is blind and expected to die as a result of the treatment, a veterinary surgeon reported.

Wilson signed a complaint charging Johnson with cruelty to animals on which Municipal Judge Curtis issued a warrant for his arrest.

The children, Yvonne Walling, 13 years of age, of 416 North Orlando street; Betty Jane Diemer, 9, of 408 North Orlando, and her brother Robert, 6, told Nix they saw Johnson lure dogs into his garage last Sunday and administer the ammonia. Yvonne later released Wilson's dog, she said.

VIADUCT EXERCISES TODAY

Glendale-Hyperion Structure Will be Dedicated as Victory Memorial Under Legion Auspices

The Glendale-Hyperion Viaduct will be dedicated this morning as a World War Victory Memorial under the auspices of Griffith Park Post American Legion, with public and civic officials participating. Arrangements have been made to accommodate thousands of persons. The ceremony will take place on the downstream side of the Glendale Boulevard bypass before a grand stand erected for the purpose.

Councilman Randall, in whose district the viaduct is located, will be master of ceremonies and is scheduled to begin the program at 9:45 a.m. Meanwhile the gathering crowd is to be entertained by the Fire Department Band. After Randall's introduction post officials will raise the flag over the structure and Chaplain Alexander of the post will deliver an invocation. Post Commander Tower then will dedicate the bridge and the audience will sing "America" to the accompaniment of the band.

MAYOR TO SPEAK

Mayor Kimlin of Glendale will delivee the opening address. He will be followed by Secretary Mowder of the Central Business District and Commander McGonegal of Los Angeles County Interpost Legion Council as speakers. Merrill Butler, municipal bridge engineer who designed the viaduct, and his assistant, H. H. Winter, who supervised construction, will be introduced, after which the ceremony will end with a benediction by Commander Chatillaux of the Seventeenth District, Legion post.

The official name of the viaduct thereafter will be Victory Memorial. A bronze tablet exhibits the memorial inscription.

MULTIPLE STRUCTURE

The viaduct is a multiple structure caring for the Los Angeles River, three principal traffic arteries, Glendale Boulevard, Riverside Drive and Hyperion avenue, and also Waverly avenue. Its spans are of concrete arches. Its greatest length is 2700 feet. The city and county joined to bear the $1,607,748 expense with the city bearing all but slightly more than $600,00. It was begun in 1927 and opened to traffic in December, 1928. It carries most of the Los Angeles-Glendale vehicular traffic over the Los Angeles River.

Free parking on Breakfast Club grounds will be provided for attendants at the ceremony, it was announced.

BANDIT SUSPECT ADMITS CRIMES

Prisoner Recovering from Shot in Back

Police Report Confession of Twenty Burglaries

Record Said to Show Recent Release from Prison

Slowly recovering from a major operation at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital late yesterday afternoon, Virgil Lucas, 28 years of age, shot through the back earlier in the day when he sought to escape from two police officers, admitted he was responsible for five burglaries in the Hollywood division and fifteen more in the Wilshire district within the last few weeks, according to Captain of Detectives Miller.

Lucas, Miller stated, had broken into two drug stores and a grocery a few minutes before the time he was shot. He was running from the Newburn Drug Company at 1277 North Wilton street, Miller said, when Officers Mamley and Hammon saw him and ordered him to halt. Disregarding the command Lucas dropped a toy pistol behind a bread box on the sidewalk and ran behind a telephone pole. Both officers fired. One bullet struck the suspect in the back.

In the pockets of Lucas's coat officers found a bunch of keys taken from the drug store, and $15 in cash and three cigarette lighters taken from the Welton Pharmacy at 5700 Sunset Boulevard, they said. Checking his police record the detectives declared they found that Lucas was recently released from San Quentin penitentiary, where he had served five years for burglary.

LIGHTED AIRWAY APPROVED

Government Indorses Line from Here to Seligman; Night Flying to Kansas City Forecast

Government approval of the 250 miles of lighted airway between Los Angeles and Seligman, Ariz., which Western Air Express constructed at a cost of $26,000 to be turned over free to the Department of Commerce, has just been made by A. J. LaBaie, assistant chief engineer of the airways division of the Bureau of Lighthouses, it was announced last night by Jack Frye, director in charge of operations.

With the exception of about 150 miles between Seligman and Gallup it completes a lighted airway from Los Angeles to Kansas City. The Department of Commerce owns lights between Gallup and Albuquerque and another air company constructed lights between Albuquerque and Kansas City.

It is believed in air transport circles here that completion of the lighted route opens the way for night flying between Los Angeles and Kansas City, although official confirmation was not forthcoming. It is pointed out that all that is necessary is for the Department of Commerce to turn on its string of lights from Gallup to Albuquerque and to build four or five beacons between Seligman and Gallup.

Acceptance of the lighted airway will probably be made by the Department of Commerce soon after the end of the fiscal year, June 30, LaBaie said before leaving for Washington. Operation of the seven fifty-one-foot beacons with a 2,000,000 candle power rating will be assumed by the government. Fred C. Whiting, airways engineer of Western Air Express, estimated that it will cost $400 a month to keep the lights flashing over the expanse of desert and mountains.

"The new lighted airway branches off from the Los Angeles-Salt Lake City lighted air-mail route at Daggett," said Frye. "Beacons have been constructed at Lavic, Bagdad, Cadiz, Goffs, Gold Road, Kingman, Ariz., and Millers Ranch, Ariz. The lights do not follow the regular day air route of Western Air Express to Kansas City. The beacons are placed in the valleys about thirty-five miles in air line distance apart. This is to permit a plane to fly in the low valleys in case storms hide the mountain tops and prohibit flying at high altitudes."

Experiments conducted at night last week, while LaBaie and C. E. Wise, inspector of the airways division in charge of construction, were here, showed that the beacons turned on automatically fifteen minutes before sunset and turned off fifteen minutes after sunrise. Five of the beacons are powered with a gasoline generator and the other two are electrically powered.

PANTAGES RECOVERING AFTER HEART ATTACK

Alexander Pantages, awaiting result of an appeal in the County Jail on a conviction of a statutory offense against Eunice Pringle, 17 years of age, yesterday was recuperating from a severe heart attack suffered during the previous night, according to a report made by Dr. Benjamin Blank, jail physician. Pantages, Blank reported, was seized suddenly during the early morning hours and was given emergency treatment pending the physician's arrival.

HIGH TOWER OF STEEL PLANNED FOR THIS CITY

Erection of a steel tower 600 feet high, equipped with telescopes of a 200-mile range at the top and a revolving restaurant seating 250 patrons half way up the structure, is planned for Los Angeles, according to an announcement of the Los Angeles Tower Company yesterday. The company has received incorporation papers from the Secretary of State with permission to capitalize for $1,000,000.

The tower is to be the feature attraction of an amusement park of five acres, according to Henry Wacker, president, and John F. Wynne of the Wynne Investment Company, a director. It is to be patterned after the famous steel tower of Leipsig, Germany, but is to be almost three times its height.

The telescopes on top of the tower are designed to attract patrons who wish to view the territory surrounding Los Angeles, according to Mr. Wynne.

Two sites for the proposed "tower park" are under consideration, but officials of the company have requested that their locations be not made public until the actual purchase has been made.

Besides President Wacker and Mr. Wynne other incorporators of the company are Mrs. Bessie L. Terry, G. M. Perrin and Mrs. Ida Fischer, all of Los Angeles. Work on the unique structure is expected to start before July.

POLICE MAKE 'DOPE' HAUL, JAIL CHINESE

Dapper Salesman Suspect Caught in New Limousine With Drugs Hidden in Car

Morphine and cocaine valued at $5000 and $2000 worth of opium, destined, according to police, for distribution among a ring of narcotic peddlers in Southern California, were confiscated yesterday by Detective Lieutenants Kirkpatrick, Hames and Robinson of the police narcotic squad with the arrest of Soo Hoo Bing, 40 years of age, well-dressed "business man."

Bing, a quiet but dapper Chinese, was taken into custody on Ventura Boulevard at Fruitland avenue while en route here from San Francisco in a new limousine. The opium in copper cans, and morphine and cocaine in envelopes were concealed beneath the cushions of the car, the detectives said. The drugs, the detectives believe, are part of a shipment smuggled across the Embarcadero in San Francisco.

Doug to Travel Home Via Air

Douglas Fairbanks, who went to England to attend the championship golf tournaments, will return to Hollywood Sunday via the Western Air Express, it was announced yesterday. On his arrival at New York he made reservations for the air-and-rail journey home.

Fairbanks called off preparation for his next picture to make the trip to witness the matches as well as to confer with Eisenstein, noted Russian director. The latter is now in this country and may direct Fairbanks's next vehicle for United Artists.

TIME TO DUCK

Red light on dashboard warns of impending flat tire. Couldn't some such arrangement be rigged up for banquets and political meetings?

THE HURRY-UP BOYS

Eleven States now require automobile liability insurance. That helps, but a measure that would squelch the greed of the road hog would make driving more comfortable.

GONE HOLLYWOOD

Philadelphia opera fails. Eastern critics are worried over the future of grand opera. But the singers who come to Los Angeles for engagements are not joining in the weeping.

THE NEW FREEDOM

Denver women ditch their husbands for a week as a protest against arduous household routines. What else could one expect from the home of companionate marriage?

LABOR

There is no comparison between laboring conditions in the United States and in other parts of the world, says Robert Dollar. And yet some of the thoughtless decry the protective tariff.

SPINACH

Spectroscopy is said to show that spinach is a quick absorbent of ultra-violet rays. Thus do our enemies constantly receive reinforcements. Why can't they find something good about fried chicken or pie a la mode?

ECLIPSE

The cost of the eclipse in the loss of radiant energy footed up $11,000,000 a square mile as far south as La Jolla, Cal., according to the scientists of the Scripps Institute of Oceanography. We should have the proper officials look into this before we permit another eclipse.

BATTLE OF THE SEXES

Are women good managers? Mrs. McCormick spent $252,000 and won. Joe Grundy spent $292,000 and lost. But then Secretary Davis spent less than $5000 for a win. Perhaps another application of the bromide, mopey isn't everything.

SERVE HIS COUNTRY

Westinghouse is said to be inventing a padlock to put on plates so waiters cannot snatch them away before you have begun to dine. Now if he will devote his genius to discovering a golf cup that will always take the ball to its bosom on the first putt, he will save his country from embarrassing moments.

HOOVER'S SECOND VETO

The second veto of a Congressional enactment by President Hoover, like the first, corrects a tendency of Congress to run wild. There will be general approval, outside of the circles where the Spanish War pension bill, which the President has disapproved, was wanted for a political effect, of this veto and of the three principles which it sets up for a pension basis. To entitle a veteran to assistance from the United States Treasury, there should be a showing of sufficient service to constitute a claim of disablement and of need. Certainly for veterans of the Spanish War there need be no more liberal treatment than was given to veterans of the Civil War. For these, a minimum of ninety days' service has always been set. The bill just vetoed set the minimum at seventy days.

Also, it granted pensions to those disabled through vice, and set up no requirement that the pensioner should be in want, differing again from the Civil War standards for such legislation. Other legislation, the President pointed out, awards pensions to those disabled in line of duty, no matter what their length of service. Certainly there is no reason why a man whose disability had no connection with his service but arose from his own willful acts, and who does not need the money, should be placed upon the pension roll.

Liberal treatment of veterans is all very well, but such legislation as this under discussion plainly passes all bounds and the President's objections were well taken.

MEMORIAL DAY

"No more appropriate tribute can be paid our heroic dead than to stand in the presence of their resting places and pledge renewed effort that these sacrifices shall not be claimed again," says Herbert Hoover.

This whips the memorial spirit into shape. The real patriot does not worship the past at the expense of the present. He reveres the dead; but not just because they are dead. He thinks through to the spirit that brought them death and strives to reincarnate it in his life.

He spends no time threshing over old straw. He seeks to find the way of heroism in his great hour—nor yet for heroism; but for service. He does not prate of slavery now; the shackles are in rust. But he puts the same zeal in peace and prohibition that his forbears gave to abolition.

He does not fight windmills at long range. He does not criticise Congress, over which he has no control, and then show himself lax in voting in his own precinct. He does not shout a belated encore to the boys who went over the top in 1918 and then fail to go over the top at the zero hour in his own community for law enforcement. He does not just hurrah himself hoarse over the unknown soldier and then hang back from submerging himself for the good of the common cause confronting him.

He Hooverized in those heroic days; and he Hooverizes with the President today in fighting the politicians for parity or any other measure that reduces the possibilities of future wars. He does not yelp at the heels of the banished Kaiser and then forget to support American institutions.

He believed in rushing over to succor the women and children of Belgium and France; but he does not leave the women and children of his own land to the mercies of the Al Capones and their gangster bootleggers at home.

He supports the youngsters in their oratorical efforts upon the Constitution; but he does not turn the defense of that mighty instrument over wholly to the youth. Nor does he run down the spies of foreign governments to the death and allow the secret agents of vice to despoil his own.

He believes his country is God's country and conducts himself as its foremost citizen.

While patriotism is not his religion, he injects large quantities of his religion into it. He does not just roar approval of the millionaire who marched shoulder to shoulder with the other doughboys for $13 a month into the jaws of the Kaiser's cannon, and then refuse to become a public official in his city because he may suffer in salary. He does not condemn the slacker in time of world crisis and then dodge the draft of his fellow-citizens in time of peace.

He believes that law and religion are the fundamentals of good government.

He does not break petty laws any more than great ones. He is proud of his sons who answered the call of country to uphold the honor of mankind; but his patriotism does not ooze out in blaring over these completed causes. He takes up arms for the unfinished tasks. He grasps the torch flung to him in the great relay of truth and races on. He does not push others into the conflict and then fail himself to enlist in the imminent struggle. He does not roar around on the Fourth of July and then peter out in civic righteousness. He stands his ground as firmly on all sectors against graft as his boys stood at Chateau Thierry. They blunted the farthest thrust of the Kaiser's sword against their breasts and he does not save his bosom from the dagger of vice. It took grit to go over the top in the Argonne Forest and he grits his teeth for the fray today.

He is still too big to fight—save against oppression! Then he is too big not to fight!

He does all he can to mobilize the mind of the world for peace and seeks to disarm the nations—his own included, even to the point of sinking more warships than any other. But he does not cater to the extreme pacifist and snort, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace!

He is neither a sob sister nor a daredevil. He neither vaunts nor cringes. He is neither soft nor unforgiving. He is God's man and youth's hero!

FEEDING BACK PROFITS

The University of Michigan announces that one of its research laboratories has made an arrangement to recapture a part of the profits of its discoveries, to be used for further research. At first glance this looks like commercializing pure science. But such a result will not necessarily ensue; and there are some considerations which make an arrangement of this sort eminently desirable. There is little doubt that applied science, or industry, owes debts to pure science which have been very imperfectly liquidated.

A writer in the Atlantic Monthly cites one instance, in which a pharmaceutical house spent $9000 endowing a three-year fellowship in a laboratory with the result that a chemist gave them information about a new drug which netted a profit of $200,000. The drug house, the writer declares, terminated the fellowship at the end of the period—having found out all it wanted to know and feeling no obligation to contribute anything further. In defense of the drug house, it should be said, of course, that its contribution was a pure speculation and that it had no means of knowing that any profits whatever would result, but the discrepancy between the investment and the return does seem a large one.

Then there is the classic case of the Babcock milk tester, developed in the University of Wisconsin and given to the world without price. It has been worth billions to the dairy industry. If it had been patented, the royalties no doubt would have given the university an endowment that would have vastly increased its usefulness.

The danger of any such arrangement, of course, is that research will be diverted from its true end, the search for the new and interesting, for genuine additions to knowledge, to a search merely for what is profitable. The latter sort of search usually neither adds anything to knowledge nor has profitable results. Profit comes most frequently as a mere by-product. But a research laboratory which keeps this firmly in mind need not be ashamed of turning the by-product to its own use.

The LEE SIDE O' LA
By Lee Shippey

AND now we have the sequel to the quail story.

Last week we told how Minou, our cat, had pounced on a quail sitting on its nest in our back yard and after the tragedy we found thirteen warm eggs in the nest.

Henry, eldest of our twenty-mule-team quartet of boys, took the eggs to school. For in these degenerate days, when children aren't given half the lickings that they used to be given, the average small boy isn't a bird-nest robber as the average small boy was in our day, nor does he tie cans to the tails of stray dogs, or apply turpentine to them. Instead, modern-day schools are so trivial that they give children a great deal of nature study, teach them to be kind and considerate of wild life and a lot of foolish things like that.

Well, yesterday Henry came home jubilant. Four of the eggs had hatched and the class in nature study was eagerly anticipating more births.

It's no wonder the hookey-playing habit is out. School is so much more interesting nowadays.

Learned His Lesson

School picnics, by the way, have begun. We started up a trail on Mt. Wilson yesterday and found every bush and tree tagged with its name. A nature study class from Los Angeles had been picnicking there.

"It's all darned foolishness!" snorted a fat man who was lumbering up the trail, probably in an effort to reduce. "Nowadays the kids in school just play. They don't learn 'em the good, solid fundymentals like they did when I was a boy. What good's all this goin' to do 'em when they get to makin' a livin'?"

As he spoke he grasped a shrub with his perspiring hands and dragged it to him, to bring nearer the tag which told the name of the plant. But suddenly he let go with a yell. He'd read the name on the tag.

"Holy mackerel!" he wailed. "That's poison oak!"

It really doesn't seem much use to give the children nature study and have them label the plants along the trails, for the benefit of the public. For so many of the public haven't sense to profit by their efforts.

But after all that, that fat man looked anxiously at every tag he passed.

Lucky It Wasn't in Watts

We thought our quail story had 'em all beaten in showing how close to nature we live in this biggest city in the world, in so far as square mileage is concerned. But Miss Mae Newcomer, 2414 Echo Park avenue, tops our story. Miss Newcomer heard her Boston bulldog, Jeff, bark furiously and then get into a fight in her back yard and ran out to do what she could for the home team. She pried her dog away from something which lay on the ground, apparently dead. Miss Newcomer picked it up and took it into the house—and found she had a full-grown opossum. It had not been seriously damaged—it had been playing 'possum when she picked it up and after locking up Jeff she freed it.

A few nights later another opossum invaded the Newcomer yard and again Miss Newcomer had to save it from Jeff.

If anyone still doubts that this is the land of outdoors, let us remind you that wild coyotes still are heard yapping, now and then, in Griffith Park and that a tight fence had to be built at Botanic Garden to keep wild deer from destroying plants. And in the nearby suburb of Sierra Madre the other day a fawn was captured as it ambled down Carter avenue.

Ted Robinson of the Cleveland Plain Dealer makes merry over this headline from The Times, sent to him by G. W. E., a Clevelander now here:

Improvement of Sunset Ordered by City Council

"Out here," G. W. E. says, "the Council runs everything. The sunsets were not up to the California standard, and immediately the city fathers ordered improvement. There has been much dissatisfaction with this sun, anyhow, because it rises in the East."

On the contrary, our information leads us to believe that G. W. E. and many other Clevelanders come out here because of their dissatisfaction with the sun back there, which so often fails to rise at all.

A FLYING FORTRESS

Serious consideration is being given by Army officers to a proposal to build a superdirigible large enough to carry a great load of bombs, machine guns and even airplanes. To this mastodon of the air the designers have given the name of the flying fortress.

One wonders whether such a great airship would prove as effective in warfare as the more easily handled and sufficiently deadly airplane bomber. It would have to be rather heavily armored to withstand the attacks of antiaircraft guns. One can picture the bombers darting about it like a swarm of hornets doing it vital damage. It could hardly carry armor thick enough to make it invulnerable to their onslaughts.

During the World War the Germans made 208 Zeppelin attacks on London. The airships dropped 8776 bombs and though many persons were wounded, none was killed. The SL11 fell a burning mass during one of the first attacks and later several other dirigibles were brought down by antiaircraft gunners aided by powerful searchlights. All the really effective work in the air raids was done by the planes, which killed 1316 people.

The superiority of the bombers is thus plainly evident. As a Jules Verne idea the flying fortress is a picturesque and romantic one. But would such an unwieldy engine of war prove any more effective than the Zeps did over London?

A MEMORIAL DAY REFLECTION

Country Has Taken Up Arms on Average of Every Year and Half of National Existence—Aggregate Time Spent in Conflict Totals More Than 111 Years—First of Forgotten Strifes Occurred Year After Revolution—War With France Among Significant, But Generally Unobserved on National Memorial Day

BY MARY JANE MOORE

In how many wars has the United States engaged?

How often have the armed forces of the country been called into service since the Revolution?

On Memorial Day these questions are of timely interest, especially in view of the fact that the answers are not generally known even to many who pride themselves upon their knowledge of American history.

Every school child can name the six major wars of the United States—the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War and the World War—but how many realize that there have been more than 100 disturbances of greater or lesser importance which have demanded the use of the nation's armed forces?

Research at the War Department in Washington reveals some highly interesting data in this connection; data which indicate that the memorial services should be broadened to include the forgotten heroes of forgotten campaigns which, in their time, were of vital concern to the welfare of the nation.

According to a special War Department compilation, the armed forces of the country have been called into service every year and a half of our national existence and the total time the United States has spent in a state of war equals more than 111 years.

Let us recall the record of some of the campaigns which have been so nearly forgotten and which nevertheless lengthened the roll of American heroes and which in their time played significant parts in the development of the nation.

In 1782, the first disturbance other than the Revolution itself and following upon the Declaration of Independence, was the Wyoming Valley Insurrection, and in 1786 there occurred the famous Shay's Rebellion. During 1790 the Northwest Indian War occurred, the prelude to almost a century of conflict between the Indians and the Federal government. The notorious Whisky Insurrection occurred in 1791 and was promptly put down by Federal military.

The most important conflict—politically but not in point of lives lost—following the Revolution was the trouble which the United States had with France following the accomplishment of our independence. This culminated in war in 1798. France was molesting our vessels at sea, and after several affairs in which the American government made it plain to her erstwhile ally that she would tolerate none of it, the breach was healed.

The next year came a disturbance known as Fries Rebellion, and in 1801 the United States declared war on Tripoli, the result of piratical tactics—pursued for centuries before—by the Barbary corsairs. In this conflict America again was victorious.

In 1806 we find the Burr Conspiracy chronicled. This forms at once one of the most dastardly and yet romantic pages of American history. Aaron Burr had visions of a vast southwestern empire, with himself as chieftain or emperor. The Federal government thought otherwise and the plan went glimmering when American troops swung into action. The next year after the Burr trouble witnessed the celebrated Chesapeake Bay affair, followed in 1808 by the Lake Champlain affair. In 1811 the Northwest Indian War again cropped into the picture of national events and the year 1812, of course, saw the beginning of the war with Great Britain which, in some respects, was a second war of independence.

However, while fighting the British, the United States had internal troubles with the Indians. In 1812 Federal troops battled the Seminoles in Florida, in 1813 the Peoria Indians arose and in 1813 the Creeks demanded armed attention.

From this period until as late as 1890 the Federal government was almost constantly engaged in Indian fighting and many a brave man perished in these conflicts. This was the period of westward expansion, when the white man was pushing his way in ever-increasing numbers to the Golden Gate. Resentful of the intrusion upon the preserves which for ages had been their untrammeled stamping grounds, the Indians fought bitterly to stem the white tide. But their efforts were unavailing. However, the United States did not gain its end without grave sacrifices of many stalwart soldiers, and behind the glamour which fictionists have thrown upon the days of Indian fighting there lies a grim story of hardship, suffering and privation.

These years are characterized by the making and breaking of treaties; by massacres and horrible dangers; by great bravery and sordid treachery; by the passing of countless unremembered heroes who died in blazing the trail of empire.

In 1817 there occurred the second Seminole War and between 1819 and 1838 United States forces engaged the following tribes in battle: Yellowstone, Blackfeet, Sac, Fox, Cherokee and Pawnee. Abraham Lincoln served in the Blackhawk War of 1832 as a captain. The Third Seminole War took place in the year 1835, the Second Creek War in 1836, the Osage Indians were engaged in 1837, while the Heatherly Indian War was fought in 1838.

Two other affairs took place in 1838. One was the Mormon disturbance which necessitated the use of United States troops when the followers of Joseph Smith defied the Federal government, and the other took place on the New York-Canadian frontier.

There next followed a period of quietude and it was not until 1846 that things began to happen for the Army. In that year President Polk saw the need for war with Mexico. This was the most sanguinary engagement since 1812 and it resulted in substantial accretions to our territory.

Indian troubles again at this time became numerous and there was scarcely a year that did not witness some sort of expedition against a recalcitrant tribe. Here are some of them, running from 1848 to 1859: Cayuse War, Navajo, Comanche, Pitt River Expedition (California,) Yuma Expedition, Utah, Oregon and Washington Indians, Sioux, Snake, Yakima Expedition, Cheyenne, Florida War with the Seminoles, Gila Expedition, Mountain Meadow Massacre, Utah Expedition, Northern Indian Expedition, Puget Sound Expedition, Spokane Indian troubles, Wichita Expedition, Colorado River Expedition, Pecos Expedition, Antelope Hills Expedition, Bear River Expedition.

Reverting for a moment to the year 1856, we find that there then occurred the Kansas Border troubles, the "Bleeding Kansas" affair, which forms one of the darker pages of American history. It was a time of great sectional bitterness and when the admission of a State into the Union had far-reaching implications. Federal troops were used to quell a rancorous dispute which did not end without the shedding of blood.

In the year 1859 there occurred the San Juan "Imbroglio" and later in the same year there took place the dramatic John Brown Raid. Once again the Army took charge and succeeded in staving off further troubles. This raid by Brown, widely condemned in the North as well as in the South, nevertheless showed the temper of the times and was a colorful forerunner to the great war which was brewing between the States.

The year 1860 saw the sending out of the Pah Ute Expedition and of further troubles with the Comanche Indians as well as with the Kiowas. The Apaches gave trouble in 1861, the year that marked the outbreak of the Civil War. Federal troops engaged the Indians almost throughout the Civil War, among the tribes then demanding attention being the Sioux, Cheyenne and Northwestern. In 1862 there occurred the sanguinary Indian massacres in Minnesota.

Numerous Indian campaigns followed the close of the Civil War, but perhaps the most famous was the Big Horn Expedition of 1876, in which Gen. George A. Custer perished so valiantly with every one of his little detachment. In "Custer's last stand" we have one of the most colorful incidents in American history, one of the most superbly thrilling. Custer was a picturesque figure. He had a distinguished record in the Civil War and was deemed one of the greatest of Indian fighters.

Indian troubles were fewer after the Sioux campaigns of 1876, but the country did not hear the last of them until 1898, when the Chippewas arose. In 1898 American troops, of course, were busy in the Spanish War, and in 1899 there came the Philippine Insurrection. The Stars and Stripes were carried in the Boxer Uprising of 1900, in China, while 1912 saw the dispatching of an expedition to Nicaragua. In 1913 our presence was demanded in Haiti and Santo Domingo; in 1914 we put into Vera Cruz, Mex., and in 1916 Gen. John J. Pershing—he was "Black Jack" Pershing then—chased the bandit, Pancho Villa, from the border.

Hardly had the Mexican difficulties subsided when the United States was plunged into the maelstrom of the World War and before the armistice was signed this country had 4,500,000 men under arms.

Since then American troops once more have seen action in Nicaragua.

This, then, just about calls the roll of the difficulties which the United States has found necessary to answer by a call to arms. It is a call that never has gone unheeded and Memorial Day affords splendid opportunity for the national homage which is the just due of all the nation's defenders.

PEN POINTS

The alibi of the season: "I'm smart enough to graduate if I had tried."

Neighbora: Anybody not enough to hate you because your hateful dog.

Chivalry: A husband, who hates bridge letting inflick him because his wife to play.

American morality is too like a puffing doctor with forty-six waist advising how to diet.

The sad part of it is that the next generation is sure to cover that spinach isn't good for anybody.

Won't school kids rejoice when education consists in learning which button to push?

Wonderful civilization! A few thousand highly trained men. Millions who need just brains enough to run foolproof machines.

The secret of success? Ambition, ability and a look of giving admiration while the boss talks.

Americanism: Sitting at square tables, cards in hand, to give a demonstration of bad manners.

The more you study Germany the more you suspect that what the world needs is a good licking.

Nothing is perfect and when they find a man for the Supreme Court who pleases everybody he will still be a lawyer.

Ruling: India is like ruling the seas. You just stay on the surface and pray for luck when a storm threatens.

The dole need not be humiliating. Men don't object to being paid for idleness if you call them foremen.

As Al reads the Digest poll he must wonder where that vast majority was hiding out on election day.

Why not the same number of Senators for all States? Why punish a State because it has a big population?

Of course distant cities know more than people on the scene. Note how often the bleachers catch the ump in error.

Correct this sentence: "The girls were required to make their own graduation frocks," said the mother, "and I didn't help my daughter a bit."

There are persons who seem to have all the good fortune. Some widows are young, handsome and rich.

Philosophy is that quality that makes one thankful for a broken leg because it takes one's mind off an aching tooth.

Another way to shorten life is to drive thirty miles to a good fishing place and then see a "No fishing" sign on the property.

The great man runs his brilliant race, and dies at the appointed time; some other fellow takes his place before the death-bells cease their chime. The great man wondered as he wrought just what would happen when he died; he feared the town would be distraught, its business tangled up and tied. Oh, who could wear the great man's shoes, and who could wear the great man's hat? The great man often had the blues from thinking over things like that. But when he soared to realms afar, all done with life's enticing game, the village never knew a jar, and things moved onward just the same. For seven days, or eight, or nine, we talked about his high career; our eulogies were truly fine, and now and then we shed a tear. But time in its swift passage brings a strong desire for changes of themes, and soon we talked of other things, and framed up new and shining schemes. The great man sleeps and we go on and build new coops to house our hens, and paint the pens and mow the lawn, and write odes with our fountain pens. Alexander loops the loop; there's sorrow in the souls of men; but soon they would give three whoops to have the hero back again. A Caesar falls just when he plans to do big gorgeous things for Rome; he stricken down by also-rans is mortalized in Shakespome. The Roman heart then feels like lead, there's crape on every Roman door; but soon goes on, with Caesar dead, as it went six months before. The great men come and go, their stuff, and if they're wise they will not say the world will find the sledding rough when they are dead and filed away. The world moves on, severe or dour, no matter what the men do; it mourns their loss for an hour, then looks around for something new.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Not Today, Thank You!

Housewives, avoid the interesting man who comes to your door with land, real estate, mines, etc., to sell. He may seem very nice, and apparently highly recommended, but if his wares were really a bargain he would have an office in which to conduct his business and not have to peddle from door to door.

A COAT OF VARNISH

Were you ashamed of your trunk last vacation when you saw it in the hotel room? Remember it in time this year and give it a coat of clear varnish a week or so before going away. It will brighten it up and also make it waterproof.

The Season Is On

Old golf balls can be repainted and will be like new. They are too expensive not to renovate them for this season. First of all, they should be scrubbed perfectly clean. Then stick black-headed pins into them, attach strings to the pins and dip the balls in a can of golf paint. Hang up to thoroughly dry before using.

Cheap Pan Holders

The cuffs of hubby's discarded shirts, if basted together and bound around the edges with some of the material, make a holder for pans just the right size and thickness. They certainly prove a great saving on tea towels that are so handy to pick up and use in a hurry.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

'Tis strange, but true, as you'll agree,
The obvious is hard to see.
—Carol the Meadow Lark.

CAROL IS CLEVER

Carol the Meadow Lark is one of the feathered folk who believes that trees are simply to sit in once in a while. He and Mrs. Meadow Lark love the green meadows. They want to be out in the open. You'll never find them in the Green Forest. Once in a great while Carol will visit the Old Orchard, but he never stays there long. Once in a while he will visit the Old Pasture. He prefers, however, the green meadows.

He is rather a handsome fellow, is Carol the Meadow Lark. His yellow waistcoat, trimmed with black, is very handsome. And how he does love to sing, especially in the spring. There is no song more spring-like than that of Carol the Meadow Lark. Now, loving the green meadows as Carol and Mrs. Meadow Lark do, it is natural that they should build their nest there, and this is just what they do. They build it on the ground.

"It is the safest place," declared Carol to Peter Rabbit one time. "Yes, sir, it is the safest place if only you take care to hide it properly. Nests that are in trees and bushes can be found more easily, because those who are seeking them know just where to look. But just look across the green meadows, Peter Rabbit. My nest may be anywhere. How is anyone going to even guess where to look for it?"

"By watching you," replied Peter. "By watching you or Mrs. Meadow Lark."

Carol chuckled. "That is what I want people to do," replied Carol. "The more they watch me the less likely they are to find that nest."

So it was that, unknown to Danny Meadow Mouse, Carol was having a lot of fun leading Danny astray. He knew Danny well enough to know that Danny wouldn't be above stealing some of those eggs if he had a chance. So Carol was too clever to ever go directly to the nest or ever to fly directly from it. As a matter of fact, the place where Danny saw him drop down into the grass so often was in quite the opposite direction from where the nest was. Carol was simply misleading Danny and having a lot of fun doing it.

"That little scamp thinks he's smart," thought Carol. "Yes, sir, he thinks he's smart. He has been doing a lot of work for nothing. Perhaps it wasn't altogether for nothing, for I suppose he ate a lot of grass as he cut it. But he won't get any eggs; and he won't find out where my nest is."

"It is the safest place," declared Carol to Peter one time

Meanwhile, Mrs. Meadow Lark was comfortably sitting on five beautiful white eggs spotted with brown. She was very proud of those eggs. As she sat there and listened to Carol singing to her she was very happy. So far, no one had found that nest. Not once had she had to spring from it in fright. She knew nothing about Danny Meadow Mouse. Carol hadn't told her about him. He didn't want her to worry. Of course, he didn't think there was any cause to worry, but it might make Mrs. Meadow Lark anxious to know that someone was actually looking for her nest. So Carol continued to fool Danny Meadow Mouse and Danny continued to be fooled.

At last, however, Danny began to suspect that there was something wrong. He was beginning to grow weary of looking for something he couldn't find. He hadn't told Nanny Meadow Mouse about it. He had wanted to find that nest all himself. Then came a morning when on his way back Reddy Fox almost caught Danny. It was just pure good luck that enabled Danny to escape. Then and there he decided that he was no longer interested in the nest of Carol the Meadow Lark. Eggs would be nice, but they were not necessary.

WOMAN WINS JUDGMENT

A judgment for $5000 was awarded Miss Owendelyno Ashley against A. J. Pinney, salesman, yesterday for injuries received by her a year ago when his car, in which she was riding, collided with a street sprinkler driven by Frank Rivera. Rivera was also a defendant in the suit but was cleared of responsibility by the jury in the court of Superior Judge Anderson.

Circular Hemming

One woman found the circular skirts and flounces very difficult to hem until she hit upon the plan of running a gathered thread through the folded upper edge of the hem. This eased the fullness evenly into place, insuring a smooth finish.

Broken Glass

Wet a heavy rag and pat gently the broken glass on the floor. In this way the smallest slivers are picked up without any handling. Wrap the rag in paper and throw it into the ashes.

Clean Finger Nails

Never clean the fingernails with a sharp instrument, such as the blade of a knife or a file. It only roughens the inside of the nail and causes it to collect dirt more quickly. Use an orange stick or scrub out the nails with soap, water and a brush.

AS YOU COOK DICED CARROTS YOU CAN EMPHASIZE THEIR FLAVOR DELICIOUSLY BY ADDING dash of Sugar

Overcooked carrots are tasteless because their original sugar content has been lost by keeping them too long. By adding a dash of sugar at the same time that you add salt, you will restore the goodness. This rule applies to peas and tomatoes as well.

A dash of sugar will heighten the flavor of many familiar, nourishing foods. Use sugar this way in preparing children's meals. You will find the youngsters relishing cereal, stewed fruits and vegetables much more when these foods are flavored with sugar.

Sugar is nature's supreme seasoning. And when used in wholesome desserts, such as puddings and custards, it fills an important place in the diet of young and old. Just ask your doctor about this. Sugar promotes the necessary flow of gastric juices and makes digestion easy and more complete.

¶ The rare flavor of Hills Bros Coffee never varies because it is roasted a few pounds at a time by a continuous process

LUMPY gravy can be avoided by control in mixing. Smoothness in coffee flavor can be assured by roasting a little at a time.

Hills Bros.' continuous process—Controlled Roasting—produces a rare, uniform flavor because only a few pounds of coffee pass through the roasters at a time. No bulk-roasting process can develop such flavor.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

(Requests for recipes and information pertaining to the proper preparation and serving of foods will be answered in this column every Friday. Address all requests to A. L. Wyman, Laboratory Kitchen, 424 Arden avenue, Glendale.—Ed.)

CHEF WYMAN'S ANSWERS SUNSET ANGELFOOD CAKE

M. B. Mc., Los Angeles: Measure one cupful of egg whites and beat the whites to a froth, add gradually one teaspoonful of cream of tartar and beat until so stiff and dry they will stand alone, then add one cupful of sifted sugar, adding it a little at a time, and beating constantly, beat until the mixture will stand alone, add one teaspoonful of orange extract. Sift two-thirds of a cupful of flour with one-half a teaspoonful of salt and sift it four times. Fold the flour into the egg mixture, folding it in very thoroughly, so there is no dry flour. Divide the batter in half. Then divide one portion of the half again, placing in a separate bowl, color one with pink coloring and one with yellow. Place a spoonful of the white batter in an unoiled tube cake pan, then a spoonful of the pink, then white, then yellow, and so on until all the mixture is used. Place in a slow oven and when the cake begins to raise increase the heat a trifle and finish the baking.

COLD CHICKEN MOUSSE

Heat one cupful of chicken stock, or dissolve three chicken bouillion cubes in one cupful of hot water, dissolve, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of plain gelatine in the hot stock. Remove from the fire and add one-half cupful of cold water. Chop one cupful of cold chicken and one-third of a cupful of blanched almonds very fine, mix them well, place in a chopping bowl, and pound with a wooden masher until they are pounded to a paste, then add one chopped pimiento, and one medium-sized green pepper that has been chopped very fine, season with a fourth of a teaspoonful of paprika, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, a few grains of cayenne pepper, and one-half a teaspoonful of poultry seasoning. When the gelatine is cold, add the other ingredients and fold in one cupful of stiffly whipped cream, measured after it is whipped, place in a mold that has been rinsed in cold water, and chill until thoroughly hardened.

LEMON JELLY

Soften two tablespoonfuls of gelatine in one-half cupful of cold water, and thoroughly dissolve it in two cupfuls of boiling water, add one-fourth of a cupful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, and one-half cupful of lemon juice, and stir until the sugar has been dissolved. Place in the pan in your refrigerator and freeze; if you have the ordinary refrigerator, place in a long mold, cut in squares and serve with the chicken mousse.

BUNNIE CAKE

Separate four eggs, beat the yolks until light, and beat into them a little at a time one and one-half cupfuls of sugar. Sift two cupfuls of sifted flour, with two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt and sift three times, add the flour to the egg mixture alternately with one cupful of boiling water and one teaspoonful of lemon extract. Beat the whites of the eggs until stiff and dry and fold them into the mixture, place in an unoiled tube cake pan and bake in a slow oven. After the cake rises increase the heat to 350 deg. and finish baking. When baked invert the cake on a rack until it is free from the pan.

FROSTING

Sift four cupfuls of powdered sugar and add six tablespoonfuls of cream or rich milk, stirring it in a little at a time, add two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, and one-half teaspoonful of almond extract, spread this frosting over the cake and before the frosting hardens sprinkle the top with cocoanut which has been tinted green. Drain the cocoanut and spread it on waxed paper to dry, make marshmallow bunnies by pulling the marshmallow into the shape of a rabbit, using dots of melted chocolate for the eyes and mouth and bits of white paper cut into shapes for the ears.

SPANISH RICE

M. B. Mc., Los Angeles: Three small onions, one-third of a cupful of shortening, one-half cupful of uncooked rice, three cupfuls of canned tomatoes, three medium-sized green peppers, one teaspoonful of salt. Slice the onions and cook until tender, and slightly brown with melted shortening. Wash and dry the rice and add it to the pan, cook until the rice is brown, stirring constantly, then add the tomatoes, chopped green pepper and salt. Turn the mixture into a baking dish and bake until the rice is tender.

STRAWBERRY JAM

J. B. R., Pasadena: Two pounds of berries, three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, seven level cupfuls sugar, measure the sugar and spread out one-quarter of the berries in a single layer on a platter and gently press each berry to a thickness of about one-quarter of an inch with a potato masher. Put a layer of the pressed berries in a large sauce pan, cover with a layer of the sugar, alternate having the last layer of sugar, then add the lemon juice and allow to stand for at least five hours, place on the fire and bring quickly to a rolling boil, and stir constantly, before they come to a boil, and while boiling. Allow to boil hard for three minutes, skim and stir constantly for five minutes after removing from the fire. To cool slightly which prevents the fruit from floating, pour into sterilized jars, and seal at once.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

CHEESE AND POTATO SOUFFLE

Stir into four cupfuls of hot mashed potatoes the well-beaten yolks of four eggs, add one cupful of grated hard cheese, two teaspoonfuls of finely chopped parsley, two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Beat into this enough thin cream to make the mixture the consistency of a drop batter, about one-half a cupful, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Pour the mixture into a well-buttered baking dish, place in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven for about thirty minutes. Sift over the top one-half a cupful more of grated cheese, set back in the oven until the cheese is melted and serve.

DATE AND NUT BARS

Stone one pound of dates and cut them into quarters, mix with them one cupful of chopped nut meats. Sift one cupful of flour, with one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, add to the flour two-thirds of a cupful of sugar. Beat the yolks of three eggs, mix the flour, dates and nuts together, then add the beaten egg yolks. The mixture should be very thick, but if the yolks are not sufficient add a little milk. Lastly fold in the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, spread the mixture in a shallow oiled and floured tin, bake in a medium oven and cut into bars when the mixture is cool.

GRAPEFRUIT CHARLOTTE RUSSE

One teaspoonful of gelatine, one-fourth of a cupful of cold grape juice, one-half a cupful of sugar, one-half a cupful of hot grape-juice, one egg white, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, one-half of a cupful of whipping cream. Soften the gelatine in the cold grape juice and dissolve it in the hot grape juice. add the sugar and lemon juice and mix until the sugar is dissolved. Allow the mixture to become cold, beat the white of the egg until dry and gradually beat the grape mixture into it, continue the beating group of friends recently in the Wedgewood Room of the Town House including Mme. Rose Dirmann, Mrs. until it will hold its shape. Place the pan in a pan of cracked ice, while beating. Line glasses with lady fingers, pour the mixture into it, place in the ice box until ready to serve, decorate with the whipped cream.

Take a flank steak weighing from one and one-half to two pounds, and score it lightly on both sides. Take one-fourth of a cupful of flour, seasoned with half a teaspoonful of salt and a little paprika. Brown the steak in a hot saute pan in shortening until well browned on both sides, reduce the heat and add enough tomato juice to just cover the meat, over the top of the steak, add a layer of finely sliced onions, cover tightly and cook until the steak is tender, adding a little more of the tomato juice or some water if the liquid boils down. Turn the meat at least twice during the cooking process. Serve with a gravy poured over it.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, sizes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

BABY IS HIS OWN BEST BEDFELLOW

A common situation is that of baby sleeping with his mother and sometimes, we hate to say, with both parents. How any baby can possibly rest comfortably huddled between two adults covered with their smothering comforts and blankets, is past comprehension. Even the mothers admit that the baby awakens four or five times at night. One mother said she nursed the baby each time he cried, another said the father shook it until it went to sleep (what a peaceful sleep that would be after a fifteen-minute shaking,) and altogether things are far from ideal in either household.

Sometimes an older child cries at night and to soothe it the mother brings him into her bed, only to initiate a habit which becomes so fixed that the child refuses to sleep anywhere else.

BABY NEEDS OWN BED

No such habit could get started if the parents resolutely abstained from taking the child in their bed for any part of the night. There is no possible excuse for it. The baby should sleep in his own little bassinet or large clothes basket from the day of his birth. He can be made far more comfortable with bedding suited to his size and adjusted to his own particular needs. At first the bed need be nothing more elaborate than a stout pillow stuffed firmly into the bottom of the large square clothes basket and baby needs neither pillow nor springs. If he is far away from his mother he will not demand to be nursed every time he opens his eyes so the bad habit of waking repeatedly to be fed can never start.

The baby of nine months or one year needs a crib, for he is too large to sleep in a clothes basket comfortably. The crib should have high sides with narrow bars through which the baby can by no possible gymnastics thrust his head.

The disadvantages of sleeping with the parent are clear enough. There are no disadvantages whatever to sleeping alone. Baby can be kept just as warm or as cool as his comfort demands at any time of year. He is not disturbed each time his parents turn over; and his undisturbed sleep will teach him early in life to go most of the night without being fed, a habit he cannot learn too soon both for his own benefit and that of his mother.

In homes where beds are limited and bed space at a premium, it is far better for children to sleep in baskets or trundle beds which push under the large beds in daytime, or even on a mattress on the floor, than to share the bed of any adult.

FOX PLAYERS IN NEW ROLES

Warner Baxter Shifted to Film Melodrama

Harry Carey Slated to Star in "Great Meadow"

Eddie Quillan Chosen for "June Moon"

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Many notable productions, in addition to the extensive program already announced by Fox, will shortly be under way, we learned yesterday.

Warner Baxter, Fifi Dorsay, Marguerite Churchill and John Garrick are among other players to be featured.

Baxter is to be taken out for the time being at least of the dashing caballero class, deprived of his spurs, serape, his sombrero and his dialect, and placed in a good old howling mystery melodrama. This melodrama is nothing less than "The Spider," which for a couple of seasons kept mystery-play-broken New York in quivers and thrills, and which even yet is tickling the spines of various theater-goers throughout the country. Marguerite Churchill is to be costarred with Baxter in this, John Garrick will have a featured role and David Rollins will have the juvenile lead.

Fifi Dorsay likewise is to be taken out of the fluffy-ruffles flapper and spicy French roles, and is to appear in a farcical story, kidding feminism, and called "She Wears the Pants." John Garrick will play opposite her.

Marguerite Churchill, besides the productions already announced, will play the star role in "Network."

HARRY CAREY WILL PLAY DANIEL BOONE

Harry Carey seems destined to play a line of historical roles.

As everybody knows, "The Great Meadow," by Elizabeth Maddox Roberts, is the story of Daniel Boone.

This story is to be filmed by Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer, and when it goes into production, we learn that no less skillful and suitable an actor than Carey will be Daniel Boone.

So far no director is assigned, and as Carey is still busy in "Trader Horn," which W. S. Van Dyke is directing, it will be some time probably before the picture gets under way.

Eddie Quillan's Next

So numerous and varied are Eddie Quillan's talents that we hear Pathe is having a hard time finding a story that will properly show off all the young comedian's gifts.

However, if all goes as now expected, the young Pathe star will shortly be seen in a screen talking version of that charming comedy which is now gracing the stage at the Hollywood Playhouse.

There is a likelihood, we hear, that Quillan later may star in a talking version of "His Majesty Bunker Bean," by Harry Leon Wilson. This story has been filmed once, but I do not remember who starred in it. However, it was done on the stage here at the Morosco several seasons ago with Richard Dix starred.

Warner Players Arriving

Two noted New York actors, destined for leading roles in Warner Brothers' production of "Outward Bound," are arriving in Hollywood today to undertake their roles.

They are Leslie Howard, of "Berkeley Square" fame, and Dudley Digges of the New York Theater Guild.

Mary Lewis En Route

Mary Lewis, noted opera singer, who is to appear in a Pathe picture, is on the way to Hollywood. She will arrive Monday, according to an announcement made yesterday.

BANDIT HERO AGAIN ROLE FOR BAXTER

Ted Healy and Gang Seen on Stage, While Caballero Star Brightens Screen

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

A procession of Mexican-accented roles will doubtless come the way of Warner Baxter—or maybe they are ending. In any case he is enacting another caballero hero in the picture titled "The Arizona Kid" at Loew's State Theater. Needless to say, the character is a celluloid descendant of the bandit that he made filmfly historical when "In Old Arizona" showed, not to speak of the more ennobled hero of "Romance of the Rio Grande." The film feature is supplemented by a special stage offering in which Ted Healy and his gang roysteringly frolic.

Baxter is in the saddle again, shoots straight, fascinates the women, and sings a serenade, albeit it is an interrupted one. He has a $5000 reward on his head when the film starts, but he never commits any depredations while it is going on. You are asked to take it for granted that he is a bad man, though in the picture he obtains his gold honestly enough from an abandoned mine, and acts in behalf of the law by shooting another highwayman whom he describes as an amateur.

The Baxter picture is diverting enough. The plot is colorfully romantic almost to the comic opera extent, and the people who appear with the star compose an interesting group. What is more there is lots of western atmosphere, there are characters that supply humor generously along with the melodrama.

Especially delightful is the comedy of Soledad Jiminez, inevitably the boisterous housekeeper, whose Spanish, spoken at high speed, continues to be as enlivening as many another player's English. Mrs. Jiminez has already attracter interest in "The Cock-Eyed World," "In Old Arizona" and other pictures. She is, indeed, an institution in these borderline divertisements.

The placid beauty of Mona Maris entices in various scenes, though I prefer her in a role of aristocratic genre. Her effort to sing an old-type bar-room song lets down considerably from any of her previous efforts, and the role of a semivamp is less her forte than mysterious heroines. In a fisticuffs with another lady, however, she gained plenty of laughter.

It is suggested at the beginning of the picture that Carol Lombard is portraying the heroine, but the plot turns out otherwise. This serves to make her portrayal rather decidedly interesting, and is a pleasant twist to the story. Miss Lombard evidences personal attractiveness as her chief claim to approval.

Theodore Von Eltz does a villain competently, and such players as Arthur Stone, Hank Mann and Walter P. Lewis have effective moments. "The Arizona Kid" has been unusually well directed by Alfred Santell, and the story and dialogue are accredited to Ralph Block. It is an entertaining western, with Baxter doing familiar duty very creditably.

On the stage are Ted Healy and his Racketeers, taking falls galore and otherwise working zealously to divert their audience. Not everything that happens is as funny as it might be, and the act would benefit by greater brevity, but it is an amusing affair in the rough-and-ready slapstick manner.

Torn dress suits and the wild shocks of hair possessed by a trio of Healy's helpers, plus the rather coy ways of a fourth one, stir up the laughter as much as any lines in the act, though a number of those that Healy gets off are funny enough. Georgie Stoll and his band assist.

As a whole, this show is a good one, especially for the masculine audience.

TROPICAL ROMANCE ATTRACTS

Aileen Pringle and Grant Withers Play Chief Roles in Film at R.-K.-O.

What tropical heat does to men, women and romance is told in the R.-K.-O. Theater offering of this week, under the title, "Soldiers and Women." Aileen Pringle and Grant Withers play the leading roles.

The plot centers around what happens when a handful of officers and their wives are caged up in a small army post, with nothing much to do but slap mosquitos and suffer from the heat. One of the men falls in love with another man's wife; a wife falls in love with another man; there is a murder as a result, and after a good deal of running after false clews, the mystery is solved to the satisfaction of everyone—including the audience.

Additional mystery was created by the fact that a private soldier, who had been refused a leave in order to visit his wife, had threatened the murdered captain. On the night of the shooting, this private had escaped from the military prison. His subsequent surrender only served to involve another officer, whose chivalry kept him silent in the face of apparent guilt.

Comic relief was supplied by Emmett Corrigan, who punctuated the story with several good laughs in his part as an irascible and gruff general, who insisted on solving everything wrongly.

Director Edward Sloman gave an unnamed extra an opportunity to earn a hearty laugh from the audience, when he allowed him to fall asleep while fanning one of the officers, and to be reawakened efficiently a moment later.

Others in the cast are Helen Johnson, Walter McGrail, Blanche Friderici, Wade Boteler, William Colvin and Sam Nelson. The story was taken from a stage play by Paul Hervey Fox and George Tilton.

"Oklahoma" Bob Albright, and his company, including "Snowball," were the hit of the vaudeville showing, and received vociferous applause.

Another well-received act was entitled a "Foursome of Fun," with Harry Faber, Lew Lehr, Leta Wales and Nancy Belle. The other vaudeville numbers, which pleased, were Roy Zastro and Denny White in a revue, and Joe Termini.

DUNCANS APPLAUDED

Sisters Warmly Received in Songs and Comedy of Their Presentation at Philharmonic

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

They even travesty Mei Lan-Fang. In fact, the Duncan Sisters, Rosetta and Vivian, made their take-offs on the celebrated Chinese actor more or less a feature of their program given last evening, and to be repeated Saturday matinee, at Philharmonic Auditorium. Which proves, it would seem, that they are right up to the minute in their burlesquerie, as usual.

Not everything was modern on the Duncans' program, though they included various new numbers. It was their familiar songs, which, I believe, were regarded the most approvingly, and the comedy (fundamentally familiar,) which they always offer with new variations.

The Duncans are doing something new. Depending on their versatile ways, and their resourcefulness, they are presenting a program a la concert. There is no jazz band, but a rather clever pianist who assists them by the name of George Grandee.

The girls worked industriously to please their audience last evening, and they won the crowd, too. The applause betokened that constantly. At the very end a whole series of encore numbers were demanded, winding up with "Remembering."

The girls did a burlesque on "Strange Interlude," the Quartet from "Rigoletto," the "Floradora" sextet, turned into a duet, and their Spanish monkeyshines. They also presented several very clever numbers like the "Dance of the Paper Dolls," the college "Graduation Day," character songs and Negro spirituals. "Topsy and Eva" was not forgotten, either, for two excerpts were offered from that with the usual results uproarious.

I feel that the Duncan show needs a little polishing here and there to be fully satisfying as this sort of entertainment, but it is really a great lot of fun, and immensely spontaneous. Rosetta was as full of nonsense as she has ever been last evening, and, indeed, with the added freedom of doing what she pleased, more so.

The program the girls offered really had much of that intimate gayety that many of their impromptu shows around Hollywood have provided, and reveals that innate cleverness which they possess rather singularly. In fact, if you want to have a good time, and to laugh a lot, the Duncans, I doubt not, will, as always, furnish inspiration. For because of its humor and also because it is different in the manner of its presentation, I rather surmise that what they do will please the great majority.

Grandee pleased with his piano solos.

SPARKLE OF WILDE WIT APPEALING

English Troupe Offers "Importance of Being Earnest" at Mason

BY P. K. S.

Oscar Wilde, who invented wise-cracking over tea and crumpets, is a hardy survivor of his time. Last night his "The Importance of Being Earnest," a comedy first staged in 1895, was given by the English company tarrying on these far shores; and the sparkle of its lines, the imperishable appropriateness of its quips, once again revealed that art is long. There is nothing fusty about this play; its speeches may be longer, its semi-asides may be theatric, and its breakneck physical movement may be akin to that of a hansom cab, but its insight where human nature is involved will stand any test you can think of today. As performed confidently and spiritedly by Maurice Colbourne, Barry Jones and their harlequins at the Mason Operahouse, "The Importance of Being Earnest" holds out the promise of an evening well spent.

The predicament of two young-men-about-London, both loved by ladies who believe them to have been christened by the so-euphonious name of Ernest at birth, is fairly familiar to everyone. John Worthing, of course, calls himself Ernest Worthing when he is in the city; so that "the most dreadful scrapes" into which Ernest is constantly thrown will not reflect on the high moral character of brother John, who, as guardian of a very charming young lady, Cecily Cardew, must perforce mind his p's and q's. And Algernon Moncrieff, anxious for an excuse to meet this same charming young Cecily, drops out to her Hertfordshire home and introduces himself as brother Ernest.

The complications reach their most amusing pitch in the second act, which, following an explanatory first, is succeeded by a doubly ingenious third—doubly ingenious, because its plot is really told at the curtain of the second. Yet Wilde contrives to carry on, and there are chuckles aplenty until the finale.

Outstanding in the cast are Messrs. Jones and Colbourne, as the two confused gentlemen; but capable performances may be credited to the others—Constance Pelissier, Hilda Case, Phyllis Coghlan, Mona Glynne and the rest—as well. Costumes and settings—well, we must remember these were the, so to speak, gay nineties; though I noticed that last night carriages were referred to as cars, so you never can tell.

However, it is Wilde's word-play that counts. I dare say that he would have made an excellent gag man for the movies, had he not already proved an infinitely better one for the stage.

Alice White to Star in Film at Downtown

Alice White stars today at Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater in her latest picture, "Sweet Mama," which is called something different in the way of gangster-chorus girl pictures.

Earl Baldwin wrote the story, and Edward Cline directed the picture. The plot of "Sweet Mama" deals with a matching of wits between a chorus girl and an underworld chief. David Manners plays opposite Miss White. "Sweet Mama" is his second picture.

Kenneth Thomson, Rita Flynn, Lee Moran and others figure prominently in the cast of "Sweet Mama," and the background varies from small towns and railroad trains to large cities.

New Chevalier to Be Seen at United Artists

A new Maurice Chevalier will be seen and heard at the United Artists Theater in "The Big Pond," his latest film production, which starts today. He is seen as an American who reaches the heights of business and wins the heart of an American girl.

The noted French stage comedian is seen for the first time in a strictly American and modern story. "The Big Pond" is a comedy-drama, taken from the stage play of that name by George Middleton and A. E. Thomas.

Claudette Colbert, noted stage star, and more recently featured in several prominent pictures, is Chevalier's new leading lady. The film was directed by Hobart Henley.

New Play for Actress Named

Formal announcement that Maude Adams's return to the stage this fall would be in a new play by John Colton was made yesterday by the Erlanger offices of New York. The announcement confirmed an exclusive story already published in The Times to this effect.

The name of the Colton play, described as a comedy in three acts, is "That's the Way With Them." The production will be directed by John D. Williams, who arrived in Hollywood from New York by plane Wednesday to complete the contractual arrangements. The decision was reached yesterday to produce the play in or about New York the first week in October.

AIRINESS FEATURE OF NEW EFFORT

Engaging Story Enacted by Charles Rogers and Five Pretty Girls

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Uncovering a bright vein of musical comedy, the Paramount Theater yesterday screened a Charles (Buddy) Rogers starring effort called "Safety in Numbers." If only it had lived up to the high, nonsensical promise of its opening reels, it would have been that much better. As it is, audiences who found pleasure in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" will revel in the distant kinship displayed by the current offering, which has, besides at least one tuneful tidbit entitled "My Future Just Past," a leading lady of such surprising charm and attainments that one can only conjecture at the reason for her dilatory appearances up to now. I am speaking of Miss Kathryn Crawford.

Much of the spontaneous, engaging quality of "Safety in Numbers" developed, undoubtedly, in the fertile mind of George Marion, Jr., who, as well as having written the story with Percy Heath, also did the lyrics to Richard Whiting's melodies. Particularly in the slightly cracked essays of Bertram Shapiro, a cab driver with the bellicose line, "Wanna fight?" ever at tip of tongue, is the Marion touch discernible. This chap who was once a king-pin of title writers has still a sense of humor.

The picture tells of a youth, shortly to inherit $25,000,000, who is sent to the big city by his uncle for a liberal education. He becomes the willing "ward" of three wise Follies girls living in a sumptuously appointed apartment atop a skyscraper—these three having agreed to inculcate in him the manners of a worldling without injury to either his morals or his affections. The letter of their contract is broken, of course, when Buddy succumbs whole-heartedly to the brunette of the trio; a choice with which, as far as I am concerned, there can be no quarrel at all.

Unfortunately, the first breathless flush wears off; the film lags soon after Buddy's establishment as a ward, and there are frequent ventures into song—one with each damsel, indeed. Rogers's voice is passable, his sincerity being more potent than his ability to carry a tune. Miss Crawford's reprise of "My Future Just Past" is noteworthy. These numbers tend to reduce the momentum of the film play, an episode with Virginia Bruce, also, contributing nothing except footage to the whole. And the "pick-up" number—supposed "hot" spot of the film—leaves much to be desired.

However, "Safety in Numbers" is agreeable warm-weather fare, with Kathryn Crawford the warmest thing about it. Victor Schertzinger directed, and other performers are Roscoe Karns (as the cab driver,) Josephine Dunn and Carol Lombard, a decorative duo; Geneva Mitchell, Louise Beavers, Francis McDonald, Raoul Paoli and Richard Tucker.

Milton Charles doubles with Tom Waring in the presentation of several crooned pianologues as the living, breathing part of the program. Other screen subjects are a Grantland Rice Sportlight, a Tuxedo comedy, a song cartoon and Paramount News.

Film Comedy Brings Humor to Boulevard

Another contribution from the stage makes its way before the screen public. It is a Vincent Lawrence comedy titled by the author "In Love With Love," and changed by box-office to "Crazy That Way."

Of featherweight caliber is the confusion it brings to the Boulevard Theater this week, a confusion of mismated adolescence which in some of its situations provokes quite the amount of laughter intended. Hamilton MacFadden has directed this stage play into a picture that moves noticeably faster than most theater transcriptions.

The film's appeal will be appreciated by collegiate circles and by those tired business men who can still remember that they, too, were once boys. The story is laid in the midst of wealth, the home of a rich structural engineer. His daughter, who is Joan Bennett, keeps the home in a constant state of uproar as she tries to segregate her many beaus into one caller at a time. The two most persistent are Regis Toomey and Jason Robards, both of whom do battle till the death, so to speak.

Putting an unobtrusive foot within the danger area, Kenneth MacKenna visits the household to perfect the model of his bridge. Siding with first one hysterical suitor, then the other, he tries to make peace in the family and force some sort of solution to Miss Bennett's marriage problem. It is giving away no secret to divulge that in the earnestness of his endeavor, Mr. MacKenna finds himself the third aspirant to Joan's hand. His surprise is equaled only by that of the two young hopefuls when they discover their lady peaceful at last in MacKenna's arms.

The entire cast has attacked this series of entanglements with a praiseworthy spirit. They endow the farcial foolishness of it all with such surprising vitality that they carry their audience with them through each escapade. Miss Bennett and Mr. MacKenna lend a note of polish and distinction by the smoothness of their characterizations.

Robards and Toomey are likewise skillful in their portrayals and spare no effort in being wholehearted and thorough in their rather violent rivalry.

A Mack Sennett comedy dwells on the humorous eccentricities of golfers and also provides some enlightening shots by Walter Hagen and Leo Diegel. Lynn Cowan and his band harmonize upon the stage.

PARK FOUNDING TO BE OBSERVED

Public Program Arranged For Exposition Grounds

Tomorrow Fiftieth Year of Civic Enterprise

Those Who Aided Growth to Be Honor Guests

Celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the civic enterprise out of which has evolved Exposition Park and the gigantic Coliseum where will be given the Olympic Games of 1932, a gala public program with William M. Bowen, father of Exposition Park, presiding, will be given at the park tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

Gov. Young will speak at the program, preceding which, at 2 o'clock, a public reception will be held in his honor at the State Exposition Building. The Governor will be presented by Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California.

Introduction of former Govs. Pardee, Gillett, Stephens and Richardson, all of whom contributed in important ways to the development of Exposition Park, is planned as a major feature of the afternoon.

TREE TO BE PLANTED

Dr. Bruce Baxter will give an address on the "Sixth District's Relation to Education." Music will be provided by Harold Roberts's Trojan Band.

Honoring the memory of the first board of directors of the association, who met and elected officers and initiated the program by which the 160-acre tract now called Exposition Park became the possession of the people of Los Angeles, in their first meeting just fifty years ago to the day of the program, May 31, 1880, Gov. Young, assisted by Master William Bowen Chick, will plant and dedicate an oak tree at the close of the program. The tree to be set out has been grown from an acorn plucked by Mr. Bowen at the Cecil Rhodes estate near Capetown, South Africa, from a giant oak set out there nearly three centuries ago by the first colonists from the Netherlands.

BOARD TO BE HONORED

Since 1868 the grounds of Exposition Park have been the scene of public gatherings of Angelenos, who came to witness fairs and expositions of every kind, and the horse races for which the park became famous at an early date. In 1880 State aid was sought for the project by prominent Southland leaders of the period in the ambition of encouraging agricultural development and the breeding of blooded stock. As a result, in 1880, the Sixth District Agricultural Association was formed.

Men who contributed vitally to the making of Los Angeles comprised the first board of directors, whose memory and achievements are to be honored at Saturday's program. They were J. E. Hollenbeck, president, ex-Gov. J. G. Downey, J. W. Waters, O. W. Childs, Elwood Cooper and S. J. Barretto, all outstanding pioneer leaders.

"Agricultural Park," as the fair grounds were then known, was fraudulently diverted into private possession after the days of the first board. Largely to William M. Bowen, present chairman of the board of the Sixth District Agricultural Association, is due the credit for restoring the land to public ownership, and developing it into the Exposition Park of today.

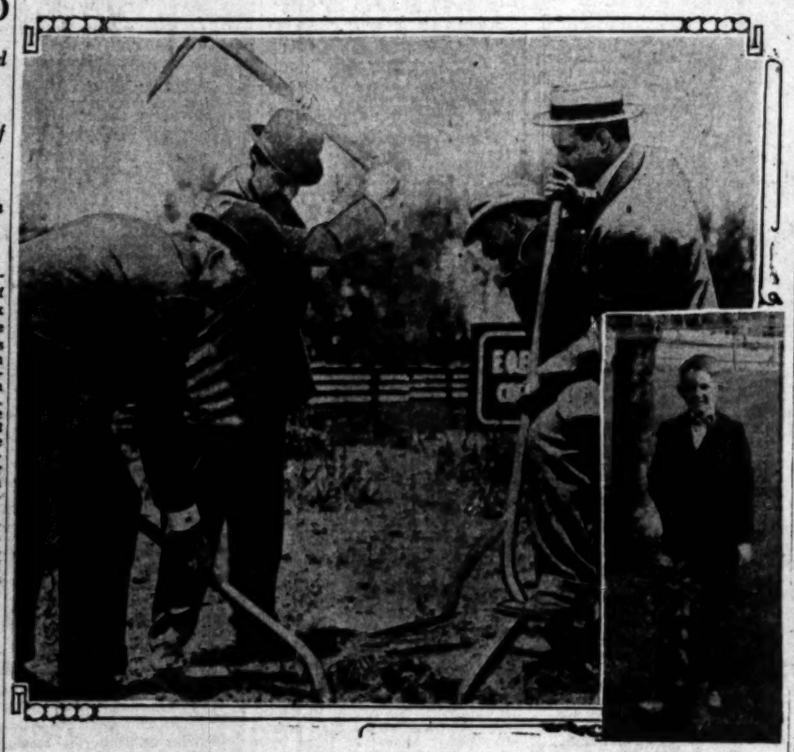
DETAILS IN BANK FUNDS CASE GIVEN

Broker Tells Story of Manipulations in Trial of Prichett and Grose

How funds of the First National Bank of Culver City were said to have been manipulated while Frank J. Prichett was cashier there during April, 1927, was related on the witness stand yesterday by R. H. Westfall, a mortgage broker, in the court of United States District Judge Cosgrave. Prichett and E. H. Grose have been on trial several days. Prichett is accused of misapplication of bank funds and Grose is accused with having aided and abetted him in his asserted manipulations, which are said by Asst. U. S. Atty. Layng to be in excess of $100,000.

Westfall pleaded guilty and is appearing as a government witness pending disposition of his own case. Grose, a jeweler, and Westfall are said to have aided Prichett in asserted misapplication of the bank funds, according to testimony by Westfall yesterday. It is expected that Westfall will finish his testimony tomorrow and that the case will be given to the jury by Monday or Tuesday.

Coliseum Grounds as They Looked Twenty Years Ago



An Old Tree and a New One

This picture was taken at Exposition Park, May 26, 1910, showing William Bowen, John Parkinson, Nathan Ellery and Fred Endstrom breaking ground for the first building at the park. The inset is of William Bowen Chick and the African oak he will plant tomorrow in memory of the first board of directors of the Sixth District Agricultural Association. The tree in the background was one planted by his grandfather.

Sheehan Tells Fox Delegates News Columns Supply Material for Many Pictures

Winfield R. Sheehan, vice-president and general manager of the Fox Film Corporation, yesterday made his first public address since the recent reorganization of the company, during a general discussion of the 1930-31 production program with 300 delegates to the annual sales convention at the Ambassador.

Sheehan, a former newspaper man, did not discuss any details of the reorganization but instead told of how the front pages of the newspapers of the world are one of the greatest sources of story material for motion pictures today.

MORE ORIGINALS

At the same time, he declared, producers are relying more and more upon original stories written especially for the screen. On the coming year's Fox program, he pointed out, twenty-one of the forty-eight feature productions are original stories written by members of the contract writing staff.

The front page of a newspaper, Sheehan asserted, is the drama of that day and was described by him as "a mirror of current record to which the motion-picture industry is more and more turning for inspiration for original screen stories."

"To be interesting," he said, "a story must contain elements with which the general public is familiar. It is not meant to merely glorify news items. Newspapers are full of romance, comedy and drama and supply many interesting adelights of character and psychology which can be worked into the structure of a screen play, and made more interesting to audiences because of touching the phases of life with which they are familiar."

NEWS DIGESTED

Sheehan declared a daily digest of the interesting and novel news items from the daily papers is made and copies supplied to all writers at the Fox studios, executives and directors. Often, he said, this digest has suggested story material for a popular film play.

Business sessions occupied the attention of the delegates yesterday. Sheehan will be their host tomorrow night at a dinner-dance at the Cafe de Paris at the Fox Movietone City.

VETERANS AT MISSION TO CONDUCT SERVICES

Veterans of four wars, who are living at the Midnight Mission, will conduct their own Memorial Day services from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. tonight at the mission, Fourth and Los Angeles streets. Among those registered at the mission are fourteen Spanish-American War veterans, two Union veterans and one Confederate veteran of the Civil War, three veterans of Indian campaigns and eighty World War service men. They are furnishing their own music and decorations. Ransell Colby, employment manager, who has charge of the services, announces that the public is invited.

HINES WILL ENTER PLEA TOMORROW

Film Comedian Facing Charge of Being Drunk in Automobile

Johnny Hines, motion-picture comedian, is scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Eagan at 10 a.m., tomorrow to enter his plea to a charge of being drunk in an automobile, on which he was arrested early yesterday at Third and Serrano streets. A woman companion arrested with him, Mrs. Pauline Holbrook, 24 years of age, of 1884 North Kingsley Drive, will enter her plea to a simple drunk charge at 2 p.m. Monday before Judge MacCoy in the women's division of Municipal Court. Both are at liberty on bail.

JOHNNY HINES

Hines and Mrs. Holbrook were taken in custody by Officer Wilson, who stated in his report that he found the film star assisting his companion into the machine after she had fallen to the street, and that both were under the influence of liquor. Pending their release on bail Hines was held at the City Jail and Mrs. Holbrook at the County Jail.

Both declared they were returning from a dinner party when the mishap occurred. Mrs. Holbrook admitted they had taken a cocktail, but denied either was drunk.

"You see, it was like this," she said. "I reached for the windshield and accidentally touched the door release—and out I went on my head."

DOCTORS TO AID INQUIRY ON HOSPITAL

County Institution Will be Surveyed by Men of National Reputation

An exhaustive inquiry into the administration of the General Hospital by physicians from three nationally known institutions is to be made within the next fortnight, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Shelley, in charge of the investigation, announced yesterday.

Meanwhile complaints continued to pour into the District Attorney's office from disgruntled former patients and their friends and relatives, who added to the charges of mismanagement and asserted neglect of patients at the General Hospital.

From the list of letters and personal statements already on file, it appears that more than a score of witnesses probably will be called to tell what they know about the hospital when the grand jury begins its investigation next Tuesday, Shelley stated.

DELEGATES TO GO EAST

Miss Lucy Ella Case and Mrs. Mary Rogers Miller, lip-reading teachers, are preparing to leave for New York to attend the eleventh annual conference of the American Federation of Organizations for the Hard-of-Hearing, to be held there June 16 to 19. Miss Case will leave Sunday and Mrs. Miller June 6. Mrs. Miller is president of the Los Angeles League for the Hard-of-Hearing.

MEMORIAL ON PROGRAM AT AIRPORT

Flyers to Drop Flowers in Services Connected With United's Opening

An aerial Memorial Day service, a short dedication and airplane races will mark the opening of United Airport, Burbank, today. The opening celebration will continue until Sunday night in order that the public and commercial and sport pilots in Southern California may visit the new airport and inspect its facilities.

Today's program starts at 11 a.m., when planes bearing members of the American Legion will scatter flowers over cemeteries in San Fernando Valley. At 1 p.m. members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Legion will conduct a short service in front of the airport administration building. Maj. F. C. Tillson, Commander of Burbank Post, No. 150, will read the "Silent Legion" and a salute will be fired. The Hollywood Legion Band, the Burbank and North Hollywood and the Beverly Hills drum-and-bugle corps will take part. The units will then march to the flagpole and dedicate a tablet marked "Dedicated as a Tribute to the Valor of the Air Heroes of the World War—Memorial Day, 1930." Thirty members of the G.A.R., several of whom had balloon service in the Civil War, will participate.

Races and exhibition flights will feature the program this afternoon. Boeing pursuit planes of the Ninety-fifth Pursuit Group, stationed at Rockwell Field, San Diego, will demonstrate war maneuvers. The Army Air Corps demonstration will also be given tomorrow and Sunday afternoons.

An endurance contest for model airplanes and a special ladies' airplane race are to be held tomorrow. Cups and cash prizes are to be awarded. Sunday will be "open-house" day with demonstration flights and exhibitions scheduled for the afternoon.

The American Legion will hold a dance this evening at the roof garden cafe of the airport administration building. The dance tomorrow night will be under auspices of the local chapter of the National Aeronautic Association with visiting pilots of the Army Air Corps as guests.

Officials Fete Police Veteran

Fire Chief Scott last night entertained Chief of Police Roy E. Steckel, former Police Commissioners Birnbaum and Webster, and other police officials at a dinner in honor of Capt. Charles F. Jackson, who will retire from the department Sunday, June 1, after twenty-six years of service.

Jackson was the founder of the police school-crossing plan and for many years served as deputy chief in charge of administration. He was given a diamond-studded badge as a token of the regard in which he is held by associates of the police and fire departments.

TWO DISBARMENTS UPHELD

Attorneys Richardson and Elconin Lose in Fight for Reinstatement Before Supreme Court

The State Supreme Court in San Francisco yesterday ordered the permanent disbarment of Attorneys Howell W. Richardson and Benjamin Elconin, sustaining charges of the State Bar that they conspired wrongfully to procure dismissal of a case and then appropriated $3000 cash bail involved in the same proceedings. The decision ends an eighteen months' fight for reinstatement by the accused pair.

Their disbarment was ordered by the State Bar in November, 1928, having grown out of the case of the so-called Lewis H. Allen bail-bond scandal. Allen, theft client, was a felon at liberty under $5000 cash bail. Charged with a statutary offence in a grand jury indictment, he jumped the bond and fled the city.

Some time later, it was charged, Richardson and Elconin went before Superior Judge Hollzer and represented to the court that Allen had been apprehended and was in an Illinois prison. They thereupon obtained not only a dismissal of the indictment but a refund of the hitherto forfeited bail, which, the State Bar charged, they divided between themselves.

Proceedings before the bar attracted wide attention, the court pointed out, because of "the creation of an atmosphere of public clamor, political intrigue and general corruption and dishonesty claimed to exist in the administration of criminal affairs in Los Angeles county."

After ruling on the board's recommendation, the court today said: "There is not the slightest evidence in the record that animosity or prejudice on the part of the board entered into the hearing, or that general conditions surrounding the conduct of criminal cases in Los Angeles courts influenced the results. From every consideration the hearing appears to have been fair and impartial, and in our opinion no showing has been made which would justify us in holding that the recommendation of the board is either erroneous or unlawful."

Richardson was at one time a deputy District Attorney under Dist.-Atty. Keyes.

CLEW ON TRAIN BANDIT SOUGHT

Santa Fe Railway Offers Reward of $1000

Marion Nixon Interviewed Again on Description

Method in Hold-up of Chief Studied by Detectives

One thousand dollars reward was posted yesterday for information leading to the arrest of the masked, armed bandit who held up passengers aboard the Chief, the Santa Fe's crack train, Wednesday night, as it pulled out of this city, robbing Marion Nixon, screen actress, of a $6500 diamond ring, and her husband and another passenger of $375 cash.

The reward was announced by General Manager W. K. Etter of the Santa Fe at an hour when Detective Captain Seager of the robbery squad reported that the police had absolutely no clew to the bandit's identity. Police of Los Angeles and Pasadena, Sheriff's deputies and railroad police of the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific joined in a hunt for clews upon which to start the search for the cool bandit who invaded a Pullman sleeper, robbed three passengers, and then dropped off the train at Mission Tower.

ACTRESS INTERVIEWED

Capt. Seager sent two detectives to interview Marion Nixon at her home, 601 North Maple Drive, Beverly Hills, in an effort to obtain a more complete description of the train robber than she was able to give Wednesday night, when she left the Chief at Pasadena. The screen actress had ridden to the Crown City with her husband, Edward Hillman, who was starting a trip to Chicago, and who continued even after the hold-up stripped him of all cash but $1.35.

Miss Nixon was unable to elaborate her description of the train robber given earlier. She repeated that the bandit masked his face with a bandana, and wore blue denim jumper and baggy overalls to conceal his clothes. He appeared to be youthful and of ruddy complexion, about six feet tall and 155 pounds in weight. He was armed with a .45-caliber automatic pistol.

DETECTIVES SEARCH

Capt. Seager yesterday detailed six detectives on angles of the investigation which he refused to reveal. Detectives made a systematic search of gun shops and clothing stores for any clew to the identity of a youthful purchaser of pistol and overalls. Railroad detectives of three systems made an independent search, and compared the methods of this lone bandit with those used in previous train robberies.

The original report on the hold-up was pronounced correct yesterday after a check-up. The train robber, disguised in railroad worker's overalls, boarded the Chief, unnoticed, as the train pulled out of Los Angeles station Wednesday evening. He first was noticed standing in the vestibule of the third compartment sleeper from the rear of the train.

BROKE INTO CAR

According to Santa Fe officials, the robber aimed his pistol at J. O. McDonald, porter of car No. 201, who slammed and locked the door in his face. Railroad officials add that the bandit, being locked out of the rear three cars, found his depredations confined to the car ahead, No. 202. Breaking into it, he forced entrance to the first compartment, Edward Hillman's, where Miss Nixon was bidding adieu to her husband.

At the point of his pistol the train bandit robbed Miss Nixon of her four-and-a-half carat engagement ring valued at $6500, and her diamond-incrusted wedding ring, valued at $1000. The latter ring he returned when she pleaded tearfully for it. The bandit took $400 from Hillman. Miss Nixon reported later that the robber missed $5000 in gems which she wore about her neck.

MRS. JOLSON FOILS ROBBER

After thrusting the Hillmans into their compartment, the robber tried to force entrance to the adjoining compartment, occupied by Ruby Keeler, actress wife of Al Jolson. She had seen a masked man approaching, and locked him out, saving more than $6500 in jewels and cash.

The bandit then invaded the compartment of Robert E. Lehman, a Detroit business man, and robbed him of $175 cash. Lehman's daughter and a girl friend in the next stateroom locked their door, and saved $5000 worth of jewels.

Menacing the passengers with his gun, the masked robber backed to the vestibule, and dropped from the train at Mission Tower. No trace of him was found there Wednesday night or yesterday. The train robbery was reported when the Chief reached Pasadena.

FIESTA NEARING CLOSE

Sunday night the Spanish-American War Veterans' benefit circus and fiesta now being held at Lincoln Park comes to a close. Tomorrow will be a gala day with the veterans, Fife and drum corps will be in attendance all day. Free acts have also been booked and a record crowd is looked for.

COUNTY HEALTH REGIME LAUDED

Visiting Hawaiian Official Praises System Here

Supervisor Says He Will Urge Copying Plan

Service and Low Cost at Centers Surprise Him

Praising highly the operation plan of the Los Angeles county health department, John H. Hughes, member of the Honolulu city and county Board of Supervisors, stated yesterday that he intends to recommend the adoption of the same method of administration on his return to Honolulu. Hughes, who is visiting Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, county health officer, is making a survey of the county health department.

The survey is being made in contemplation of the reorganization of the health program of the Hawaiian Islands, made necessary by the rapid growth of the Territory.

Hughes is giving considerable attention to the manner in which thirty-four incorporated cities in the county are afforded clinic, hospital and public health service through co-operation with the health department. Yesterday he was a visitor at the East Side Health Center in the Belvedere district.

"I find that the result of the contracts for service between different cities and the county is that these communities are provided with a high quality of service at a cost much lower than would be possible if each community endeavored independently to supply the service for itself," Hughes stated.

"If this plan were inaugurated in Honolulu, it would result in a great saving in money, greater efficiency through closer co-ordination, higher quality of work and removal of this service from the sphere of politics," Hughes said.

CLOSING OF BEACH DEAL ANNOUNCED

Jonathan Organization Gets New Frontage in $1,300,000 Transaction

Completion yesterday of a realty deal involving $1,300,000 was announced last night by W. P. Jeffries, president of the Jonathan Club, by which the Jonathan Beach Club Company, Ltd., acquires 514 feet of beach frontage in addition to the structure and furnishings of the former Edgewater Club at Pico Boulevard and Appian Way in Santa Monica, thus affording its membership exceptional beach bathing facilities and ample automobile parking accommodations. The deal was handled by Arthur E. McDevitt, realty broker and appraiser.

President Jeffries said that the Jonathan Beach Club will be opened to members only, the last week in June, and that shortly afterward a party will be given at the club for members and their friends.

Workmen are now remodeling the northeast portion of the structure. Passenger and freight elevators are being installed, as well as a new pumping plant, a new steam plant and a modern ventilating system.

PROJECT OPPOSED

The Councilman from the Fourteenth District yesterday introduced a resolution in the City Council asking for the abandonment of proceedings for the widening of North Avenue 64 between Meridian street and Pasadena avenue. It was referred to the Public Works Committee.

MAE MURRAY LOSES SUIT

Jury Decides Against Her in Action Over Realty Deal

Mae Murray, motion-picture actress, lost her $30,000 suit against two real-estate operators when a jury in Superior Judge Sproul's court found for the defendants after an hour's deliberation yesterday.

Miss Murray asserted that when she traded apartments with J. M. Ferguson and R. L. Eccles, a certain piece of property had been represented as worth $125,000, whereas, she said, it was worth only $43,000. Expert testimony was offered by both sides and all the principals took the stand.

BAUMGARDT LEARNS OF HIGH AWARD

Fellowship Appointment Given by Royal Society of Astronomers

Word of his appointment as a fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society has been received by Dr. Mars P. Baumgardt of 4423 Franklin avenue, from the headquarters of the society in London.

It is pointed out by friends that the fellowship usually is awarded only to astronomers who have reached threescore years and therefore, for this reason, is a signal honor, since Dr. Gaumgardt only recently passed his fortieth anniversary. He is the son of Dr. B. R. Baumgardt, also a fellow of the society and a lecturer of international reputation on astronomical topic. The elder Baumgardt was elected to fellowship about two years ago. Both reside in Los Angeles.

The society has approximately seventy members in the United States.

Court Leaves 'Arizona Kid' Without Title

A temporary injunction, denying the right of the Fox Film Corporation to use of the title "The Arizona Kid," was granted yesterday by Superior Judge Doran. The film, starring Warner Baxter, had opened its Los Angeles run only a few hours before at Loew's State Theater.

The court order grew out of a suit filed by J. Charles Davis, independent producer, charging infringement of copyright. Davis, represented by Attorney William Bronsten, asserted that he established prior rights to the title in 1929, when he produced a picture starring Art Acord, under the identical name. After listening to arguments, the court announced he would issue the order, provided Davis posted a bond of $5000. This was done late yesterday evening.

At the Fox studios it was stated that official notice of the injunction had not been received and officials had nothing to say until such notice has been served.

At Loew's State Theater the management pointed out that the playhouse is not involved in the dispute. There is no indication that the film will be withdrawn.

PLANES TO DIVE ON CITY FROM FIVE MILES IN AIR

Out of the skies from an altitude never before attempted for an aerial attack—30,000 feet, so high that they will be neither seen nor heard from the ground—pursuit planes of the Army's Ninety-fifth Pursuit Squadron from Rockwell Field, San Diego, will dive on Los Angeles the morning of June 7, next.

They will shoot earthward at nearly 300 miles an hour to carry out part of a day of war maneuvers planned by the Army for the Seventh Bombardment Group—made up of pursuit craft and giant twin-motored bombers.

The bombers will approach the City Hall, headquarters of a theoretical enemy, at an altitude of 15,000 feet. Their protective screen of pursuit planes will dive down a few minutes in advance to clear the way for the heavier and slower craft and to protect them while they simulate a bombing attack.

Pilots of the pursuit planes will be dressed in fifty pounds of clothing to withstand the temperature of 40-deg. below zero they will encounter at the five-mile altitude mark. The San Diego squadron is the only one in the country that has carried on group maneuvers at this height.

Following the metropolitan demonstration the army pilots will join in an aerial review over Los Angeles Municipal Airport at opening ceremonies there. An air description of the mimic attack will be broadcast from an army plane and released over radio KHJ.

U.S.C. HAS FIRST JUBILEE EVE

Literary Societies' Annual Program

Semicentennial Fete Officially Sunday

Many Educators Here Next Week

While the annual joint program of the literary societies of the University of Southern California, presented at the Bovard Auditorium last night, and two other commencement events are scheduled for tomorrow, the official opening of the semicentennial and commencement week ceremonies begin with the baccalaureate services in the Shrine Auditorium today at 4 p.m.

The feature of the program last night, which was given by the Athena and Aristotelian literary societies and two literary clubs, Clionian and Comita, was the reading of selections from the "Anthology of Verse," which has just been published by the university. Dr. Harwell D. Hunt, dean of the graduate school, presided, and announced as the first of the semicentennial events.

The importance of this event as a jubilee has been recognized throughout the educational world. Delegates from schools of higher learning are coming from every State in the Union.

More than 500 leaders in civic and educational life in Los Angeles will serve as a committee working with Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Southern California, and the faculty in making next week a memorable one in the history of the institution.

An elaborate program has been arranged which will include the dedication of new buildings costing more than $1,565,000. The Ella Wintersmith Mudd Memorial Hall of Philosophy, Bridge Hall, a memorial to Dr. Norman Bridge, Physical Education Building and the Hall of Sciences are the ones which will be formally accepted by the university next Thursday and Friday.

JONES AND VOIGT SURVIVE IN BRITISH AMATEUR

Herman Pillette Blanks Seraphs, 3 to 0

MISSION REDS THUMP ANGELS

Sensational Catch by Boone Ruins Cherub Hopes

Leliveltians Get But Four Hits Off Red Hurler

Johnny Monroe Swats Homer Off Ballou in First

BY BOB RAY

Herman Pillette, of the apple-knocking Pillettes from Southern Oregon, made the Angels say "uncle" out at Wrigley Field in yesterday's daily diamond doings. Herman let the Seraphs down with four hits to turn in a 3-to-0 Mission victory and give the Reds a two-to-one bulge in the series.

HERMAN PILLETTE

Wednesday Ted Pillette, younger brother of Herman, acted as relief hurler and got credit for the Mission win over the Angels, so that makes two straight victories for the pitching Pillette family. Skipper Jack Lelivelt probably feels thankful that Red Killefer hasn't any more Pillette boys to pitch against the Angels in today's Memorial Day double-header.

Big Herman yesterday pitched a faultless brand of ball, his cross-fire delivery keeping the Angels well in check except on one occasion. Pillette experienced his only uneasiness in the sixth when, after two were out, Sigafoos and Moore rammed out successive singles to perch themselves on second and third. It looked mighty bad for Herman when Carl Dittmar followed with a towering clout that looked as though it might land in the right-field bleachers. Ike Boone got his 200 odd pounds in action and started racing back for the wall. Just before he reached the screen Ike stuck out his gloved hand to spear the ball for a spectacular catch that ruined the Seraphs' hopes of breaking into the run column.

Only on one other occasion were the Angels able to get a man past first and that was in the ninth, when Sigafoos led off with a double. He took third on Moore's out, but Pillette disposed of Dittmar and Schulmerich to preserve his shutout triumph.

BALLOU HURLS WELL

Win Ballou pitched a fancy brand of ball for the home guards, but he was just up against too much opposition yesterday. The Reds touched Ballou's benders for eight hits and managed to get them where they did the most good. Parker batted for Ballou in the eighth and Berly Horne blanked the Reds in the ninth, thanks to a sensational catch by Schulmerich of Burns's line drive that was turned into a double play.

Only two Angels, Sigafoos and Johnny Moore, were able to solve Pillette's delivery. Each collected two rousing hits, Siggy making one good for two bases.

The Missions started off with a run in the first inning when Johnny Monroe blasted one of

Star Pitchers Give 39 Hits in First Two Games

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29. (Exclusive)—The Seals pounded Hollerson and Hulvey for twenty-one hits today and beat Hollywood, 16 to 0, in the second game of their series. Last Tuesday the Seals made eighteen hits and scored only six runs and lost the game. The Seals are fattening their batting averages at the expense of the Hollywood pitchers, for thirty-nine hits in two games helps.

JOHN MILJUS.

Hollerson usually is effective here, but the Seals got after him in the first inning when five hits and two errors by Dud Lee gave them four runs. As John Miljus pitched shut-out ball, the Seals were never in danger after the first round.

Crosetti and Baker were easy outs in the first inning, but Donovan slashed a double to left and Wingo walked. Sheely hit a lazy fly against the right-field fence to score Donovan and put Wingo on third. Sulik singled to score Wingo and then Jim Caveney batted in two runs with a double. Gaston was safe on Lee's error and Caveney scored.

The Seals got after Hollerson again in the third when Sheely and Miljus hit home runs and Caveney handwicked a single in between. Hank Hulvey began pitching in the fourth and he got along all right until the eighth, when the Seals made nine hits in sucession and shoved over seven runs.

LOU McEVOY INJURED IN BATTING PRACTICE

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—Lou McEvoy, young Yankee pitcher, who played last year with Oakland, Cal., was injured today during batting practice before the Yankee-Washington game when he was struck on the left ankle by a batted ball. It was feared he might have suffered a fracture of an ankle bone. McEvoy was pitching and Reese drove a ball back at him so hard that it knocked him off his feet.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) May 29. (AP)—Night baseball will be inaugurated by the Indianapolis American Association team on Saturday, June 7, W. E. Clauer, club secretary, said today. St. Paul will start a series here on that date. The lighting equipment is being installed and will be ready early next week.

AUTO CLASSIC ON TAP

Thirty-eight Drivers, Largest Field Ever Entered in Indianapolis Race, Clash Today

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29. (AP)—Men who dare death that may come with the snapping of a cotter pin again draw attention of the world's sportsmen and sportswomen to the Indianapolis tomorrow.

As reckless, if not as skillful, a band of drivers as ever donned helmet and goggles will start in the eighteenth renewal of the international classic over the weather - beaten, bumpy brick course at 10 o'clock (Central standard time,) tomorrow morning.

PETER DE PAOLO

Thirty - eight drivers — the largest field since the first 500-mile race in 1911 — will face the starter, thinking not of the tragedies of other races, but of the $115,000 prize money and of the fame which goes to the winner.

Numerous elements have been injected into tomorrow's race which, in the opinion of officials, will make it the most thrilling and interesting of any held in years.

The riding mechanic, who made drama in the early races and then was discarded, will be back, cramped into a narrow niche beside the driver in whose hands rests his safety. His share of the winnings, incidentally, will be between 5 and 10 per cent, but of that he cares little, putting himself in the position of a student driver, who some day will be handling his own mount.

STOCK CARS BACK

Stock and near-stock cars will be back, their return to the hazardous sport being made possible by raising the piston displacement of motors from 91 1-2 to a maximum of 330 cubic inches.

Superchargers—those delicate but powerful "blowers," which gave the cars speed in the sharp turns—have been outlawed, and the boys who set the pace will have to tramp hard on the accelerators and take a chance on the outcome.

Carburetion will have to be better than ever before, the drivers have said, because only two carburetors are permitted to a motor regardless of the number of cylinders.

Tires, which caused little concern because of the light weight of the cars of the last few years, will be another cause for worry. Added weight to the speedsters, along with the necessity of pounding into the turns, will subject the rubber to great strain.

Sixteen cylinder motors will be given their first trial in American racing. Louie Meyer, South Gate, Calif., champion

EIGHT OUT OF NINE WINS FOR WEST IN I.C.4-AS

Western universities have won the I.C.4-A. championships, which are to be held today and tomorrow in Boston, eight times out of the last nine years, meet figures reveal.

Winners of the championship since 1921 are as follows: California in 1921, 1922 and 1923; Yale in 1924; University of Southern California in 1925 and 1926, and Stanford in 1927, 1928 and 1929.

The letters in I.C.4-A. stand for Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America, a name rarely used because of its length. The organization staged its first contest in 1876 and the present meet will be its fifty-fourth.

FAIR ATHLETES WIN ARGUMENT

Women's Events Included in Olympic Games

Hulbert's Oratory Overrules Rival Objections

Nations Limited to Three Entries in Each Event

BERLIN, May 29. (AP)—Women will be left on the Los Angeles Olympics, as at Amsterdam, including track, field and fencing, as a consequence of today's rejection of the Baillet-Latour proposal to admit them only in gymnastics, swimming, tennis and skating.

WILLIAM MAY GARLAND

The vote by a show of hands, after heated debate in which Murray Hulbert of New York led, was so overwhelming that Baillet himself threw up his hands good-naturedly and requested that he be recorded in favor of the rejection of his own proposal.

The Olympic congress further decided on sixteen days' duration for the Los Angeles games, including three Sundays.

The Americans met defeat on one important point when a proposal to limit entries in each track-and-field event to three per nation was adopted by a vote of 61 to 38, thereby overruling the recommendation of the program committee that the rules permitting four entries be retained. The reduction to three was proposed by Count De Baillet-Latour, president of the International Olympic Committee, and opposed by virtually all of the American delegates.

SURE OF SUCCESS

With the conclusion of the congress, the American delegation feels that the 1932 Los Angeles Olympics are sure of success.

"I naturally should have preferred four entries per nation," said William May Garland of Los Angeles, president of the organizing committee, "but I bow to the majority's will.

"We were tremendously pleased at the reception received here, especially at the definite assurances of an excellent European representation."

"Limiting us to three entries shows how the small nations which are entering the Olympics in greater and greater numbers can dictate to the big nations," remarked Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the A.A.U.

The only American delegate who sided with the majority and voted for three track and field entries instead of four was Dr. Godfrey Dewey of Lake Placid, N. Y., president of the committee in charge of the third Olympic winter sports to be held at Lake Placid.

Defeat of the International Football Federation on such proposals as "broken time"—the payment of Olympic athletes for time lost from their jobs while competing—led to the resignation of the Argentinian delegate, who felt the congress had virtually barred the soccer organization from the Los Angeles games.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS

The pleas of Murray Hulbert, former president of the A.A.U; Gustavus T. Kirby of New York and J. S. Edstrom of Sweden yesterday that no attempt be made to legislate in detail concerning the right of firms employing Olympic athletes to grant them leave of absence with salary paid prevailed today. By a vote of 69 to 12, the matter was referred to the congress.

BOBBY BEATS JOHNSTON, 1 UP, IN STIRRING MATCH

Von Elm, Ouimet Pass from Picture Before Sturdy British Golfers; Atlantan Nears Title

BY FRANK H. KING
Associated Press Writer

ST. ANDREWS (Scotland) May 29. (AP)—In a grim eighteen-hole all-American golf battle, between the open and amateur champions of the United States Bobby Jones succeeded in beating off a great rally by Jimmy Johnston to win at the last hole and remain in the hunt for the British amateur championship. Jones halved the home hole to win from Johnston, 1 up.

George Voigt, who like Jones won two matches today, is the only other Walker Cup player from the United States to enter the last eight of the 270 competitors who started the championship play Monday.

BOBBY JONES

George Von Elm and Francis Ouimet were beaten in the morning's play, Von Elm in an upset, which was one of the sensations of the day. The Hon. Michael Scott, 52-year-old player, member of a famous Northumberland golfing family, got ahead of the former American champion and was never caught although the Detroiter chased him to the twentieth hole.

Ouimet was a victim of a sturdier foe, Lister Hartley, who won another match in the afternoon and remains in the running.

Douglas Grant, another quarter-finalist, is a Californian, but he has lived long in London.

VOIGT VS. JONES

If Jones and Voigt win their morning matches tomorrow they will meet in the semifinals in the afternoon. Voigt today defeated William Campbell, 4 and 2, in the fifth round, and W. L. Hope, 2 up in the sixth. Jones's victories today were over G. O. Watt, 7 and 6, and Johnston.

Grant, too, scored two victories, the first over Kenneth Grieg and the second over Scott, conqueror of Von Elm. Grant and Scott are veterans and after their strenuous morning matches these two introduced a novel interval in the championship golf this afternoon when their match was delayed by the surging gallery following Jones and Johnston. They stretched out on the grass near the seventh tee and went to sleep.

Golf gossip in St. Andrews tonight still centers on Jones's chances of winning the title he covets most. He has had a tough fight so far and he faces more stiff opposition tomorrow. Eric Fiddian, boys' champion three years ago, is regarded as one of the best of the younger crop of British golfers.

If the open champion of America defeats the youngster, he has Voigt to face, and the New Yorker, with his execution of run-up shots, so essential at St. Andrews, has won hosts of admirers among Scottish critics. His stock went up today when he defeated Hope, a great match player, after losing the first three holes. Voigt, however, was not dismayed at his temporary disadvantage and shot three birdies in succession to even matters.

Jones played effortless golf this morning, but this afternoon, as was the case yesterday, he struggled for his figures, particularly on the homeward route. When Jones went up on Johnston with only five holes remaining, the gallery said: "Nobody can give Jones a four-hole lead and have a chance to win," but Jimmy gave Bobby the battle of his life and brought the match all the way home.

JOHNSTON BRILLIANT

Johnston's birdie at the seventeenth when Jones was dormie represented a bold play at one of the most dangerous holes. The gallery following the battle of American champions was only a bit smaller than the great crowd following the other duel of title holders yesterday when Jones and Tolley fought.

Bobby took an early lead by winning the second hole but the next five were halved in fours before

LENHART WINS, BUT LOSES

Seattle Battler Hands Doman Licking But Latter Given Decision by Billy Burke

Denny Lenhardt handed Vigo Doman a sound licking in the ten-round main event at Hollywood last night, and then stood amazed when Referee Billy Burke handed the latter the decision. The verdict, said to be one of the worst ever given in a local ring, almost incited a riot, the crowd hurling programs, papers and everything else available into the ring. ✦additional action here.

Four of the ten rounds—the first, fourth, seventh and tenth—were even. Every other round, six of them, went to Lenhart, who easily outboxed his slugging rival, pouring over left hooks to good advantage. In the sixth he rocked Doman badly with a series of rights to the jaw and had him in a bad way.

VIGO DOMAN

Doman, a heavy puncher, was no match for the clever boxer from Seattle, who was master of the situation throughout. Lenhart made a very pleasing impression with his clever tactics and doubtless will see

Major league baseball scouts in search of catchers, would have done well to have been at the ringside for the semi-wind-up. Joe Bitto stopped Tom Patrick's left hooks for six rounds, and never missed once. Patrick got the nod quite easily.

Leonard Rahming got the verdict over Sammy Rothstein in the six-round special. Rahming knocked out Rothstein in a previous bout. Rahming was down for no count in the fourth round last night, and Rothstein was on the canvas momentarily in the sixth.

The two scheduled four-rounders lasted less than three rounds together. Billy Wagner flattened Fred Gardner, substituting for Jimmy Peterson, in the first round of the second bout; and Ritchie Thomas won by a technical knockout over Mickey Solomon in the second round of the opener. Solomon wasn't knocked off his feet, but he took a lot of punishment.

TILDEN HARD PRESSED IN FRENCH TENNIS TOURNEY

BY THOMAS T. TOPPING

AUTEUIL (France) May 29. (AP)—William T. Tilden scored a bitterly contested victory over G. P. Hughes, one of England's rising young tennis stars, today, at 6-1, 8-10, 7-5, 6-3, and stood out as the lone American still in the running as the chase for the French-men's hard-court title narrowed to the quarter - final round.

In the women's singles division three Americans still remained in the race at the same stage of proceedings, as Elizabeth Ryan came through with a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Yvett Barbier of France to join her fellow-Californians, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody and Helen Jacobs, among the last eight survivors.

The men's quarter-finals pit Tilden against Lyttleton Rogers, the Irish giant; Jlean Borotra, France, vs. J. Colin Gregory, England; E. F. Moon, Australia, vs. De Morpurgo, and Henri Cochet, France, against Harry Hopman, Australia.

Brooklyn Goes Into Tie for First Place in National League With St. Louis Cardin

ROBINS WALLOP NEW YORK, 4-1

Giants Fall Before Heavy Hitting Winners

Babe Herman Hits Pair of Home Runs

Clark Allows Losers But Six Bingles

BROOKLYN, May 29. (AP)—The Brooklyn Robins regained their tie with the St. Louis Cardinals for first place in the National League today by defeating the New York Giants, 4 to 1. The Cardinals were among the six idle clubs in the circuit.

CARL HUBBELL

Babe Herman and William Watson Clark as a combination proved too much for the Giants. Herman hit two home runs, one off Carl Hubbell and the other off Joe Heving, who relieved Hubbell in the eighth inning, and batted in three of the Robin runs. Clark allowed the Giants only six hits, one at a time, and was deprived of a shut-out only by Andy Reese's homer in the fifth. Score:

SENATORS STOPPED

NEW YORK, May 29. (AP)—With George Pipgras playing the leading role, the Yankees checked the winning streak of the Washington Senators today after seven straight victories. The score was 4 to 2. It was the second time the Yankees have beaten Washington in seven games this season, Pipgras pitched both times.

The "Great Dane" allowed nine hits, but kept them well scattered after the first inning, when the Senators started off with three successive singles to score one run. It was his sixth victory in nine starts. Score:

Chip Shot Technique Explained

BY SOL METZGER

Note the sketch of Willie Macfarlane at the finish of a wee chip. Get from it the important point that you must follow through on this shot. The average golfer, learning that the chip is a wrist and forearm stroke, may get the wrong idea. He might think he is playing it if he fails to follow through. If he so played it he would find his club head pointing up at the finish, much as it did at the top of the backswing.

While the shot is a wrist and forearm stroke be sure to let the club head go out low after the ball. In other words, as you stroke through the ball let the club head pull your hands and wrists after it. It will pull them away from the body.

The follow-through is necessary in any stroke. Make doubly sure of it on the wee ones, like the chip, and your scores will be many strokes lower. Tomorrow—Diegel's odd way of chipping.

Metzger's free illustrated leaflet on "Long Iron Shots" will be a big aid to you in playing such shots. Write for it. Address Sol Metzger, in care of this paper, and be sure to inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

FIVE MORE ATHLETES IN GRIND

Three Runners from Last Year Again Are Entered in Marathon

Five more entries for The Times pre-Olympic Marathon arrived in the mail yesterday, bringing the total entry list to date to sixty-eight. Chief among the five is R. M. Angier, who last year won the Belvedere Gardens long-distance race and placed well up among the leaders in The Times classic.

The other entrants are Laurits Larsen, who also ran last year; Chester E. Bartruff of Portland, Or.; H. B. Gentry, another "repeater," and George Morgan of Los Angeles.

Several entrants have not yet sent in their A.A.U. numbers and they cannot be officially accepted until their cards are received, Charley Keppen, manager of the event, said yesterday. Registration can be made with Arnold Eddy, secretary of the A.A.U., at the University of Southern California.

Keppen also repeated the former announcement that under no conditions would coaches or friends be allowed to accompany the runners in automobiles. The athletes will be furnished with water and oranges en route and busses, ambulances and doctors will be on hand if needed. There was not a single ambulance call during the race last year.

This shelving of the issue apparently was accepted with a general feeling of relief.

The congress enjoined the national federations to make the Olympic Games their world championships, at least not to arrange any world-title events during the Olympic year.

Having finished its business half a day ahead of schedule, the congress adjourned at noon.

The decision of the International Olympic Committee to limit entries to three instead of four will tend to curb the arithmetical superiority of the United States in the track and field events.

In most of the important events the Americans have usually entered the maximum number of contestants, their team usually outnumbering those of other nations considerably. The various national teams are expected to vary less widely in size as a result of the new ruling and weight of numbers will become a less potent factor.

Another Red crossed the plate in the second, which opened with George Burns slapping a single to right just out of Jacobs's reach. Burns, who is about as fast as a pair of flat feet in fresh tar, then surprised all present by stealing second. Rodda's infield out, on which Dittmar made a brilliant play, sent Burns to third, from where he scored when Sigafoos made an even more sensational stop to get Brenzel at first.

SCORE FINAL MARKER

The third Mission marker arrived in the seventh inning when Ike Boone, the league's leading headache for pitchers, singled to right, took second on Burns's infield out and scored on Rodda's one-base shot to right. Brenzel followed with another single but Pillette was out, Dittmar to Jacobs, to end the inning.

There will be two games today, the opener starting at 1:30. Baecht and Walsh are expected to pitch for the Seraphs, while Killefer has McQuaid, Caster, Douglas and Cole all available for mound duty. Score:

Big Six Baseball

By the Associated Press

Babe Herman batted his way back to the big six and National League leadership yesterday as he led the Robins to a victory over the Giants by getting two home runs and a single in four times at bat. The sudden spurt gave the Brooklyn Babe an average of .414. Sam Rice hit safely twice in five attempts and with a semiofficial revision of the figures, which gave him two more times at bat, dropped to .410. The other National League members were idle while Al Simmons and Babe Ruth each dropped a point in the averages, getting one hit in three trips to the plate.

RABBIT PUNCHES

BY PAUL LOWRY

SEEK THIRD TITLE

TWO firsts, a second, a fourth, a sixth and a sixteenth in six years of competition in the I.C.4-A. championships, cream of the eastern track-and-field classics.

That's the record of the University of Southern California Trojans. They won in 1925 and 1926, and today, in the opening trials at Cambridge, they hope to place qualifiers who will cinch their third title tomorrow.

Their chief opposition will come from the Sons of the Stanford Red, who, under the expert direction of Mr. Dink Templeton, have charged to the front the past three years running.

It seems almost criminal again to mention the fact that the East has not won its own championship since 1924, when Yale slipped in, and that only once in the past nine years has either California, Southern California or Stanford failed to win the crown.

California made the grade in 1921-22-23, Southern California in 1925-26 and Stanford in 1927-28-29.

The Trojans lack the sure first-place winners such as Houser, Dye and Grumbles that they had in '25 and '26, but they have average strength distributed over twelve events, and they seem assured of enough seconds and thirds to cop the bunting.

In addition they have potential first-place men in Wykoff in the 100, Stewart or Van Osdel in the high jump, and possibly Paul or Barber in the broad jump, Payne or Caris in the low hurdles.

If these men connect the Trojans can annex enough seconds, thirds and fourths to cinch the championship. Even Stanford with the redoubtable Krenz and Rothert can not hold them in check.

ACCURACY WITH THE TOE

A FOOTBALL note of considerable import was lost in the shuffle of the day's interest over Bobby Jones's thrilling defeat of Cyril Tolley in the British amateur.

This was Phil Moffatt's feat of kicking seven times for an average of 54 yards at Stanford the other days.

The competition was not based on distance alone, but had an accuracy angle attached.

It is therefore, particularly interesting to Head Man Jones at the University of Southern California.

Mr. Jones's Trojans will follow the customary practice of playing Stanford before a big crowd next fall, and those who follow football will see considerable of Moffatt in action at that time.

Phil is a former Los Angeles High School boy. He was a sophomore at Stanford last year, but I don't believe a better soph since Ernie Nevers's time has popped up to gladden Pop Warner's old eyes.

Phil got so good toward the latter part of the season that Pop only started the seniors for sentiment's sake. When the going got tough, or Pop really wanted something accomplished he sent Moffatt in.

In the California and Army games Moffatt kicked so accurately that his long boots hit on the sidelines and rolled out. There wasn't a chance to return them. And it, packing the ball Phil gives promise of being an all-time Stanford star.

MISFORTUNE IN BUNCHES

GEORGE BLAKE has the sympathy of all in his recent jolt—the death of Mrs. Blake in New York.

Never has a boxing tour been productive of so much grief and misery as the last one undertaken by Blake and Fidel La Barba.

It was one thing after another.

La Barba was scheduled to fight Earl Mastro at Chicago, but the fight had to be called off when Mastro's mother died.

In a substitute bout La Barba won from Bud Taylor, but was nearly knocked out in the first round.

La Barba was billed to meet Kid Chocolate in a big-money match at New York.

Chocolate became involved in an automobile accident, and couldn't fight.

Bushy Graham was substituted, and the smallest crowd of the season turned out to see the fray at Madison Square Garden.

Just before the Graham bout Mrs. Blake, taken suddenly ill, died from a forced operation.

And a saddened group, consisting of Blake, La Barba and Mrs. La Barba, brings the body home for burial next Tuesday.

THOSE GOLF RULES

THE U.S.G.A. golf rules are the bane of many a player, and young Charley Seaver is no exception.

Young Seaver was disqualified in a recent eastern interscholastic golf tourney for playing a provisional ball, plucking the first ball from the mud bank of a creek which he was led to believe was out of bounds.

He scored a 3 with the provisional ball and added two penalty strokes for a 5, but the committee bounced him out of the tournament.

Seaver was playing under the colors of the Hun School of Princeton, and the extent of the tragedy is better appreciated when it is reported that he shot the final nine holes in 34 strokes.

SHADE COACHES CAMPBELL

Hudkins's Conqueror Teaches Frankie Weaving Style of Boxing for Kirby Fight

Dave Shade has become Frankie Campbell's boxing instructor. He took his place in the "jury box" at the Manhattan gymnasium yesterday. Beginning today he will give Frankie a private lesson each morning for the rest of the week in addition to the afternoon regular session.

Campbell boxed four rounds yesterday with Paul Sudersky, Russian heavyweight, and Joe Barry, who graduated from the L.A.A.C. amateurs. Barry is an Italian prospect, weighs 185 pounds and is managed by Sammy Greenburg.

Shade is coaching Campbell in the new Dempsey style of weaving and is enthusiastic over his pupil. Campbell is in splendid shape now. He will box with Jimmy Hanna today. Hanna has lost but one fight in Los Angeles. That was to Tom Kirby, who fights Campbell Tuesday night at the Olympic.

Kirby is working at Murrietta Spot Springs for the bout. Young Kirby is a stablemate of Jim Maloney. While they were working in the Main-street gymnasium a few weeks ago Kirby brought Maloney to his knees with a right-hand punch. He has knocked out Jack Gagnon, the man who stopped Tuffy Griffiths, also he has defeated Paul Swiderski, who knocked Mickey Walker down three times the night before the Kentucky Derby at Louisville.

The Kirby-Campbell preliminaries are Don Burchard vs. Eddie Curley, Pete Sarmiento vs. Charley Kaiser, Hi Diamond vs. Joe Wilton and Joey Rich vs. Jimmy Mack.

BELL EAGLES BOW TO BANNING NINE

Coach Jean Patz's Banning nine advanced another step toward the Marine League baseball title yesterday afternoon at Banning by defeating the strong Bell Eagles, 6 to 1. McCord hurled a good game for Banning, allowing but seven hits. "Red" Frazier of Bell gave the Banning batsmen eleven blows.

TROJANS, CARDS ARE FAVORITES

Southern California needs the points he is capable of scoring in the 220. Tolan, however, will be in, as will Hec Dyer of Stanford, Bill Kastler of Penn, Ted Graham of Syracuse and a flock of others who have bettered 22s. this season.

Trials in eleven of the fifteen championship events will be put on tomorrow. These include the two sprints, both hurdle races, all of the weight events, the javelin throw and the quarter and half-mile races. The trials for the mile, two-mile, high jump and pole vault will be held over until Saturday.

All of the competitors were on the scene today, but few of them worked out. The three California teams, which have been here for several days, were given a holiday.

Though Stanford had the power to pile up 45 3-8 points last year, it is not likely that any team will get such a total this year. Coaches agreed that 35 points, just about twice what Stanford expects to score in two events, will be hard to beat.

ALBERT McNEELY TO JOIN BISBEE OUTFIT

BISBEE (Ariz.) May 29. (AP)—Albert McNeely, outfielder of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, is scheduled to join the Bisbee club in Miami tomorrow.

McNeely played with Tucson in the Arizona State League last season, finishing the year with a .350 batting average. He is a graduate of San Diego High School, where he starred in several sports.

ENGLISH STAR SCARES TILDEN

queror in the recent England-Germany Davis Cup tie. The sturdy Gregory won in a hard-fought five-set match, 1-8, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3. In another epic struggle, Borotra nosed out Yoshiro Ohta of Japan, 5-7, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1, 9-7.

Mrs. Moody next encounters Helena Rost of Germany, while Miss Ryan is arrayed against another German fraulein, Cecilie Aussem; Miss Jacobs vs. Mrs. Phoebe Watson of England, finalist for the American championship last year, and Elia Dr Alvarez of Spain vs. Mme. Simone Mathieu of France.

Tilden caught a tartar in the young Englishman, who after a shaky first set owing to nervousness, kept the American champion on the defensive throughout the second set and much of the third. England's third-ranking player led, 3-0, in the fourth set when Tilden unleashed a furious attack, running out six straight games for the match.

Miss Ryan had no difficulty in disposing of Mlle. Barbier. Unfortunately she must meet Mrs. Moody in the semifinals providing both win their matches tomorrow.

Ohta held set point seven times against Borotra but could not punch the winning shot across.

SACRAMENTO TRIUMPHS OVER SEATTLE OUTFIT

SEATTLE (Wash.) May 29. (AP)—Sacramento took a two-to-one lead in its series with Seattle here by winning today, 4 to 2. Fay Thomas allowed the Indians only three hits in blanking them for eight innings, but when the Seattle club scored twice off him in the ninth, Tony Freitas was rushed to the mound to save the game.

Timely hits by French accounted for two Sacramento runs and Hogg's three-bagger another of the four counters scored off House. Hanson pitched the last inning against the Sacs. Score:

Tony Freitas Tops Hurlers in Coast Loop

Tony Freitas, sensational young Sacramento southpaw, is leading the Pacific Coast League pitchers with six victories and no defeats. Bill Peters, Los Angeles left-hander, and Ted Pillette of the Missions are the only other unbeaten pitchers in the circuit. Both have four wins to their credit. Freitas just missed his seventh straight victory last Sunday when he held the Angels scoreless for twelve innings, only to have the game end in a 0-0 tie when the contest was stopped by a time limit.

BILL PETERS

Pete Daglia, giant Oakland hurler, has won eight games and lost two. Jimmy Zinn of the Seals has seven victories to his credit, one of them being a no-hit affair against Sacramento and another a one-hit performance against Oakland. The averages follow:

Lutze Dropped as Opponent for Champion

As the result of his defeat at the hands of Don George at the Olympic Wednesday night, Nick Lutze has been dropped by Promoter Lou Daro as a possible opponent for Champion Gus Sonnenberg here early in July, it was announced yesterday.

Lutze's showing, however, ranked with the best he has made here, in the opinion of mat experts. Despite his defeat the young Venice lifeguard lost none of his popularity.

George showing in winning was considered his most impressive since he has been here. It was the first time that the former University of Michigan wrestler had been extended to the limit, and use of a great variety of wrestling holds and his spectacular mat work made him even more popular with the fans.

CHALLENGER BARGE WILL OPEN TODAY

Another fishing barge will join "Anglers' Alley" off Santa Monica when Bill's Challenger barge goes into commission today under the management of the Morris Boats, Inc., of the Bay City. The Challenger was formerly at Redondo for a number of seasons.

Capt. Bill Hall, who has been in command of the craft for years, will again meet old friends at the gang plank. Tender service is to be run from the Santa Monica municipal pier and from Del Rey. The ship offers every accommodation to deep-sea anglers and especially caters to women and children.

GOOD FISHING REPORT FILED

Streams Furnishing Nice Catches for Anglers

Fishing has picked up the past week and good reports have been received generally throughout the State, acording to the outing bureau of the Auto Club of Southern California. Southern California streams are furnishing good fishing to experienced anglers, but those who expect to drive their car to a stream and start fishing are disappointed.

The San Diego county lakes have sent in encouraging reports for the past week. Lower Otay, Sweetwater and Moreno lakes lead the field. A total of 1538 bass taken at Lower Otay on live bait; light colored lures and bait were used at Sweetwater and Moreno. Crappie are being caught in numbers at Lake Hodges; but few bass. Wohlford, Barrett, Cuyamaca and Henshaw were slow.

Riverside county reports fair results in Snow Creek and Tahquitz Creek—to reach these waters requires a hike of several miles from Idyllwild; water low and clear—fish taking fly readily.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY

Big Bear Lake produces few bass, but still some.

Arrowhead not very good; only few fish taken.

Holcomb Creek, reached via Big Bear Lake, Holcomb Valley and Maxwell Ranch, has been good—limits taken here, both bait and fly necessary to hike four to six miles.

Deep Creek high, but fairly clear—bait. Nothing new. This stream is reached from Arrowhead Lake and trail from Squirrel Ranch, Hooks Creek or Allison's Ranch, necessary to hike from two to four miles.

Bear Creek, Siberia and Santa Ana only fair—water still high but taking bait.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY

Big Rock Creek and South Fork are good for bait fishing. Fish are small and stream rough—requires considerable hiking. Best reached via Little Rock and Valyermo Postoffice.

Pratzer Flat, reached headwaters of East Fork of San Gabriel, reached via Vincent Gulch trail or Big Pines, has furnished good catches; trout ranging from four to ten miles—fish small, but limits are taken readily. Bait or dark flies are both good. West Fork reached via trail from Rincon or Opid's, good—requires five to ten miles hiking. Bait and flies.

Cucamonga, Day Canyon and San Antonio furnishing good fishing, but not to amateur. Reached by trail from Foothill Boulevard.

VENTURA COUNTY

Streams are low and clear; fishing has been fair. Sespe, Piru, Santa Paula Creek, still furnishing small fish in the creeks. Necessary to hike well up-stream.

Matilija Creek near Fish Rock fairly good. Also is reached by Buena Ventura Hot Springs.

The Upper Sespe, reached by Wheeler's Hot Springs, Rose Valley and Alder Creek, fish taking fly for experienced fisherman. Sespe Blanca Creek, tributary to the Piru Creek, reached via Piru Creek, good well up-stream toward the Upper Narrows. Fish taking fly.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

Streams are low and fishing poor. Cachuma Lake furnishing good fishing this season; water low and muddy.

George Parker, of Independence reports streams in that district low and clear; some snow still around higher lakes, but is gone along the streams. Kearsarge Pass reached via Onion Valley, 26 to 28 miles—bait; weather, ideal.

Bishop office reports weather clear and warm and fishing good. Hatches are matches the rule rather than the exception. Flies being taken in practically all streams.

Robinson, Green, Rush, Grass River, Horseshoe, Rock, Bull, Big Pine, Independence and Lone Pine creeks good.

Topaz, Twin Lakes at Bridgeport, Convict, Grant, Silver, Crowley and Parker lakes—good; also North, South and Sebrina.

SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Kern River, South Fork, Domes Creek, Wide-Mile, Manter, Trout Creek and Durbow good. Bait. Salmon eggs readily taken, according to Wortley brothers at Fairview.

Report received from California Hot Springs; fish taking flies in Deer Creek and Tyler Creek.

Reports from streams in that district high and muddy; fishing poor.

Isabella Lake reports fair fishing; few crappie taken; bait.

C. A. Washburn, of Wawona reports small streams good; flies being taken in that section; river still high and muddy.

Rainbow Angling Club reports excellent fishing; an plentiful early season fishermen trying out this new club at Azusa—a new addition to the club is proving very popular, due to accessibility and surroundings.

Rogue River still low and clear; salmon run continuing. Capt. Ed Kelley of the Western Auto Supply reports after a visit to this famous stream.

OCEAN FISHING

The best fishing of this season has been had all along the Southern California coast the past week. Barracuda, bass, bonito, albacore and yellowtail in each furnishing the bait-tossers very good sport, both from the live bait boats and from the piers.

Large schools of barracuda appeared off Redondo and Hermosa and are now reported in Santa Monica bay. Anglers will end should furnish the salt-water fishermen all the excitement they crave. Best reports from the barracuda fishing have been reported in Santa Monica bay, and a few of these fighters have been hooked and landed. Jewfish have made their appearance and several of these monsters have been taken.

Off the coast of Baldwa and Newport large schools of barracuda and bonito are reported, and a few albacore have been taken.

The five bait boats out of Santa Monica report large catches of bass off Point Dume, and that certainly should furnish good bass, barracuda, skipjack and halibut fishing this week-end.

Other results: Jack Campbell outpointed Warren Farrell, six rounds; Kid Mack beat Jackie Steward, six rounds; Jack Shoemaker beat Frankie Vernell, four rounds; Jimmy Fenway beat Bob McClure, four rounds; Billy West won on a foul from Hutt Coogar, one round.

SHIPPING GROUP INDORSES BILL

Senate Act Aims to Speed Up Quarantine Inspection

Measure Provides Service of Twenty-four Hours

Would Unnecessarily Delay Sailing from Ports

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Twenty-four-hour quarantine inspection service for ships entering United States from foreign ports, is proposed in Senate Bill No. 4584, just introduced by Senator Copeland of New York. At present such entries are restricted between sunrise and sunset.

The measure is said to have the support of shipowners everywhere, particularly at Los Angeles Harbor, where many ships arriving late would load, bunker and depart during dark hours at which they now lie at anchor.

Particularly is this said to be true of tankers, one of the biggest classes of ships making this port. Their stays in port are seldom longer than the few hours sufficient to load. Many times they are no longer than the night hours they now are required to anchor awaiting for sunrise and pratique.

Such night inspection service also would be expected to benefit a large number of passenger liners, and general cargo carriers, and permit them to reach other foreign ports during entry hours entailing a double saving.

On the other hand, such service would, it is said, impose practically a twenty-four-hour watch not only by public health, customs and other boarding agencies, but by associated marine enterprises on land. Among these would be brokerage firms, ship supply houses, longshoremen and such.

The measure would authorize an appropriation of $400,000 to carry out the provisions. It is understood all boarding staffs would need be augmented materially.

NEW GULF-PACIFIC RATE CUT IN EFFECT

A reduction of 4 cents per 100 pounds on iron and steel products from midwest points to Pacific Coast ports via Gulf ports transshipment, is today effective over all steamship lines in Gulf-Pacific Coast trade, it was announced yesterday by Harry G. Adam, general agent here for Swayne & Hoyt's Gulf-Pacific Line.

The new rate follows recent action by the Interstate Commerce Commission in ordering the Illinois Central Railroad to extend to the Gulf-Pacific and Luckenbach-Gulf Lines its through rate therefore enjoyed exclusively by the Redwood Line. Under the arrangement freight originating in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky for Pacific Coast consignees is hauled to the Mississippi River by the Illinois Central, down the river via Mississippi Warrior barges and then trans-shipped at Gulf ports to steamers for the Pacific Coast.

The British tanker Athelregent, in trade out of this port to the United Kingdom, was yesterday reported hard aground on Los Roques reefs off the east coast of Venezuela.

Five hundred travellers are coming to California aboard the Panama-Pacific electric liner Pennsylvania, due tomorrow morning from New York, via Havana and the Canal. A large theatrical contingent is aboard, including Hope Williams, star of the current Broadway production, "Rebound;" Margery Morse, dramatic star; Russell E. Markert, ballet director of the Roxy Theater, New York; and Mrs. Caroline Barthelmess, mother of Richard Barthelmess.

Returning Southland residents include Mrs. Charles B. Bothe, Mrs. Elsie Browne, Mrs. C. C. Cottle, C. A. Fellows, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Green, G. Austin Haskell, Julius P. Liffman, Miss Sylvia Liffman, Miss Florence Matthews, Arthur T. Stollmeck, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Suydam and Mrs. Anita Woods, all of Los Angeles; Mrs. D. H. Final of Long Beach, and Miss Elizabeth A. Maney of Pasadena.

The 122-foot iced bait boat Chicken of the Sea, largest ever built here for the tuna trade, will sail on her maiden voyage at 9 a.m. today for Mexican waters. She was built at Parke & Kibele's for H. E. W. A. and D. S. Morgan, to fish for Van Camp Sea Food Company. The craft is powered with a 500-horsepower Western Enterprise main diesel engine, a fifty-five-horsepower auxiliary; carries a nine-ton ice machine and crew of sixteen. Tanks are sufficient for 8000 miles of cruising at ten knots, with a possible speed of thirteen. Refrigerated holds will handle 600 blocks of ice and 180 tons of fish.

Admiral liners Dorothy Alexander and Emma Alexander each went out with 300 excursionists last night on a week-end cruise to Ensenada. The Dorothy had returned yesterday morning with 250 travelers from a ten-day trip to Mazatlan.

Lasco liner Calawaii is due tomorrow with 277 passengers from Hawaii and on the same day the line's flagship City of Los Angeles will sail for Hawaii with 180. Outbound travelers will include William J. Garland, Beverly Hills realty man; R. T. Begich, vice-president of Chesapeake and Ohio Railway; John A. Hughes, superintendent of the Oahu Railway and Land Company; R. H. Tuttle, superintendent of the Santa Fe System at Los Angeles, and William Kellogg, Altadena publisher.

Leon Ellison's motorship Camina discharged 4500 stems of Mexican bananas yesterday and today will carry a party of fifteen to Catalina for the week-end, in celebration of his daughter, Miss Marion's sixteenth birthday.

Last of the local sardines bound for France before France's tariff becomes effective June 1, some 15,000 cases went out on the French Line freighter Arizona yesterday.

WHAT SAFEGUARDS DO YOU EMPLOY IN EXECUTING YOUR INVESTMENTS?

I have a very select clientele that seek my counsel on all real estate INVESTMENT PROBLEMS.

Sixty per cent of my clients depend entirely on the income from their investments. Forty-two per cent of my clients are ladies.

Many have had to prove to themselves that they were not capable of selecting their investments from the smooth salesman who is only interested in a commission.

I am now in position to care for five more clients who wish to have their investment problems solved by one firm regardless. My clients' investment accounts receive my personal supervision.

All replies held in strict confidence. All over the five clients that I select will receive a personal call telling of my inability to render you investment counsel service until such time when either of my clients move East. Address J. box 140, Times Office.
